"The Nectar of Sri Krishna Chaitanya's Acts" (Murari Gupta's Kadacha)

Murari Gupta

Translated from the Sanskrit into English

Sanskrit text, transliteration, word-for-word and translation

Translator's Note

Sri Krishna-chaitanya-charitamrita is the Sanskrit poem of Murari Gupta, a fellow-countryman and companion of Sri Chaitanya and an eyewitness of his life in Navadvipa; tradition calls it Murari Gupta's Kadacha ("notes"). It is the earliest biography of Mahaprabhu, drawn upon by Vrindavana Dasa, Kavikarnapura, Lochana Dasa and Krishnadasa Kaviraja. The poem is divided into four prakramas (parts) and 78 sargas (cantos).

Source. The Sanskrit text has been reconstructed from three OCR copies: two scans of the edition of Haridasa

Shastri (Vrindavana) and the edition of Haridasa Dasa (Calcutta, 1945, Bengali script); readings were checked against metre and grammar. Verse numbering follows Haridasa Shastri's edition. Only Murari Gupta's Sanskrit text has been translated; the translations and commentaries of the editions were not used. Interpretation follows Srila Bhaktisiddhanta Sarasvati.
