The Journey to the South: The Deliverance of Vāsudeva

(English translation from the Bengali, following the Gauḍīya Maṭha edition and the «Anubhāṣya», 2026 — draft)

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya

Summary. In the bright fortnight of the month of Māgha Mahāprabhu took sannyāsa, and in the month of Phālguna He settled in Nīlācala. In Phālguna He saw the Dola-yātrā, in Caitra He delivered Sārvabhauma, and in Vaiśākha He set out on His journey to the south. He proposed to tour the south alone, and so Nityānanda Prabhu gave Him a brāhmaṇa named “Kṛṣṇadāsa” as His companion. When the Lord was leaving, Sārvabhauma gave Him four sets of kaupīnas and outer cloths (bahirvāsa) and asked Him to meet Rāmānanda Rāya on the bank of the Godāvarī. Nityānanda Prabhu and several other devotees went with the Lord as far as Ālālanātha. Leaving them, and taking only Kṛṣṇadāsa with Him, Mahāprabhu walked on, saying, “Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa!” In whatever village He spent the night, He infused power (śakti-sañcāra) into those who surrendered to Him and ordered them to make the whole land Vaiṣṇava. They in turn taught bhakti to others, and the number of devotees grew in other villages. In this way the Lord reached Kūrma-sthāna. There He showed mercy to a brāhmaṇa named “Kūrma” and delivered a brāhmaṇa (vipra) named “Vāsudeva” from rotting leprosy. Because He delivered Vāsudeva, the Lord received one of His names, “Vāsudevāmṛta-prada” (He who gave nectar to Vāsudeva).

Obeisance to the Lord, "Vāsudevāmṛta-prada" —

1 I praise that blessed Caitanya who, His heart melting with compassion, cured Vāsudeva of leprosy, filled him with beauty and made him content in devotion.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
With a mind softened by compassion, He freed the devotee named "Vāsudeva" from leprosy, endowed him with a beautiful form and made him content in bhakti. To that glorious Caitanyadeva I bow.

Anubhāṣya.

3 Having thus delivered Sārvabhauma, the Lord felt the desire to go to the south.

The Lord thanks the devotees and asks leave to go —

The desire to go alone, to deliver the South on the pretext of searching for His elder brother Viśvarūpa —

13 The all-knowing Lord knew that Viśvarūpa had already attained perfection; He used the search only as a pretext to deliver the southern country.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
Mahāprabhu is all-knowing. He knew full well that Viśvarūpa had already attained perfection (siddhi) before that. But to deliver the southern land, He brought forward a pretext: that He would go in search of Viśvarūpa.

Anubhāṣya.

17 I know all the routes to the holy places of the south. Let Me go with You, Prabhu — give Me Your permission."

Under the guise of feigned blame, the Lord praises the qualities of Nityānanda, Jagadānanda, Dāmodara and the others —

প্রভু কহে, আমি — নর্ত্তক, তুমি — সূত্রধার ।
তুমি যৈছে নাচাও, তৈছে নর্ত্তন আমার ॥ ১৮ ॥

23 Mukunda is unhappy to see the duties of My sannyāsa: bathing three times a day even in the cold, and sleeping on the bare ground.

ihāra duḥkha dekhi' mora dvi-guṇa haye duḥkhe
his unhappiness seeing My twofold becomes unhappiness

24 Mukunda grieves within but says nothing; and seeing his grief, I grieve twice as much.

Anubhāṣya.
[The Lord says:] "To observe the dharma of sannyāsa I bathe three times a day even in winter, and I lie on the ground without a bed. Seeing this, Mukunda is grieved. I know that grief has entered Mukunda's heart because of Me, and that makes Me doubly sad."

*The Lord hints at the independence of Dāmodara the brahmacārī —*

আমি ত' — সন্ন্যাসী, দামোদর — ব্রহ্মচারী । সদা রহে আমার উপর শিক্ষা-দণ্ড ধরি' ॥ ২৫ ॥

āmi ta' — sannyāsī, dāmodara — brahmacārī
I indeed a sannyāsī Dāmodara a brahmacārī always he stays Me over the rod of instruction holding 25 I am a sannyāsī and Dāmodara a brahmacārī, yet he always stands over Me with the rod of instruction.

Anubhāṣya.
A sannyāsī is the guru of a brahmacārī. Therefore it is improper for a brahmacārī to instruct a sannyāsī.

ইঁহার আগে আমি না জানি ব্যবহার । ইঁহারে না ভায় স্বতন্ত্র চরিত্র আমার ॥ ২৬ ॥

iṁhāra āge āmi nā jāni vyavahāra

26 In his eyes I know nothing of proper conduct, and My independent ways do not please him.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

[The Lord says:] “Dāmodara (the brahmacārī) always disciplines Me with the rod of instruction so that it seems that in his presence I am someone with no idea how to behave.”

Anubhāṣya.

Nā bhāya — does not please him; he does not like it.

লোকাপেক্ষা নাহি ইঁহার কৃষ্ণকৃপা হৈতে । আমি লোকাপেক্ষা কভু না পারি ছাড়িতে ॥ ২৭ ॥

lokāpekṣā nāhi iṁhāra kṛṣṇa-kṛpā haite regard for people not his Kṛṣṇa’s mercy by āmi lokāpekṣā kabhu nā pāri chāḍite
I regard for people ever not can give up

27 By Kṛṣṇa’s mercy he cares nothing for what people think; but I can never give up regard for what people think.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

[The Lord says:] “Dāmodara Paṇḍita and the others have more of Kṛṣṇa's mercy. Therefore they do not care what people think, and they want Me to enjoy all sorts of worldly things. But I am a humble sannyāsī. I cannot ignore what people think, and so I behave as dharma requires.”

The Lord asks everyone to stay in Purī until He returns —

অতএব তুমি-সব রহ নীলাচলে । দিনকত আমি তীর্থ ভ্রমিব একলে ॥ ২৮ ॥

ataeva tumi-saba raha nīlācale therefore you all stay in Nīlācala dinakata āmi tīrtha bhramiba ekale days some I holy places shall wander alone

28 Therefore all of you stay in Nīlācala, while for some time I wander alone to the holy places.”

Praise of His devotees' qualities under the guise of pointing out their faults —

ইঁহা-সবার বশ প্রভু হয়ে যে যে-গুণে । দোষারোপ-ছলে করে গুণ আস্বাদনে ॥ ২৯ ॥

iṁhā-sabāra vaśa prabhu haye ye ye-guṇe of these all controlled the Lord becomes by which qualities doṣāropa-chale kare guṇa āsvādane of fault-finding under the pretext He does of qualities relishing

29 The Lord is controlled by the very qualities of these devotees, and in the guise of finding fault with them He relished their virtues.[2]

Anubhāṣya.
The qualities of the devotees described above had bound the Lord. These very qualities He deliberately called “faults,” and so He made known His devotees' glory.

The Lord's incomparable love for His devotees —

চৈতন্যের ভক্ত-বাৎসল্য — অকথ্য-কথন । আপনে বৈরাগ্য-দুঃখ করেন সহন ॥ ৩০ ॥

caitanyera bhakta-vātsalya — akathya-kathana Caitanya’s affection for His devotees indescribable āpane vairāgya-duḥkha karena sahana Himself the hardships of renunciation He does endure

30 Caitanya’s affection for His devotees is beyond words. He Himself endures the hardships of renunciation.

The Lord accepts hardship for the devotees' sake, and the devotees suffer at it

সেই দুঃখ দেখি’ যেই ভক্ত দুঃখ পায় । সেই দুঃখ তাঁর শক্ত্যে সহন না যায় ॥ ৩১ ॥

sei duḥkha dekhi’ yei bhakta duḥkha pāya that hardship seeing which devotee pain feels sei duḥkha tāṁra śaktye sahana nā yāya that pain His by power to bear not is possible

31 But when a devotee is pained to see those hardships, that pain He has no power to bear.

গুণ দোষোদগার ছলে সবা নিষেধিয়া । একাকী ভ্রমিবেন তীর্থ বৈরাগ্য করিয়া ॥ ৩২ ॥

guṇa doṣodagāra chale sabā niṣedhiyā virtues speaking of faults under the pretext all forbidding ekākī bhramibena tīrtha vairāgya kariyā alone He will wander holy places renunciation practising

32 So, calling their virtues faults, He held them all back, for He meant to wander the holy places alone in strict renunciation.

The independent Lord stands firm in His resolve —

তবে চারিজন বহু মিনতি করিল । স্বতন্ত্র ঈশ্বর প্রভু কভু না মানিল ॥ ৩৩ ॥

tabe cārijana bahu minati karila then the four persons much pleading made svatantra īśvara prabhu kabhu nā mānila independent Lord the Lord at all not accepted

33 Then the four devotees pleaded with Him at length, but the Lord, independent and supreme, would not consent.

Nitāi's final request —

তবে নিত্যানন্দ কহে, — যে আজ্ঞা তোমার ৷ দুঃখ সুখ যে হউক্ কর্ত্তব্য আমার ॥ ৩৪ ॥

tabe nityānanda kahe, — ye ājñā tomāra then Nityānanda says whatever order Your duḥkha sukha ye hauk kartavya āmāra sorrow happiness whatever may be duty My 34 Then Nityānanda said, “Whatever You order is My duty, whether it brings sorrow or happiness.

কিন্তু এক নিবেদন করোঁ আর বার ৷ বিচার করিয়া তাহা কর অঙ্গীকার ॥ ৩৫ ॥

kintu eka nivedana karoṁ āra bāra but one request I make once more vicāra kariyā tāhā kara aṅgīkāra consideration making it make acceptance

35 But I make one more request: consider it, and then accept it.

*A request to take someone along to carry the kaupīna, the outer cloth and the waterpot —*

কৌপীন, বহির্ব্বাস আর জলপাত্র ৷ আর কিছু নাহি যাবে, সবে এই মাত্র ॥ ৩৬ ॥

kaupīna, bahir-vāsa āra jala-pātra kaupīna outer cloth and water pot āra kichu nāhi yābe, sabe ei mātra other anything not will go all this only

36 A kaupīna, an outer cloth and a water pot: that is all You will take with You, and nothing more.

*The Lord chants the name while keeping count (saṅkhyā-nāma-japa) —*

তোমার দুই হস্ত বদ্ধ নাম-গণনে । জলপাত্র বহির্ব্বাস বহিবে কেমনে ॥ ৩৭ ॥

tomāra dui hasta baddha nāma-gaṇane
Your two hands bound in counting the names jala-pātra bahirvāsa vahibe kemane water pot outer cloth You will carry how 37 Both Your hands are occupied in counting the holy names. How will You carry the water pot and the outer cloth?

প্রেমাবেশে পথে তুমি হবে অচেতন । এ-সব সামগ্রী তোমার কে করে রক্ষণ ॥ ৩৮ ॥

premāveśe pathe tumi habe acetana absorbed in love on the way You will be unconscious
e-saba sāmagrī tomāra ke kare rakṣaṇa
these all things Your who will make safekeeping

38 On the way You will fall unconscious in the ecstasy of love. Who will look after these things of Yours then?

Anubhāṣya.

Both of the Lord's hands were occupied counting the names He chanted by number (saṅkhyā-nāma). Therefore, if others did not carry the kamaṇḍalu, the outer cloth and the rest, the Lord would not have the things He needed when He needed them. And when He lost consciousness in the rapture of prema, someone was needed to look after the things.

On how Śrī Mahāprabhu counted the names He chanted by number, one should study the words of the Śrī Caitanya-candrāmṛta: “With hands trembling under the weight of prema, He ties knots in the cord at His waist to keep count, chanting the names ‘Hare Kṛṣṇa’ that bring blessing to His people…” — and the verse of the Caitanyāṣṭaka in the Stava-mālā: “He loudly calls ‘Hare Kṛṣṇa,’ His tongue quivering; His hand is adorned by a shining waist-cord, beautiful with a row of knots tied to count the names…”

*A request to take the brāhmaṇa Kṛṣṇadāsa along —*

‘কৃষ্ণদাস’-নামে এই সরল ব্রাহ্মণ ।
ইঁহো সঙ্গে করি’ লহ, ধর নিবেদন ॥ ৩৯ ॥

‘kṛṣṇadāsa’-nāme ei sarala brāhmaṇa ‘Kṛṣṇadāsa’ by name this simple brāhmaṇa iṁho saṅge kari’ laha, dhara nivedana him with (You) making take accept the request

39 Here is a simple brāhmaṇa named Kṛṣṇadāsa. Please take him with You — grant My request.

Anubhāṣya.

This brāhmaṇa, Kālā Kṛṣṇadāsa, and the Kālā Kṛṣṇadāsa of Ādi 11.37 are two different persons. The latter is an eternally perfect friend from Vraja, one of the twelve gopālas, for whom Nityānanda is his very life. The brāhmaṇa mentioned here later went to Gauḍa (Madhya, Chapter 10, 62–74).

জলপাত্র-বস্ত্র বহি’ তোমা-সঙ্গে যাবে । যে তোমার ইচ্ছা, কর, কিছু না বলিবে ॥ ৪০ ॥

jala-pātra-vastra vahi’ tomā-saṅge yābe the water pot and cloth carrying with You he will go ye tomāra icchā, kara, kichu nā balibe whatever Your wish do anything not he will say

40 He will go with You and carry the water pot and the cloth. Do whatever You wish; he will say nothing.”

The Lord agrees —

তবে তাঁর বাক্য প্রভু করি’ অঙ্গীকারে । তাহা-সবা লঞা গেলা সার্ব্বভৌম-ঘরে ॥ ৪১ ॥

tabe tāṁra vākya prabhu kari' aṅgīkāre then His words the Lord making acceptance tāhā-sabā lañā gelā sārvabhauma-ghare them all taking went to Sārvabhauma's house

41 The Lord then accepted His words and, taking them all along, went to Sārvabhauma's house.

The visit to Sārvabhauma's house —

নমস্করি' সার্ব্বভৌম আসন নিবেদিল । সবাকারে মিলি' তবে আসনে বসিল ॥ ৪২ ॥

namaskari' sārvabhauma āsana nivedila bowing Sārvabhauma seats offered sabākāre mili' tabe āsane vasila
all meeting then on a seat sat

42 Sārvabhauma bowed down and offered them seats; then, after greeting everyone, he sat down.

The Lord asks the Bhaṭṭācārya for leave to go —

নানা কৃষ্ণবার্ত্তা প্রভু কহিল তাঁহারে । তোমার ঠাঞি আইলাঙ আজ্ঞা মাগিবারে ॥ ৪৩ ॥

nānā kṛṣṇa-vārtā prabhu kahila tāṁhāre various talks of Kṛṣṇa the Lord spoke to him tomāra ṭhāñi āilāṅa ājñā māgibāre to you I have come permission to ask 43 The Lord spoke with him of Kṛṣṇa in many ways and then said, "I have come to you to ask your permission.

The pretext: the search for Viśvarūpa —

সন্ন্যাস করি' বিশ্বরূপ গিয়াছে দক্ষিণে । অবশ্য করিব আমি তাঁর অন্বেষণে ॥ ৪৪ ॥

sannyāsa kari' viśvarūpa giyāche dakṣiṇe sannyāsa having taken Viśvarūpa has gone south avaśya kariba āmi tāṁra anveṣaṇe certainly I shall make I his search

44 Viśvarūpa took sannyāsa and went to the south, and I must go in search of him.

আজ্ঞা দেহ, অবশ্য আমি দক্ষিণে চলিব ।
তোমার আজ্ঞাতে শুভে লেউটি' আসিব ॥ ৪৫ ॥

The Lord sets out for the south by the road to Ālālanātha —

along the seashore on the road to Ālālanātha

59 On the road to Ālālanātha along the seashore, Sārvabhauma said to Gopīnātha Ācārya:

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

The road south runs along the seashore. Six krośas from Purī lies the village of "Ālālanātha." There resides "Ālālanātha," the Deity of four-armed Vāsudeva. His temple stands in a small village in the middle of a forest, and an excellent paramānna is offered to Him there. The pāṇḍās still show the marks of the hot paramānna on the Deity.

*Through Gopīnātha, Sārvabhauma has four sets of kaupīnas and outer cloths brought from his house and gives them to the Lord —*

চারি কৌপীন-বহির্ব্বাস রাখিয়াছি ঘরে । তাহা, প্রসাদান্ন, লঞা আইস বিপ্রদ্বারে ॥ ৬০ ॥

cāri kaupīna-bahirvāsa rākhiyāchi ghare four kaupīnas and outer cloths I have kept at home

them prasāda taking come by a brāhmaṇa

60 "I have kept four sets of kaupīnas and outer cloths at home. Have them brought by a brāhmaṇa, together with prasāda."

Sārvabhauma asks the Lord to meet Rāmānanda Rāya —

তবে সার্ব্বভৌম কহে প্রভুর চরণে । অবশ্য পালিবে, প্রভু, মোর নিবেদনে ॥ ৬১ ॥

tabe sārvabhauma kahe prabhura caraṇe then Sārvabhauma says at the Lord's feet

certainly You will fulfil Prabhu my request

61 Then Sārvabhauma, bowing at the Lord's feet, said, "Prabhu, be sure to grant my request.

62 Rāmānanda Rāya lives on the bank of the Godāvarī; he is the governor of Vidyānagara.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
Adhikārī — the king's chief officer. Vidyānagara is nowadays called "Porabandara."

শূদ্র বিষয়ী-জ্ঞানে উপেক্ষা না করিবে । আমার বচনে তাঁরে অবশ্য মিলিবে ॥ ৬৩ ॥

śūdra viṣayī-jñāne upekṣā nā karibe as a śūdra and a worldly man regarding neglect not You will do āmāra vacane tāṁre avaśya milibe
by my word him certainly You will meet

63 Do not neglect him, thinking him a śūdra and a worldly man (viṣayī). At my request, be sure to meet him.

Anubhāṣya.
Śūdra — in the society of Utkala the Karaṇa caste is known as "śaukra-śūdras" (śūdras by birth). Śrī Rāmānanda was born in the Karaṇa caste.

Therefore in the world's eyes he was a śaukra-śūdra, but in truth he was a brāhmaṇa — or rather a Vaiṣṇava paramahaṁsa, the guru of brāhmaṇas.

Viṣayī — one absorbed in talk of wife, sons and the like, or one who engages the knowledge-acquiring senses with their objects — external forms, tastes, smells, sounds and touch — and is intoxicated by them. Outwardly Śrī Rāmānanda was not a sannyāsī wearing a kaupīna. Therefore in the world's eyes he was a king's servant, a viṣayī; in truth he was a sannyāsī — a vidvat- or narottama-sannyāsī.

Sārvabhauma Bhaṭṭācārya had not been a Vaiṣṇava before, yet even then he had perceived Rāmānanda Rāya's natural (naisargika) Vaiṣṇava nature. And after he became a devotee by Śrī Prabhu's mercy, he reflected on Rāmānanda's words and understood him to be an "adhikārī rasika-bhakta" (a qualified devotee who knows the taste of rasa).

Praise of Rāmānanda Rāya —

তোমার সঙ্গের যোগ্য তিঁহো একজন । পৃথিবীতে রসিক ভক্ত নাহি তাঁর সম ॥ ৬৪ ॥

tomāra saṅgera yogya tiṁho eka jana pṛthivīte rasika bhakta nāhi tāṁra sama on earth rasika devotee there is no his equal

64 He is the one man worthy of Your company; in all the world there is no devotee who relishes rasa (rasika) as he does.

পাণ্ডিত্য আর ভক্তিরস, — দুঁহের তিঁহো সীমা । সম্ভাষিলে জানিবে তুমি তাঁহার মহিমা ॥ ৬৫ ॥

pāṇḍitya āra bhakti-rasa, — duṁhera tiṁho sīmā learning and the rasa of bhakti of both he the limit sambhāṣile jānibe tumi tāṁhāra mahimā speaking with him will know You his greatness

65 In learning and in the rasa of devotion he has reached the limit of both. When You speak with him, You will know his greatness.

*Formerly the Bhaṭṭa mocked a Vaiṣṇava, thinking him inferior to a smārta —*

অলৌকিক বাক্য চেষ্টা তাঁর না বুঝিয়া । পরিহাস করিয়াছি তাঁরে 'বৈষ্ণব' জানিয়া ॥ ৬৬ ॥

alaukika vākya ceṣṭā tāṁra nā bujhiyā extraordinary words actions his not understanding parihāsa kariyāchi tāṁre 'vaiṣṇava' jāniyā mockery I have made him a 'Vaiṣṇava' knowing

66 Not understanding his extraordinary words and actions, I used to mock him, knowing him to be a Vaiṣṇava.

Anubhāṣya.

The jñānīs and karmīs who are averse to Caitanya — the prakṛti-vādīs — ridicule in just this way a Vaiṣṇava who has taken shelter of Caitanya. The former follow the path of argument (tarka-panthī): for them direct perception and inference are everything, and they are intoxicated with knowledge born of the senses. The latter is a servant of Adhokṣaja: his only support is the testimony of revelation (śabda-pramāṇa), and he follows the path of śruti (śrauta-panthī).

Later, by Caitanya's mercy, the Bhaṭṭa realized the glory of a spiritual Vaiṣṇava —

তোমার প্রসাদে এবে জানিনু তাঁর তত্ত্ব । সম্ভাষিলে জানিবে তাঁর যেমন মহত্ত্ব ॥ ৬৭ ॥

tomāra prasāde ebe jāninu tāṁra tattva by Your grace now I know his truth sambhāṣile jānibe tāṁra yemana mahattva speaking with him You will know his how great 67 By Your grace I now understand who he truly is. Speak with him, and You will see how great he is."

The Lord agrees to do as he asks —

অঙ্গীকার করি’ প্রভু তাঁহার বচন । তাঁরে বিদায় দিতে তাঁরে কৈল আলিঙ্গন ॥ ৬৮ ॥

aṅgīkāra kari’ prabhu tāṁhāra vacana acceptance making the Lord his words tāṁre vidāya dite tāṁre kaila āliṅgana him farewell to give him made an embrace

68 The Lord accepted his words and, bidding him farewell, embraced him.

The Lord honors a Vaiṣṇava householder —

ঘরে কৃষ্ণ ভজি’ মোরে করিহ আশীর্ব্বাদে । নীলাচলে আসি’ যেন তোমার প্রসাদে ॥ ৬৯ ॥

ghare kṛṣṇa bhaji’ more kariha āśīrvāde at home Kṛṣṇa worshipping Me make blessings nīlācale āsi’ yena tomāra prasāde to Nīlācala I may come so that by your grace

69 “Worship Kṛṣṇa at home and bless Me, so that by your grace I may return to Nīlācala.”

Anubhāṣya.
Outwardly a servant of Kṛṣṇa may grace the gṛhastha-āśrama, but in truth he is not on a level with ordinary go-dāsas (servants of the senses), gṛhavratas or gṛhamedhīs. “When I see bhajana at home, the home appears as Goloka” (Ṭhākura Bhaktivinoda's Śaraṇāgati) — only a Vaiṣṇava gṛhastha has the right to proclaim these words with body, mind and speech. Therefore a genuine, pure Vaiṣṇava gṛhastha who has taken shelter at Śrī Caitanya's feet is worthy of obeisance even from a sannyāsī and is his guru. The Lord showed this by begging Sārvabhauma's blessing, to teach the jīvas who do not know the glory of worshipping Kṛṣṇa (kṛṣṇa-bhajana).

The Lord departs; Sārvabhauma faints —

এত বলি' মহাপ্রভু করিলা গমন । eta bali' mahāprabhu karilā gamana

so saying Mahāprabhu made departure

70 With these words Mahāprabhu departed, and Sārvabhauma fell unconscious on the spot.

Anubhāṣya.

73 "Harder than a thunderbolt, softer than a flower — such are the hearts of extraordinary souls. Who can ever understand them?" (Uttara-rāma-carita, 3.27)

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
The hearts of extraordinary persons are harder than a thunderbolt and at the same time softer than a flower; others are not able to understand this.

Anubhāṣya.
vajrāt api kaṭhorāṇi, kusumāt (than a flower) api mṛdūni (soft); lokottarāṇāṁ (of uncommon, extraordinary persons) cetāṁsi (the hearts) vijñātuṁ (to understand) kaḥ nu īśvaraḥ (is able)?

89 In this way people came and went until evening. Dancing and singing, they all became Vaiṣṇavas.

A night with the devotees at Ālālanātha —

এইরূপে সেই ঠাঞি ভক্তগণ-সঙ্গে । সেই রাত্রি গোঙাইলা কৃষ্ণকথা-রঙ্গে ॥ ৯০ ॥ ei-rūpe sei ṭhāñi bhakta-gaṇa-saṅge in this way at that place with the devotees sei rātri goṅāilā kṛṣṇa-kathā-raṅge that night He spent in the joy of talks about Kṛṣṇa

90 So He spent that night there with the devotees, rejoicing in talks about Kṛṣṇa.

In the morning the Lord sets out again —

প্রাতঃকালে স্নান করি' করিলা গমন । ভক্তগণে বিদায় দিলা করি' আলিঙ্গন ॥ ৯১ ॥

prātaḥ-kāle snāna kari' karilā gamana in the morning bath having taken He made departure bhakta-gaṇe vidāya dilā kari' āliṅgana to the devotees farewell He gave making embraces 91 In the morning He bathed and set out, bidding the devotees farewell with embraces.

The Lord's independence —

মূর্চ্ছিত হঞা সবে ভূমিতে পড়িলা । তাঁহা-সবা পানে প্রভু ফিরি' না চাহিলা ॥ ৯২ ॥

mūrcchita hañā sabe bhūmite paḍilā unconscious becoming all on the ground fell tāṁhā-sabā pāne prabhu phiri' nā cāhilā them all towards the Lord turning not looked 92 They all fell to the ground unconscious, but the Lord did not turn back to look at them.

Anubhāṣya.
See the Anubhāṣya on Madhya 3.212.

Kṛṣṇadāsa follows the Lord, carrying the waterpot and the rest —

বিচ্ছেদে ব্যাকুল প্রভু চলিলা দুঃখী হঞা ।

vicchede vyākula prabhu calilā duḥkhī hañā in separation agitated the Lord went on sorrowful becoming pāche kṛṣṇadāsa yāya jala-pātra lañā behind Kṛṣṇadāsa goes the water pot carrying 93 Agitated by the separation, the Lord went on in sorrow, and behind Him came Kṛṣṇadāsa carrying the water pot.

That day the devotees fast, and then they return to Purī —

ভক্তগণ উপবাসী তাঁহাই রহিলা । আর দিনে দুঃখী হঞা নীলাচলে আইলা ॥ ৯৪ ॥

bhakta-gaṇa upavāsī tāṁhāi rahilā the devotees fasting right there remained āra dine duḥkhī hañā nīlācale āilā on the next day sorrowful becoming to Nīlācala came 94 The devotees stayed there fasting, and the next day they returned to Nīlācala in sorrow.

মত্তসিংহ-প্রায় প্রভু করিলা গমন । প্রেমাবেশে যায় করি' নাম-সংকীর্ত্তন ॥ ৯৫ ॥

matta-siṁha-prāya prabhu karilā gamana like a maddened lion the Lord made departure premāveśe yāya kari' nāma-saṁkīrtana absorbed in love He goes making saṅkīrtana of the name

95 The Lord went on like a maddened lion, absorbed in love, singing the saṅkīrtana of the holy name:

The verse sung by the Lord Himself —

কৃষ্ণ! কৃষ্ণ! কৃষ্ণ! কৃষ্ণ! কৃষ্ণ! কৃষ্ণ! কৃষ্ণ! হে ।
কৃষ্ণ! কৃষ্ণ! কৃষ্ণ! কৃষ্ণ! কৃষ্ণ! কৃষ্ণ! কৃষ্ণ! হে ॥

96 "O Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! O Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Protect Me! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa! Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
Rakṣa mām — protect me; pāhi mām — sustain me.

The Lord gives people the name of Hari —

এই শ্লোক পড়ি' পথে চলিলা গৌরহরি । লোক দেখি' পথে কহে, — বল 'হরি' 'হরি' ॥ ৯৭ ॥ ei śloka paḍi' pathe calilā gaurahari this verse reciting on the road went Gaurahari loka dekhi' pathe kahe, — bala 'hari' 'hari' people seeing on the road He says say Hari Hari

97 Reciting this verse, Gaurahari went along the road, and whenever He saw people on the way, He told them, "Say 'Hari! Hari!'"

Hearing the name from the Lord's lips, people take up the name of Hari —

সেই লোক প্রেমমত্ত হঞা বলে ‘হরি’ ‘কৃষ্ণ’ । প্রভুর পাছে সঙ্গে যায় দর্শন-সতৃষ্ণ ॥ ৯৮ ॥ sei loka premamatta hañā bale ‘hari’ ‘kṛṣṇa’

those people maddened with love becoming say Hari Kṛṣṇa prabhura pāche saṅge yāya darśana-satṛṣṇa
the Lord’s behind along go thirsting for His sight

98 Those people, maddened with love, would call out, “Hari! Kṛṣṇa!” and follow behind the Lord, thirsting to see Him.

By the power the Lord infused, that Vaiṣṇava makes everyone in his village Vaiṣṇava —

কতক্ষণে রহি’ প্রভু তারে আলিঙ্গিয়া । বিদায় করিল তারে শক্তি সঞ্চারিয়া ॥ ৯৯ ॥

kata-kṣaṇe rahi’ prabhu tāre āliṅgiyā after some time stopping the Lord them embracing vidāya karila tāre śakti sañcāriyā farewell made them power transmitting

99 After a while the Lord would stop, embrace them, invest them with His power and send them back.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

Śakti sañcāriyā (“infusing power”). The essence of the hlādinī potency and the essence of the saṁvit potency together constitute “bhakti-śakti,” the power of devotion. Anyone into whom Kṛṣṇa or a devotee, out of mercy, infuses this power becomes a “parama-bhakta,” a supreme devotee. Whomever Mahāprabhu favored, He infused with such power and entrusted with preaching Vaiṣṇava dharma.

সেইজন নিজ-গ্রামে করিয়া গমন । ‘কৃষ্ণ’ বলি’ হাসে, কান্দে, নাচে অনুক্ষণ ॥ ১০০ ॥

sei-jana nija-grāme kariyā gamana that person to his own village making return ‘kṛṣṇa’ bali’ hāse, kānde, nāce anukṣaṇa
Kṛṣṇa saying laughs weeps dances constantly

100 Each of them returned to his own village and constantly laughed, wept and danced, calling, “Kṛṣṇa!”

যারে দেখে, তারে কহে, — কহ কৃষ্ণনাম । এইমত ‘বৈষ্ণব’ কৈল সব নিজ-গ্রাম ॥ ১০১ ॥

yāre dekhe, tāre kahe, — kaha kṛṣṇa-nāma whom he sees to him says say Kṛṣṇa’s name ei-mata ‘vaiṣṇava’ kaila saba nija-grāma
in this way Vaiṣṇava made all his own village

101 Whomever he met he would tell, “Chant the name of Kṛṣṇa!” — and in this way he made his whole village Vaiṣṇava.

The people of other villages too become Vaiṣṇavas by the mercy of seeing that Vaiṣṇava —

গ্রামান্তর হৈতে দেখিতে আইল যত জন । তাঁর দর্শন-কৃপায় হয় তাঁর সম ॥ ১০২ ॥ grāmāntara haite dekhite āila yata jana from other villages to see came as many as people tāṁra darśana-kṛpāya haya tāṁra sama his by the mercy of darśana become his equal

102 All who came from other villages to see him were blessed by the sight of him and became like him.

Thus all the people of the South were delivered and became Vaiṣṇavas —

সেই যাই’ গ্রামের লোক বৈষ্ণব করয় । অন্যগ্রামী আসি’ তাঁরে দেখি’ বৈষ্ণব হয় ॥ ১০৩ ॥

sei yāi' grāmera loka vaiṣṇava karaya he going of the village the people Vaiṣṇava makes anya-grāmī āsi' tāṁre dekhi' vaiṣṇava haya people of other villages coming him seeing Vaiṣṇava become 103 Each of these went home and made the people of his own village Vaiṣṇavas, and people from yet other villages came, saw him and became Vaiṣṇavas.

সেই যাই' অন্য গ্রামে করে উপদেশ । এইমত 'বৈষ্ণব' হৈল সব দক্ষিণ-দেশ ॥ ১০৪ ॥

sei yāi' anya grāme kare upadeśa he going in another village makes instruction ei-mata 'vaiṣṇava' haila saba dakṣiṇa-deśa
in this way Vaiṣṇava became all the southern country

104 They in turn went and taught in other villages, and in this way the whole of the south became Vaiṣṇava.

*The Lord delivers many fortunate jīvas —*

এইমত পথে যাইতে শত শত জন ।
'বৈষ্ণব' করেন তাঁরে করি' আলিঙ্গন ॥ ১০৫ ॥ ei-mata pathe yāite śata śata jana in this way on the road going hundreds hundreds people

'vaiṣṇava' karena tāṁre kari' āliṅgana
Vaiṣṇava He makes them making embrace

105 So, as He travelled, the Lord made Vaiṣṇavas of hundreds upon hundreds of people by embracing them.

Those at whose homes the Lord accepted alms, and those who saw Him, *became Vaiṣṇavas, and then as ācāryas they delivered many people —*

যেই গ্রামে রহি' ভিক্ষা করেন যাঁর ঘরে । সেই গ্রামের যত লোক আইসে দেখিবারে ॥ ১০৬ ॥

yei grāme rahi' bhikṣā karena yāṁra ghare in which village staying alms He takes in whose house sei grāmera yata loka āise dekhibāre of that village all people come to see

106 In whichever village He stayed and took His meal in someone's house, all the people of that village came to see Him.

প্রভুর কৃপায় হয় মহাভাগবত । সেইসব আচার্য্য হঞা তারিল জগৎ ॥ ১০৭ ॥

prabhura kṛpāya haya mahābhāgavata
by the Lord's mercy they become mahā-bhāgavatas seisaba ācārya hañā tārila jagat
all of them ācāryas becoming delivered the world

107 By the Lord's mercy they became mahā-bhāgavatas, and as ācāryas they all delivered the world.

Thus the whole South was delivered —

এইমত কৈলা যাবৎ গেলা সেতুবন্ধে । সর্ব্বদেশ 'বৈষ্ণব' হৈল প্রভুর সম্বন্ধে ॥ ১০৮ ॥ ei-mata kailā yāvat gelā setubandhe in this way He did until He went to Setubandha sarva-deśa 'vaiṣṇava' haila prabhura sambandhe

all lands Vaiṣṇava became through the Lord's connection

108 He did this all the way to Setubandha, and through their connection with the Lord all the lands became Vaiṣṇava.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

Setubandha — Setubandha-Rāmeśvara stands on the seashore, on the far side of "Rāmnad," at the southern edge of Bhāratavarṣa.

The glory of the Lord's mercy was revealed in the South more than in Navadvīpa —

নবদ্বীপে যেই শক্তি না কৈলা প্রকাশে । সেই শক্তি প্রকাশি' নিস্তারিল দক্ষিণদেশে ॥ ১০৯ ॥

navadvīpe yei śakti nā kailā prakāśe in Navadvīpa which power not He made manifest sei śakti prakāśi' nistārila dakṣiṇa-deśe that power manifesting He delivered the southern country

109 The power He had not shown in Navadvīpa He now revealed to deliver the southern country.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
Although Navadvīpa is a dhāma, at that time nyāya and the smṛti-śāstras held special sway there, and among the teachers of those śāstras there were many people averse to the Lord. The Lord did not manifest any special power to deliver them. That is why the author says this.

Only Caitanya's devotees have faith in the power of Bhagavān's mercy —

প্রভুকে যে ভজে, তারে তাঁর কৃপা হয় । সেই সে এ-সব লীলা সত্য করি' লয় ॥ ১১০ ॥

prabhuke ye bhaje, tāre tāṁra kṛpā haya the Lord who worships to him His mercy comes sei se e-saba līlā satya kari' laya
he alone these all pastimes true making accepts

110 Whoever worships the Lord receives His mercy, and only such a person accepts all these pastimes as true.

Only faith in the transcendental pastimes brings eternal welfare; otherwise knowledge born of the senses leads to utter ruin —

অলৌকিক-লীলায় যার না হয় বিশ্বাস । ইহলোক, পরলোক তার হয় নাশ ॥ ১১১ ॥

alaukika-līlāya yāra nā haya viśvāsa in the extraordinary pastimes whose not is faith iha-loka, para-loka tāra haya nāśa
this world the next world his is ruin

111 Whoever has no faith in these extraordinary pastimes is ruined both in this world and in the next.

Anubhāṣya.

The transcendental pastimes of Śrī Kṛṣṇa Caitanya are free from all cheating (projjhita-kaitava) and from all trickery (nirasta-kuhaka). They are beyond matter, full of spiritual majesty, and they grant the jīvas their eternal, highest welfare. Therefore they are the true reality. They are not a charlatan's show rooted in malice (hiṁsā), born of the guṇa-made conceptions of cheaters and cheated bound by māyā. Charlatanry and tricksters throw both the cheater and the cheated away from service to Kṛṣṇa, and so both meet with utter ruin.

prathame kahila prabhura ye-rūpe gamana first I told the Lord's in what manner journey ei-mata jāniha yāvat dakṣiṇa-bhramaṇa in this way know as long as the southern tour

112 I have told first how the Lord travelled; know that it was the same throughout His tour of the south.

The Lord comes to Śrī Kūrma and, on seeing the Deity, dances and sings —

এইমত যাইতে যাইতে গেলা কূর্ম্মস্থানে । কূর্ম্ম দেখি' কৈল তারে স্তবন-প্রণামে ॥ ১১৩ ॥

ei-mata yāite yāite gelā kūrma-sthāne in this way going going He went to Kūrma-sthāna kūrma dekhi' kaila tāre stavana-praṇāme
Kūrma seeing He made to Him prayers and obeisances

113 Travelling on in this way, He came to Kūrma-sthāna. Seeing the Deity of Kūrma, He offered Him prayers and obeisances.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

Kūrma-sthāna — a tīrtha; there is a temple of Kūrmadeva there. The Prapannāmṛta tells how Śrī Jagannāthadeva carried Śrī Rāmānuja Svāmī away from Śrī Puruṣottama by night and left him at Kūrma-tīrtha.

Anubhāṣya.

Kūrma-sthāna — on the B. N. R. line, in the Ganjam district, eight miles east of "Chicacole Road" station, lies "Kūrmācala," or "Śrīkūrmam." It is the most revered tīrtha of the Telugu-speaking people (Ganjam Manual). The Deity of Kūrma resides there. In the eleventh century of the Śaka era Śrī Jagannāthadeva carried Śrī Rāmānuja to Kūrmācala. Rāmānuja then took the Deity of Kūrma for a form of Śiva and fasted; later he understood that it was a form of Viṣṇu and revealed the service of Kūrmadeva. So it is told in the Prapannāmṛta, chapter 36:

"That very night Śrī Hari, by His yogamāyā, swiftly brought Lakṣmaṇācārya, the lord of yogīs, to Śrī Kūrma. When that night turned to dawn, the wise teacher Lakṣmaṇa suddenly arose, calling, 'Hari! Hari!' He looked carefully in all ten directions, his mind troubled with anxiety. Learning that this was the holy place of Śrī Kūrma, he was amazed. He took the Lord of Śrī Kūrma for what is called a Śiva-liṅga, and he spent one day there fasting… In a dream Bhagavān, the Lord of Śrī Kūrma, pleased with him, mercifully spoke auspicious words to the king of ascetics: 'O best of ascetics! Through the fault of ignorance all people, their eyes blinded by māyā, falsely call Me a Śiva-liṅga. I shall dwell here in My own true form, holding conch, disc and club. Venerable Lakṣmaṇa, now look at Me carefully… Stay here a few days, worshipping Me.' Rising from the dream, satisfied and full of wonder, the king of yogīs did everything just as he had been told. He worshipped the Lord of Kūrma, took the food offered to Him, and lived happily there at His feet. From that time on, owing to the glory of the coming of the king of ascetics, the great Śrī Kūrma became known everywhere as a place of Viṣṇu."

Later this temple was under the supervision of the Śrī Mādhva maṭha, in the domain of the king of Vijayanagara. A stone slab has been found bearing an inscription of nine verses that mentions the guru of the Śrī Mādhva-sampradāya, Śrī Narahari Tīrtha (Śaka 1203). Here is its Bengali translation:

Verse 1. The renowned ascetic Puruṣottama was born to instruct the wise. He was very dear to Viṣṇu.

Verse 2. His words were accepted everywhere in the world. The arguments of disputants were crushed, as an elephant is crushed.

Verse 3. Ānandatīrtha received initiation (saṁskāra) from him. With the sannyāsa-daṇḍa he had taken up he brought back to the right path the “cows” and others who had strayed from the path of Vyāsa.

Verse 4. His garland of words is especially dear to Viṣṇu and able to grant perfection — the attainment of Vaikuṇṭha.

Verse 5. His teachings on bhakti are able to give a person the lotus feet of Hari.

Verse 6. Narahari Tīrtha was initiated by him alone and ruled in the land of Kaliṅga.

Verse 7. Narahari Tīrtha fought the Śabaras and protected the temple of Śrī Kūrma.

Verse 8. Narahari Tīrtha's courage knew no bounds.

Verse 9. In the auspicious Śaka year 1203, in the month of Vaiśākha, in the bright fortnight, on the Ekādaśī tithi, on a Wednesday, a temple was built before Kāmatadeva and joyfully dedicated to Yogānanda Nṛsiṁhadeva, the giver of boundless welfare. The end. (Professor Kielhorn says:) A.D. 1281, 29 March, Saturday.

Seeing the Lord dance and sing, the people are amazed —

প্রেমাবেশে হাসি’ কান্দি’ নৃত্য-গীত কৈল । দেখি’ সর্ব্ব লোকের চিত্তে চমৎকার হৈল ॥ ১১৪ ॥

premāveśe hāsi’ kāndi’ nṛtya-gīta kaila absorbed in love laughing weeping dancing and singing He did dekhi’ sarva lokera citte camatkāra haila seeing of all the people in the hearts wonder arose

114 Absorbed in love, He laughed and wept, danced and sang, and all who saw it were filled with wonder.

āścarya śuniyā loka āila dekhibāre

prabhura rūpa-prema dekhi' hailā camatkāre
the Lord's beauty and love seeing became amazed

115 Hearing of this wonder, people came to see, and they were amazed at the Lord's beauty and love.

On seeing the Lord, people become Vaiṣṇavas —

দর্শনে 'বৈষ্ণব' হৈল, বলে 'কৃষ্ণ' 'হরি' । প্রেমাবেশে নাচে লোক ঊর্দ্ধ বাহু করি' ॥ ১১৬ ॥ darśane 'vaiṣṇava' haila, bale 'kṛṣṇa' 'hari'

by the sight Vaiṣṇavas became say Kṛṣṇa Hari premāveśe nāce loka ūrddha bāhu kari' absorbed in love dance the people raised arms making 116 Just by seeing Him they became Vaiṣṇavas and called out, "Kṛṣṇa! Hari!" Absorbed in love, the people danced with their arms raised.

Through these people that land is delivered —

কৃষ্ণনাম লোকমুখে শুনি' অবিরাম । সেই লোক 'বৈষ্ণব' কৈল অন্য সব গ্রাম ॥ ১১৭ ॥

Kṛṣṇa's name from the mouths of people hearing ceaselessly sei loka 'vaiṣṇava' kaila anya saba grāma those people Vaiṣṇava made other all villages

117 Having heard the name of Kṛṣṇa ceaselessly from others' lips, these people in turn made all the other villages Vaiṣṇava.

Thus all lands were delivered —

এইমত পরম্পরায় দেশ 'বৈষ্ণব' হৈল । কৃষ্ণনামামৃত-বন্যায় দেশ ভাসাইল ॥ ১১৮ ॥

ei-mata paramparāya deśa 'vaiṣṇava' haila in this way by succession the land Vaiṣṇava became kṛṣṇa-nāmāmṛta-vanyāya deśa bhāsāila by the flood of the nectar of Kṛṣṇa's name the land He flooded 118 In this way, one from another, the whole land became Vaiṣṇava, and a flood of the nectar of Kṛṣṇa's name swept over the country.

after a while the Lord when outward consciousness showed 119 After some time, when the Lord returned to outward consciousness, the servant of the Deity of Kūrma honoured Him greatly.

The Lord comes to all the villages and delivers the people —

the Lord says such talk ever not you should say gṛhe rahi' kṛṣṇa-nāma nirantara laibā at home staying Kṛṣṇa's name constantly you should take 127 The Lord said, "Never speak like that. Stay at home and chant the name of Kṛṣṇa constantly.

128 Whomever you see, teach him about Kṛṣṇa. By My order become a guru and deliver this land.

129 Then the waves of worldly life will never obstruct you, and here, in this very place, you will have My company again."

এইমত যাঁর ঘরে করে প্রভু ভিক্ষা । ei mata yāṁra ghare kare prabhu bhikṣā in this way in whose house takes the Lord alms sei aiche kahe, tāṁre karāya ei śikṣā

he likewise speaks to him He gives this teaching

130 In whatever house the Lord took His meal, the host spoke in the same way, and the Lord gave him this same teaching.

Anubhāṣya.

There are people who resolve to give up everything and serve Śrīman Mahāprabhu with exclusive surrender. Bhagavān Gaurasundara accepts their bhajana and gives them this teaching: “Stay at home — that is, give up the conceit of being ‘wholly devoted to bhajana.’ With the humility of one living in a household, chant Kṛṣṇa's name constantly and preach the pure bhajana of Kṛṣṇa's name.” “I am the best of Vaiṣṇavas; if I accept disciples, pride will ruin my bhajana” — one should give up this inflated devotee's conceit. If one humbly practices pure chanting of the name and does the work of a guru — preaching the pure name — then the waves of worldly objects in the form of mundane fame cannot overwhelm him.

Śrī Rūpa, Śrī Sanātana, Śrī Jīva, Śrī Raghunātha dāsa and the Lord's other associates, the great souls, as well as Śrīman Narottama, Śrīla Madhva, Rāmānuja and others, accepted many disciples and gave instruction by writing books. Many foolish people imagine that all this is an obstacle to bhakti and a wave of worldly objects, and so they become offenders at the feet of genuine akiñcana devotees. They should carefully consider this order of the Lord and give up their petty, pride-filled show of humility and, without trying to take revenge on those averse to Hari, follow Gaura and increase their own bhajana. For this, Śrī Gaurāṅga — the guru of the world, the ācārya — gives exactly this teaching.

*Until His return to Purī, the Lord orders everyone to preach bhakti as ācāryas —*

পথে যাইতে দেবালয়ে রহে যেই গ্রামে । যাঁর ঘরে ভিক্ষা করে, সেই মহাজনে ॥ ১৩১ ॥

কূর্ম্মে যৈছে রীতি, তৈছে কৈল সর্ব্বঠাঞি । with Kūrma as the custom so He did everywhere nīlācale punaḥ yāvat nā āilā gosāñi to Nīlācala again until not came Gosāñi

131–132 On the way, whenever He stayed at a village temple, He would take His meal in someone's house; and with each such great soul, His host, He dealt just as He had with Kūrma. So He did everywhere, until the Gosāñi returned to Nīlācala.

133 That is why I have described it here in detail; know that this is how the Lord acted everywhere.

The night at Kūrma's house —

134 He stayed there that night, and in the morning, after bathing, the Lord set out.

In the morning, on the road again —

135 Kūrma followed the Lord a long way, until the Lord gently persuaded him to go home.

*The leper brāhmaṇa Vāsudeva comes to Kūrma's house to see the Lord —*

'Vāsudeva' by name a brāhmaṇa noble

136 There was a noble brāhmaṇa named Vāsudeva. His whole body was rotting with leprosy and swarming with worms.

137 Whenever a worm slipped and fell from his body, he would pick it up and put it back in the same place.

138 At night he heard of the Gosāñi's arrival, and in the morning he came to Kūrma's house to see Him.

Hearing that the Lord has left Kūrma, Vāsudeva grieves and laments —

139 When he heard from Kūrma that the Lord had gone, he fell to the ground unconscious with grief.

140 He began to lament in many ways, and at that very moment the Lord came and embraced him.

*The Lord embraces him, and the brāhmaṇa is freed from leprosy and* becomes beautiful —

141 At the Lord's touch his leprosy vanished together with his grief, and his body became beautiful and full of bliss.

Seeing the Lord's mercy, Vāsudeva offers prayers (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, 10.81.16) —

প্রভুর কৃপা দেখি' তাঁর বিস্ময় হৈল মন । শ্লোক পড়ি' পায়ে ধরি' করয়ে স্তবন ॥ ১৪২ ॥

prabhura kṛpā dekhi' tāṁra vismaya haila mana the Lord's mercy seeing his amazed became mind śloka paḍi' pāye dhari' karaye stavana
a verse reciting the feet holding he makes praise

142 Seeing the Lord's mercy, he was amazed. Holding the Lord's feet, he recited a verse and praised Him:

ক্বাহং দরিদ্রঃ পাপীয়ান্ ক্ব কৃষ্ণঃ শ্রীনিকেতনঃ । ব্রহ্মবন্ধুরিতি স্মাহং বাহুভ্যাং পরিরম্ভিতঃ ॥ ১৪৩ ॥

where Kṛṣṇa the abode of Śrī

bāhubhyāṁ parirambhitaḥ with both arms was embraced

143 “Who am I, a poor and sinful man, and who is Kṛṣṇa, the abode of the goddess of fortune? Yet because I was born a brāhmaṇa, He embraced me in His arms!” (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, 10.81.16)[5]

Anubhāṣya.
See Ādi-līlā, Chapter 17, 78.

144 After offering many prayers he said, “Hear me, O Merciful One: no jīva has this quality; it is found in You alone.

*The Lord orders him to become an ācārya, teach Kṛṣṇa's name and deliver the jīvas —*

the Lord says ever your not will be pride

147 The Lord said, “You will never become proud. Chant the name ‘Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa!’ constantly.

148 Teach about Kṛṣṇa and deliver the jīvas, and very soon Kṛṣṇa will accept you as His own.”

Remembering the Lord's mercy, Kūrma and Vāsudeva weep —

এতেক কহিয়া প্রভু কৈল অন্তর্দ্ধানে । দুইবিপ্র গলাগলি কান্দে প্রভুর গুণে ॥ ১৪৯ ॥

eteka kahiyā prabhu kaila antarddhāne
so much having said the Lord made disappearance dui vipra galāgali kānde prabhura guṇe
two brāhmaṇas embracing weep for the Lord’s qualities

149 Having said this, the Lord disappeared, and the two brāhmaṇas wept in each other's arms, remembering the Lord's qualities.

The name of this story is "The Deliverance of Vāsudeva," and the Lord's name is "Vāsudevāmṛta-prada" —

'বাসুদেবোদ্ধার' এই কহিল আখ্যান ।
'বাসুদেবামৃতপ্রদ' হৈল প্রভুর নাম ॥ ১৫০ ॥

'vāsudevoddhāra' ei kahila ākhyāna
'Vāsudeva's deliverance' this I have told the story
'vāsudevāmṛta-prada' haila prabhura nāma
'the Giver of nectar to Vāsudeva' became the Lord's name

150 Thus I have told the story of Vāsudeva's deliverance, through which the Lord received the name Vāsudevāmṛta-prada, "the Giver of nectar to Vāsudeva".

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
This name is found among the "hundred names of Śrī Caitanya" composed by Śrī Sārvabhauma.

Thus ends the seventh chapter of the "Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya."

এই ত' কহিল প্রভুর প্রথম গমন । কূর্ম্ম-দরশন, বাসুদেব-বিমোচন ॥ ১৫১ ॥ ei ta' kahila prabhura prathama gamana this indeed I have told the Lord's first journey kūrma-daraśana, vāsudeva-vimocana

the sight of Kūrma Vāsudeva's deliverance

151 So I have described the beginning of the Lord's journey: His visit to Kūrma and the deliverance of Vāsudeva.

Simply by hearing Caitanya's pastimes, an unconscious servant attains

Caitanya —

শ্রদ্ধা করি' এই লীলা যে করে শ্রবণ । অচিরাতে মিলয়ে তারে চৈতন্য-চরণ ॥ ১৫২ ॥

śraddhā kari' ei līlā ye kare śravaṇa faith having this pastime who makes hearing acirāte milaye tāre caitanya-caraṇa soon obtains he Caitanya's feet

152 Whoever hears this pastime with faith soon attains the feet of Caitanya.

Anubhāṣya.

Ei līlā ("these pastimes"). Śrī Kṛṣṇa Caitanya awakens consciousness (caitanya) in unconscious (acaitanya) jīvas. Having gained consciousness and turned toward Kṛṣṇa's service, these jīvas in turn, as ācāryas, awaken consciousness in other unconscious jīvas and turn them toward Kṛṣṇa's service. In this way — by increasing the family of Acyuta (acyuta-gotra), that is, by spreading the path of śruti — Śrī Gaurasundara displays in His pastimes the glory of His descent.

*One can serve Caitanya only by hearing from the lips of the guru, that is, by the path of śruti —*

চৈতন্যলীলার আদি-অন্ত নাহি জানি । সেই লিখি, যেই মহান্তের মুখে শুনি ॥ ১৫৩ ॥

caitanya-līlāra ādi-anta nāhi jāni of Caitanya's pastimes beginning and end not I know sei likhi, yei mahāntera mukhe śuni that I write what of the great souls from the mouths I hear 153 I do not know the beginning or the end of Caitanya's pastimes; I write only what I have heard from the lips of great souls.

The only way to attain Caitanya is to take shelter at the feet of pure devotees —

ইথে অপরাধ মোর না লইও, ভক্তগণ । তোমা-সবার চরণ — মোর একান্ত শরণ ॥ ১৫৪ ॥

ithe aparādha mora nā laio, bhakta-gaṇa in this offence my not take O devotees tomā-sabāra caraṇa — mora ekānta śaraṇa of you all the feet my sole refuge

154 O devotees, do not hold my offences in this against me: your feet are my only refuge.

Anubhāṣya.

Thus ends the seventh chapter of the “Anubhāṣya.”

শ্রীরূপ-রঘুনাথ-পদে যার আশ । চৈতন্যচরিতামৃত কহে কৃষ্ণদাস ॥ ১৫৫ ॥

śrī-rūpa-raghunātha-pade yāra āśa Śrī Rūpa’s, Raghunātha’s at the feet whose hope caitanya-caritāmṛta kahe kṛṣṇadāsa “Caitanya-caritāmṛta” narrates Kṛṣṇadāsa

155 Praying at the feet of Śrī Rūpa and Śrī Raghunātha, I, Kṛṣṇadāsa, narrate the Caitanya-caritāmṛta.
