“Śrī Caitanya-caritāmṛta”

Ādi-līlā

Chapter 17

The Pastimes of Śrī Caitanya in His Youth

(translated from the Bengali for this edition)

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya

Summary. In the seventeenth chapter all of Mahāprabhu's pastimes, from His sixteenth year until He accepted sannyāsa, are written briefly, in the form of sūtras. The reason is that Vṛndāvana dāsa Ṭhākura, the incarnation of Vyāsa, has described all these pastimes in detail in the Śrī Caitanya-bhāgavata. But wherever Vṛndāvana dāsa Ṭhākura left something out, this chapter describes it more fully. The mango festival and Mahāprabhu's conversation with the Kāzī are told in particular detail. At the end the author shows that the son of Yaśodā, having become the son of Śacī, tasted the four kinds of devotional moods. To taste the sweetness of the rasa of Rādhā's prema, He accepted Rādhā's bhāva and took up the mood of the gopīs exclusively. Of all the kinds of devotional moods, the mood of the gopīs is the best, because in the mood of the gopīs no one but Vrajendranandana appears as worthy of worship. When Śrī Kṛṣṇa playfully became four-armed, the gopīs merely offered Him obeisance and withdrew: the ordinary mood of the gopīs rejects every form other than Kṛṣṇa's form, and no more. But the bhāva of Śrīmatī Rādhikā, the crown jewel of the gopīs, is the highest of all. On seeing Rādhā, Śrī Kṛṣṇa could not keep His four-armed form. Nanda, the lord of Vraja, is in this (Gaura) pastime the father, Jagannātha; Yaśodā, the queen of Vraja, is Śacīmātā. Caitanya Gosāñi is the son of Nanda Himself: He is not a prakāśa or a vilāsa of Nanda's son, but Nanda's son in person. Nityānanda Prabhu has three moods, vātsalya, dāsya and sakhya; Advaita Prabhu has two, sakhya and dāsya. All the others serve Mahāprabhu each according to his former position. The Truth is one: now Kṛṣṇa in a dark form, the flute at His lips, sporting among the cowherds; now a brāhmaṇa; now, in the dress of a sannyāsī, Kṛṣṇa Caitanya in a golden form. The apparent contradiction is this: He who is Kṛṣṇa becomes a gopī. This idea is certainly very hard to grasp, but by Kṛṣṇa's inconceivable potency even this is possible. Arguing about it is futile, for to apply logic to what is inconceivable is the height of foolishness. At the end of this chapter Kavirāja Gosvāmī, following what Vyāsa did in the Bhāgavata, has separately recapitulated the seventeen chapters of the Ādi-līlā one by one.

By Gaura's grace even the impure become pure —

বন্দে স্বৈরাদ্ভুতেঽহং তং চৈতন্যং যৎপ্রসাদতঃ । যবনাঃ সুমনায়ন্তে কৃষ্ণনামপ্রজল্পকাঃ ॥ ১ ॥

vande svairādbhutehaṁ taṁ
I bow down   whose ways are free and wondrous   I   that caitanyaṁ yat-prasādataḥ
to Caitanya   by whose   grace
yavanāḥ sumanāyante
the yavanas   become like the gods
kṛṣṇa-nāma-prajalpakāḥ Kṛṣṇa’s   names   loudly chanting

1 I bow down to Śrī Caitanya, whose ways are free and wondrous. By His grace even yavanas (those outside Vedic culture), loudly chanting the names of Kṛṣṇa, become like the gods.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

I worship Śrī Caitanyadeva, whose deeds are free and wonderful: by His grace even the yavanas become righteous and chant the name of Kṛṣṇa.

Anubhāṣya.

yat (of Caitanyadeva) prasādataḥ (by the compassion) yavanāḥ (the mlecchas) kṛṣṇa-nāma-prajalpakāḥ (being firmly devoted to chanting the name) sumanāyante (behave like people of good mind, sumanas), taṁ svairādbhutehaṁ (Him whose deeds are free, independent, and wonderful, beyond this world — Him who has the power to overstep the injunctions of the smārtas) caitanyam ahaṁ vande.

জয় জয় শ্রীচৈতন্য জয় নিত্যানন্দ । জয়াদ্বৈতচন্দ্র জয় গৌরভক্তবৃন্দ ॥ ২ ॥

jaya jaya śrī-caitanya jaya nityānanda glory glory to Śrī Caitanya glory to Nityānanda jayādvaitacandra jaya gaura-bhakta-vṛnda glory to Advaitacandra glory to Gaura's devotees all

2 Glory, glory to Śrī Caitanya! Glory to Nityānanda! Glory to Advaitacandra! Glory to all the devotees of Gaura!

কৈশোর-লীলার সূত্র করিল গণন । যৌবনলীলার সূত্র করি অনুক্রম ॥ ৩ ॥

kaiśora-līlāra sūtra karila gaṇana
of the kaiśora pastimes the summary I have made an enumeration yauvana-līlāra sūtra kari anukrama
of the pastimes of youth the summary I make in sequence

3 I have listed the pastimes of His kaiśora age in summary. Now I give in sequence the summary of the pastimes of His youth (yauvana).

Various pastimes in youth —

বিদ্যা-সৌন্দর্য্য-সদ্বেশ-সম্ভোগ-নৃত্যকীর্ত্তনৈঃ । প্রেমনামপ্রদানৈশ্চ গৌরো দীব্যতি যৌবনে ॥ ৪ ॥

vidyā-saundarya-sad-veśa-
with learning beauty fine dress
sambhoga-nṛtya-kīrtanaiḥ
enjoyment dancing kīrtana
prema-nāma-pradānaiś ca
love the Name by giving and gauro dīvyati yauvane
Gaura sports in youth

4 In His youth Gaura sports with learning, beauty, fine dress, enjoyment, dancing and kīrtana, and by giving away love of God and the holy name.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
Through learning, beauty, fine dress, enjoyment, dancing, kīrtana, and the gift of prema and of the holy name, Gauracandra shone in His youth.

Anubhāṣya.
gauraḥ yauvane (when His fifteenth year had passed and youth appeared) vidyā-saundarya-sad-veśa-sambhoga-nṛtya-kīrtanaiḥ (with knowledge of the supreme goal, with beauty, with the dress of a sādhu, with the enjoyment of garments, garlands, sandalwood paste and the like, with dancing, kīrtana and so on) prema-nāma-pradānaiḥ (by distributing Kṛṣṇa's name together with prema) dīvyati (sports).

The pastimes of youth —

যৌবন প্রবেশে অঙ্গের অঙ্গ বিভূষণ । দিব্য বস্ত্র, দিব্য বেশ, মাল্য-চন্দন ॥ ৫ ॥

yauvana praveśe aṅgera aṅga vibhūṣaṇa
youth on entering of the body the limbs adorned divya vastra, divya veśa, mālya-candana
divine cloth divine dress garlands and sandalwood

5 As He entered youth, His limbs were adorned with divine cloth and divine dress, with garlands and sandalwood paste.

বিদ্যার ঔদ্ধত্যে কাঁহো না করে গণন । সকল পণ্ডিত জিনি’ করে অধ্যাপন ॥ ৬ ॥

vidyāra auddhatye kāṅho nā kare gaṇana
of learning in the pride anyone not He does regard sakala paṇḍita jini’ kare adhyāpana
all scholars defeating He does teaching

6 In the pride of His learning He took no account of anyone; defeating all the scholars, He taught.

বায়ুব্যাধিচ্ছলে কৈল প্রেম পরকাশ । ভক্তগণ লঞা কৈল বিবিধ বিলাস ॥ ৭ ॥

vāyu-vyādhicchale kaila prema parakāśa of a disorder of vāyu   on the pretext   He made   love   manifest bhakta-gaṇa lañā kaila vividha vilāsa
the devotees   taking   He made   various   pastimes

7 On the pretext of a disorder of vāyu (the vital air), He manifested love of God, and with His devotees He enjoyed various pastimes.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
Having finished His studies and His teaching, Gauracandra, to preach pure devotion, pretended for some days to suffer from a disorder of vāyu (the air in the body). Everywhere He explained Kṛṣṇa's name to His students and showed the connection with Kṛṣṇa in every sūtra of grammar — and in this way He began to turn them away from their studies.

Anubhāṣya.
See the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Ādi, Chapter 12.

Meeting Īśvara Purī in Gayā, and the pastime of taking initiation —

তবে ত’ করিলা প্রভু গয়াতে গমন । ঈশ্বরপুরীর সঙ্গে তথাই মিলন ॥ ৮ ॥

tabe ta’ karilā prabhu gayāte gamana
then   indeed   made   the Lord   to Gayā   a journey
īśvara-purīra saṅge tathāi milana
Īśvara Purī   with   there   a meeting

8 Then the Lord journeyed to Gayā, and there He met Īśvara Purī.

Anubhāṣya.
See the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Ādi, Chapter 17.

দীক্ষা-অনন্তরে হৈল, প্রেমের প্রকাশ । দেশে আগমন পুনঃ প্রেমের বিলাস ॥ ৯ ॥

dīkṣā-anantare haila, premera prakāśa initiation after there was of love the manifestation deśe āgamana punaḥ premera vilāsa
home the return again of love the play

9 After His initiation, love of God became manifest in Him. He returned home, and again love played in Him.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
Thinking, “I shall offer śrāddha at Gayā for My father, who has departed to the other world,” Mahāprabhu set out for Gayā with many students. On the way He was seized by fever; He drank water that had washed a brāhmaṇa's feet and was freed from the illness. By this pastime He showed that householders must honor brāhmaṇas. On reaching Gayā He accepted initiation into the Kṛṣṇa mantra from Śrī Īśvara Purī. From that initiation Mahāprabhu's prema began to manifest. Having finished His duties at Gayā, He returned to Śrī Dhāma Navadvīpa and began to preach prema.

Anubhāṣya.
See the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Ādi, Chapter 17, and Madhya, Chapter 1.

Pastimes in Navadvīpa after initiation; Advaita sees the universal form —

শচীকে প্রেমদান, তবে অদ্বৈত-মিলন । অদ্বৈত পাইল বিশ্বরূপ-দরশন ॥ ১০ ॥

śacīke prema-dāna, tabe advaita-milana
to Śacī love the gift then with Advaita the meeting
advaita pāila viśvarūpa-daraśana
Advaita obtained of the universal form the sight

10 He gave love of God to Śacī; then came the meeting with Advaita, who was granted the sight of the universal form.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
One day Mahāprabhu, sitting on Viṣṇu's couch (viṣṇu-khaṭṭā) in Śrīvāsa's house, said that His mother had committed an offense against a Vaiṣṇava, Śrī Advaitācārya. Unless she sought forgiveness for that offense and Advaita forgave her, she would not attain loving devotion (prema-bhakti). Hearing this, the devotees brought Advaita Prabhu, and Śrī Advaita (as he sang the glories of Āi) was overcome by prema. Śacīdevī seized that moment, took the dust of his feet, and was freed from the offense. Then “the Lord, pleased, says to His mother: ‘Now you have devotion to Viṣṇu. There is no more offense against Advaita.’” From then on Śacīdevī had prema-bhakti.

One day Advaita, overcome by prema, said to the Lord in Śrīvāsa's courtyard, “Show me the universal form You once showed Arjuna.” And the Lord mercifully showed him the universal form.

Anubhāṣya.

The gift of prema to Śacī: see the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 22; the meeting with Advaita: ibid., Madhya, Chapter 6; Advaita's vision of the universal form: ibid., Madhya, Chapter 24.

প্রভুর অভিষেক তবে করিল শ্রীবাস । খাটে বসি’ প্রভু কৈলা ঐশ্বর্য্য প্রকাশ ॥ ১১ ॥

prabhura abhiṣeka tabe karila śrīvāsa
of the Lord the ceremonial bathing then performed Śrīvāsa
khāṭe vasi’ prabhu kailā aiśvarya prakāśa
on the cot sitting the Lord made majesty manifest

11 Then Śrīvāsa performed the Lord’s abhiṣeka (ceremonial bathing), and sitting on a cot, the Lord manifested His divine majesty.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

One day in Śrīvāsa's house all the devotees together performed Mahāprabhu's abhiṣeka. Mahāprabhu sat on Viṣṇu's couch and displayed His majesty as the King of kings. Many devotees sang kīrtana at that time. And Advaita and the other devotees began to worship Mahāprabhu with the sixteen articles of worship. To each the Lord granted whatever boon he desired.

Anubhāṣya.

The Lord's sāt-prahariyā bhāva (the bhāva that lasted seven praharas) on Viṣṇu's couch in Śrīvāsa's house: see the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 9.

Meeting Śrī Nityānanda —

তবে নিত্যানন্দ-স্বরূপের আগমন । প্রভুকে মিলিয়া পাইলা ষড়্ভুজ-দর্শন ॥ ১২ ॥

tabe nityānanda-svarūpera āgamana
then of Nityānanda Svarūpa the arrival
prabhuke miliyā pāilā ṣaḍ-bhuja-darśana
the Lord meeting He obtained of the six-armed form the sight

12 Then Nityānanda Svarūpa came. Meeting the Lord, He was granted the sight of the six-armed form.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
Śrī Nityānanda Prabhu was born in the village of “Ekacakrā” in the Birbhum district, as the son of Hāḍāi Paṇḍita, from the womb of Padmāvatī. When Nityānanda had grown a little, a sannyāsī came to Hāḍāi Paṇḍita and begged Nityānanda from him as alms. From then on Nityānanda traveled with that sannyāsī through many lands, came to the Mathurā-maṇḍala, and lived there a long time. Drawn by Mahāprabhu, Prabhu Nityānanda came to Śrī Navadvīpa and stayed in the house of Nandana Ācārya. Mahāprabhu and the devotees brought Nityānanda from there to His own place.

Anubhāṣya.
The meeting with Nityānanda: see the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 3. How, at the Vyāsa-pūjā in Śrīvāsa's house, Nityānanda saw Mahāprabhu six-armed (holding conch, disc, club, lotus, plough and pestle, muṣala): ibid., Madhya, Chapter 5.

The Lord shows Nitāi His six-armed, four-armed and two-armed forms —

প্রথমে ষড়্ভুজ তাঁরে দেখাইল ঈশ্বর । শঙ্খচক্রগদাপদ্ম-শার্ঙ্গবেণুধর ॥ ১৩ ॥

prathame ṣaḍ-bhuja tāṅre dekhāila īśvara
first the six-armed (form) to Him showed the Lord
śaṅkha-cakra-gadā-padma-śārṅga-veṇu-dhara
conch disc club lotus the bow Śārṅga flute holding

13 First the Lord showed Him the six-armed form, holding the conch, disc, club, lotus, the bow Śārṅga and the flute.

পাছে চতুর্ভুজ হৈলা, তিন অঙ্গ বক্র ।
দুই হস্তে বেণু বাজায়, দুই হস্তে শঙ্খ-চক্র ॥ ১৪ ॥

pāche catur-bhuja hailā, tina aṅga vakra
then four-armed He became in three the body bent
dui haste veṇu bājāya, dui haste śaṅkha-cakra
in two hands the flute He plays in two hands conch and disc 14 Then He became four-armed, His body bent in three places; with two hands He played the flute, and in the other two He held the conch and disc.

তবে ত’ দ্বিভুজ কেবল বংশীবদন । শ্যাম-অঙ্গ পীতবস্ত্র ব্রজেন্দ্রনন্দন ॥ ১৫ ॥

tabe ta’ dvi-bhuja kevala vaṁśī-vadana
then indeed two-armed only a flute at the lips
śyāma-aṅga pīta-vastra vrajendra-nandana
dark body yellow cloth of the king of Vraja the son

15 Then He was simply two-armed, the flute at His lips — the son of the king of Vraja, dark of body and dressed in yellow.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
One day Mahāprabhu showed Nityānanda Prabhu a six-armed form holding conch, disc, club, lotus, the Śārṅga bow and flute. Then He showed a four-armed form, holding conch and disc in two hands and the flute in the other two. Finally He showed the form of Śrī Kṛṣṇa holding the flute alone. (Śrī Caitanya-maṅgala, Madhya.)

Gaura Himself is Nityānanda-Balarāma —

তবে নিত্যানন্দ-গোসাঞির ব্যাস-পূজন । নিত্যানন্দাবেশে কৈল মুষল ধারণ ॥ ১৬ ॥

tabe nityānanda-gosāñira vyāsa-pūjana
then of Nityānanda Gosāñi the vyāsa-pūjā nityānandāveśe kaila muṣala dhāraṇa
in Nityānanda’s mood He made the club the holding 16 Then came Nityānanda Gosāñi’s vyāsa-pūjā; and in the mood of Nityānanda, the Lord held the club (muṣala).

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
By Mahāprabhu's order Śrī Nityānanda Prabhu resolved to perform the Vyāsa-pūjā on the full-moon night and had Śrīvāsa arrange the necessary articles. During the saṅkīrtana, Nityānanda Prabhu placed a flower garland around Mahāprabhu's neck. At that moment Nityānanda Prabhu saw the six-armed form. Nothing more of the Vyāsa-pūjā took place.

On the night before the Vyāsa-pūjā, during saṅkīrtana in Śrīvāsa's house, Mahāprabhu, in the mood of Balarāma, sat on Viṣṇu's couch and asked Nityānanda for the plough and the pestle (muṣala). Nityānanda Prabhu placed his own hand in His hand, and at that moment the devotees saw the plough and the pestle before their eyes.

Anubhāṣya.
Nityānanda's Vyāsa-pūjā and the Lord's taking up the pestle (muṣala): see the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 5.

Śacī's dream, and the deliverance of Jagāi and Mādhāi —

তবে শচী দেখিল, রামকৃষ্ণ — দুই ভাই । তবে নিস্তারিল প্রভু জগাই-মাধাই ॥ ১৭ ॥

tabe śacī dekhila, rāma-kṛṣṇa — dui bhāi
then Śacī saw Rāma and Kṛṣṇa two brothers
tabe nistārila prabhu jagāi-mādhāi
then delivered the Lord Jagāi and Mādhāi

17 Then Śacī saw the two brothers as Rāma and Kṛṣṇa. Then the Lord delivered Jagāi and Mādhāi.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

One night Śacīdevī dreamed that Kṛṣṇa and Balarāma, the two Deities of her house, were snatching the offered food (naivedya) from each other together with Gaurāṅga and Nityānanda. The next day, by Gaurāṅga's wish, Śacīdevī invited Nityānanda to eat at her house. While Viśvambhara and Nityānanda were eating, Śacīdevī saw Kṛṣṇa and Balarāma Themselves eating, and at that sight she fainted in prema.

Jagāi and Mādhāi were born in Navadvīpa and were given to all kinds of sin. When Nityānanda and Haridāsa, by Mahāprabhu's order, went from house to house preaching the holy name, they incurred the anger of these two drunkards. The two, in a frenzy, chased them, and they fled. Another day Mādhāi struck Nityānanda on the head with a shard of a broken pot. Jagāi was somewhat sorry for that deed. Hearing of it, Mahāprabhu came there with His followers, ready to punish Jagāi and Mādhāi. But the merciful Gaurāṅga, hearing of Jagāi's decent conduct, embraced him with love. By seeing and touching the Lord, the two sinners had a change of heart, and the Lord delivered them by giving them the name of Hari.

Anubhāṣya.
Śacī's dream, in which she saw Nitāi and Gaura as Balarāma and Kṛṣṇa: see the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 8; the deliverance of Jagāi and Mādhāi: the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 13.

*The Lord's sāt-prahariyā bhāva —*

তবে সপ্তপ্রহর ছিলা প্রভু ভাবাবেশে । যথা তথা ভক্তগণ দেখিল বিশেষে ॥ ১৮ ॥

tabe sapta-prahara chilā prabhu bhāvāveśe
then seven praharas remained the Lord in ecstatic absorption
yathā tathā bhakta-gaṇa dekhila viśeṣe
here and there the devotees saw (Him) in a special way

18 Then for seven praharas (twenty-one hours) the Lord remained absorbed in ecstasy, and wherever they were, the devotees saw Him in His special glory.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
One day in Śrīvāsa's house Mahāprabhu sat on Viṣṇu's couch, and the devotees, reciting the Puruṣa-sūkta — “The Puruṣa with a thousand heads, a thousand eyes, a thousand feet…” — performed His abhiṣeka with Gaṅgā water. They worshiped Him with various articles and gave Him many kinds of food to eat. The Lord began to eat everything the devotees offered. That day He remained in that bhāva for a full seven praharas and displayed the moods of all the avatāras. He revealed secret events from the devotees' past, dispelled everyone's doubts, and gave boons to all. Some call this bhāva the “sāt-prahariyā bhāva” (the bhāva that lasted seven praharas), and some the “mahā-prakāśa” (the great manifestation).

Anubhāṣya.
The Lord's seven-prahara bhāva in Śrīvāsa's house; how, during the abhiṣeka at that time, the Lord gave the name “Sukhī” (Happy) to a fortunate woman called “Duḥkhī” (Unhappy) who carried water; how Śrīdhara, the seller of banana leaves, saw the mahā-prakāśa; how Murāri Gupta saw the form of Rāma; the grace shown to Ṭhākura Haridāsa; how the Lord told Advaita the true meaning of the Gītā; the mercy shown to Mukunda, and so on: see the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 9.

The mood of Varāha in Murāri's house —

বরাহ-আবেশ হৈলা মুরারি-ভবনে । তাঁর স্কন্ধে চড়ি’ প্রভু নাচিলা অঙ্গনে ॥ ১৯ ॥

varāha-āveśa hailā murāri-bhavane
in Varāha’s mood He was in Murāri’s house
tāṅra skandhe caḍi’ prabhu nācilā aṅgane
his on the shoulders climbing the Lord danced in the courtyard

19 In Murāri’s house the Lord was absorbed in the mood of Varāha, and climbing onto Murāri’s shoulders, He danced in the courtyard.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
One day Mahāprabhu, crying “Boar! Boar!”, Himself assumed the form of Varāha and entered Murāri Gupta's house. With His tusks He lifted a vessel full of water (a gāḍu), as He once lifted the earth, and drank the water. And another day the Lord climbed onto Murāri's shoulders and danced at length.

Anubhāṣya.

The Lord's absorption in the mood of Varāha in Murāri Gupta's house: see the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 3.

The Lord eats the rice Śuklāmbara gathered as mādhukarī alms —

তবে শুক্লাম্বরের কৈল তণ্ডুল ভক্ষণ । ‘হরের্নাম’ শ্লোকের কৈল অর্থ বিবরণ ॥ ২০ ॥

tabe śuklāmbarera kaila taṇḍula bhakṣaṇa
then of Śuklāmbara He made raw rice the eating ‘harer nāma’ ślokera kaila artha vivaraṇa
‘harer nāma’ of the verse He made the meaning the explanation

20 Then He ate Śuklāmbara’s raw rice, and He explained the meaning of the verse “harer nāma.”

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
Śuklāmbara Brahmacārī lived on the bank of the Gaṅgā in Śrī Navadvīpa. While Mahāprabhu was dancing, he arrived there with his bag of rice collected as alms. Out of love for His devotee, the Lord took that begged rice from his bag and began to eat it with great prema.

Anubhāṣya.
How the Lord ate the rice Śuklāmbara had gathered as alms: see the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 16.

Without the name of Hari the jīva has no other way — (Bṛhan-nāradīya Purāṇa 38.126)

হরের্নাম হরের্নাম হরের্নামৈব কেবলম্ ।
কলৌ নাস্ত্যেব নাস্ত্যেব নাস্ত্যেব গতিরন্যথা ॥ ২১ ॥

harer nāma harer nāma
of Hari the name of Hari the name
harer nāmaiva kevalam of Hari the name indeed only kalau nāsty eva nāsty eva in Kali there is no indeed there is no indeed
nāsty eva gatir anyathā
there is no indeed way other

21 “The name of Hari, the name of Hari, only the name of Hari! In Kali there is no other way, no other way, no other way at all.” (Bṛhan-nāradīya Purāṇa 38.126)

Anubhāṣya.
See Ādi 7.76.

*Explanation of the verse harer nāma —*

কলিকালে নামরূপে কৃষ্ণ-অবতার । নাম হৈতে হয় সর্ব্বজগৎ-নিস্তার ॥ ২২ ॥ kali-kāle nāma-rūpe kṛṣṇa-avatāra

in the age of Kali in the form of the Name Kṛṣṇa’s descent
nāma haite haya sarva-jagat-nistāra
the Name from comes of the whole world the deliverance

22 In the age of Kali, Kṛṣṇa descends in the form of the Name; through the Name the whole world is delivered.

দার্ঢ্য লাগি’ ‘হরের্নাম’-উক্তি তিনবার । জড় লোক বুঝাইতে পুনঃ ‘এব’-কার ॥ ২৩ ॥

dārḍhya lāgi’ ‘harer nāma’-ukti tina-vāra
for firmness ‘harer nāma’ the phrase three times
jaḍa loka bujhāite punaḥ ‘eva’-kāra dull people to make understand again the word ‘eva’

23 For firmness the phrase “harer nāma” is spoken three times; and to make dull people understand, the word eva (“indeed”) is added again.

‘কেবল’ শব্দে পুনরপি নিশ্চয়-করণ ।
জ্ঞান-যোগ-তপ আদি কর্ম্ম নিবারণ ॥ ২৪ ॥

‘kevala’ śabde punarapi niścaya-karaṇa ‘kevala’ by the word once more the confirmation jñāna-yoga-tapa ādi karma nivāraṇa
knowledge yoga austerity and other practices the exclusion

24 The word kevala (“only”) confirms it once more, excluding knowledge (jñāna), yoga, austerity and all other practices.

অন্যথা যে মানে, তার নাহিক নিস্তার । নাহি, নাহি, নাহি — তিন উক্ত ‘এব’-কার ॥ ২৫ ॥

anyathā ye māne, tāra nāhika nistāra
otherwise who thinks for him there is no deliverance
nāhi, nāhi, nāhi — tina ukta ‘eva’-kāra
no no no thrice spoken the word ‘eva’

25 Whoever thinks otherwise has no deliverance: “there is no, there is no, there is no” — thrice the word eva is spoken.

How to chant the name —

তৃণ হৈতে নীচ হঞা সদা লবে নাম । আপনি নিরভিমানী, অন্যে দিবে মান ॥ ২৬ ॥

tṛṇa haite nīca hañā sadā labe nāma
grass than lower being always one should take the Name
āpani nirabhimānī, anye dibe māna oneself without pride to others one should give honor

26 Being lower than a blade of grass, one should always take the Name; free of pride oneself, one should give honor to others.

তরুসম সহিষ্ণুতা বৈষ্ণব করিবে । ভর্ৎসন তাড়নে কাকে কিছু না বলিবে ॥ ২৭ ॥

taru-sama sahiṣṇutā vaiṣṇava karibe
like a tree forbearance a Vaiṣṇava will practice
bhartsana tāḍane kāke kichu nā balibe
scolded beaten to anyone anything not he will say

27 A Vaiṣṇava should practice forbearance like a tree; though scolded or beaten, he should say nothing to anyone.

কাটিলেহ তরু যেন কিছু না বোলয় । শুকাইয়া মরে, তবু জল না মাগয় ॥ ২৮ ॥

kāṭileha taru yena kichu nā bolaya
even when cut a tree as anything not says
śukāiyā mare, tabu jala nā māgaya
withering it dies yet water not asks

28 Even when cut down, a tree says nothing; though it withers and dies, it does not ask for water.

এইমত বৈষ্ণব কারে কিছু না মাগিবে । অযাচিত-বৃত্তি, কিম্বা শাক-ফল খাবে ॥ ২৯ ॥

ei-mata vaiṣṇava kāre kichu nā māgibe
in this way a Vaiṣṇava from anyone anything not will ask ayācita-vṛtti, kimbā śāka-phala khābe living on what comes unasked or vegetables and fruits he will eat

29 In the same way a Vaiṣṇava will ask no one for anything. He will live on what comes unasked, or eat vegetables and fruits.

সদা নাম লবে, যথা-লাভেতে সন্তোষ । এইমত আচার করে ভক্তিধর্ম্ম-পোষ ॥ ৩০ ॥

sadā nāma labe, yathā-lābhete santoṣa always the Name he will take with whatever comes content ei mata ācāra kare bhakti-dharma-poṣa
in this way conduct makes of the path of bhakti the nourishment

30 He will always take the Name and be content with whatever comes. Such conduct nourishes the path of devotion (bhakti-dharma).

Anubhāṣya.
See Antya 20.22–26.

*Words from His own lips — (a verse of the Śikṣāṣṭaka spoken by Śrī Kṛṣṇa Caitanyacandra)*

তৃণাদপি সুনীচেন তরোরিব সহিষ্ণুনা । অমানিনা মানদেন কীর্ত্তনীয়ঃ সদা হরিঃ ॥ ৩১ ॥

tṛṇād api su-nīcena
than grass even more humble
taror iva sahiṣṇunā
a tree like forbearing
amāninā māna-dena
seeking no honor giving honor kīrtanīyaḥ sadā hariḥ
to be glorified always Hari

31 “More humble than a blade of grass, as forbearing as a tree, seeking no honor and giving honor to others — so one should always glorify Hari.” (Śikṣāṣṭaka 3)

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
One who considers himself lower than grass, who is tolerant like a tree, who seeks no honor himself and gives honor to others — he alone is qualified to chant about Hari always.

Anubhāṣya.
tṛṇād api (than even grass, which all feet trample and which has no importance at all) su-nīcena (lower in every way, that is, endowed with a mood free of worldly claims to prestige) taror api[1] (than even a tree) sahiṣṇunā (by a person endowed with tolerance) amāninā (who, though himself worthy of honor, has given up such worldly claims to prestige) māna-dena (giving honor and respect to others — even to those without honor and to the unworthy; by such a person) sadā (always) hariḥ (Hari alone) kīrtanīyaḥ (is to be chanted — uttered with the lips, the tongue and so on).

Kavirāja Gosvāmī earnestly urges everyone to live by this verse —

ঊর্দ্ধ বাহু করি’ কহোঁ, শুন, সর্ব্বলোক । নাম-সূত্রে গাঁথি’ পর কণ্ঠে এই শ্লোক ॥ ৩২ ॥

ūrddhva bāhu kari’ kahoṅ, śuna, sarva-loka upraised arms making I say listen all people
nāma-sūtre gāṅthi’ para kaṇṭhe ei śloka
of the Name on the thread stringing wear on the neck this verse

32 With arms upraised I say: Listen, everyone! String this verse on the thread of the Name and wear it on your neck.

প্রভু-আজ্ঞায় কর এই শ্লোক আচরণ । অবশ্য পাইবে তবে শ্রীকৃষ্ণ-চরণ ॥ ৩৩ ॥

prabhu-ājñāya kara ei śloka ācaraṇa
by the Lord’s order do of this verse the practice
avaśya pāibe tabe śrī-kṛṣṇa-caraṇa
surely you will attain then of Śrī Kṛṣṇa the feet

33 By the Lord’s order, practice what this verse teaches; then you will surely attain the feet of Śrī Kṛṣṇa.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

The author says: “O people! With upraised arms I tell you: listen! String this verse on the garland of Kṛṣṇa's name and wear it around your neck.” The meaning is this: if one chants the name without being qualified, the result is nāmābhāsa (a mere shadow of the name) or nāmāparādha (offense against the name). Then the jīva does not attain the fruit of the name, “love for Kṛṣṇa.” Chant the name of Hari while acting on the instruction Mahāprabhu gave in the verse tṛṇād api; then you will certainly attain the feet of Śrī Kṛṣṇa.

Anubhāṣya.
“Strung on the thread of the name”: the thread is Śrī Harināma, and what is strung on it as a garland or protective amulet (rakṣā-kavaca) is the four moods free of worldly self-conception: (1) humility (sunīcatva), (2) tolerance (sahiṣṇutva), (3) freedom from claims to honor (amānitva), (4) readiness to give honor (mānadatva). With worldly self-conception one cannot chant the name of Hari always: material self-conceptions obstruct the name of Hari. Free of these four kinds of self-conception, the pure jīva can chant the name of Hari always. Whoever obeys this command — the instruction of sādhana-bhakti — will certainly attain the feet of Śrī Kṛṣṇa as the fruit of chanting the name of Hari.

Saṅkīrtana* in Śrīvāsa's house for a whole year —*

তবে প্রভু শ্রীবাসের গৃহে নিরন্তর । রাত্রে সংকীর্ত্তন কৈল এক সম্বৎসর ॥ ৩৪ ॥

tabe prabhu śrīvāsera gṛhe nirantara
then the Lord of Śrīvāsa in the house constantly rātre saṁkīrtana kaila eka samvatsara
at night saṅkīrtana performed one year

34 Then for one whole year the Lord performed saṅkīrtana every night in Śrīvāsa’s house.

Hostile godless people are kept out —

কপাট দিয়া কীর্ত্তন করে পরম আবেশে । পাষণ্ডী হাসিতে আইসে, না পায় প্রবেশে ॥ ৩৫ ॥

kapāṭa diyā kīrtana kare parama āveśe
the doors closing kīrtana they do in deepest absorption pāṣaṇḍī hāsite āise, nā pāya praveśe
the unbelievers to mock come not get entrance

35 With the doors closed they performed kīrtana in deepest absorption. Unbelievers came to mock but could not get in.

Envy and hatred toward Śrīvāsa —

কীর্ত্তন শুনি’ বাহিরে তারা জ্বলি’ পুড়ি’ মরে । শ্রীবাসেরে দুঃখ দিতে নানা যুক্তি করে ॥ ৩৬ ॥

kīrtana śuni’ bāhire tārā jvali’ puḍi’ mare
the kīrtana hearing outside they burning scorching die śrīvāsere duḥkha dite nānā yukti kare to Śrīvāsa trouble to give various schemes they make 36 Hearing the kīrtana from outside, they burned with envy, and they devised various schemes to trouble Śrīvāsa.

The scheme of “Gopāla Cāpāla” against Śrīvāsa —

একদিন বিপ্র, নাম — ‘গোপাল চাপাল’ ।
পাষণ্ডী-প্রধান সেই দুর্ম্মুখ, বাচাল ॥ ৩৭ ॥

ভবানী-পূজার সব সামগ্রী লইয়া । রাত্রে শ্রীবাসের দ্বারে স্থান লেপাইয়া ॥ ৩৮ ॥

ekadina vipra, nāma — ‘gopāla cāpāla’
one day a brāhmaṇa by name Gopāla Cāpāla
pāṣaṇḍī-pradhāna sei durmukha, vācāla
among unbelievers chief he foul-mouthed a chatterer
bhavānī-pūjāra saba sāmagrī laiyā of Bhavānī’s worship all the articles taking rātre śrīvāsera dvāre sthāna lepāiyā
at night of Śrīvāsa at the door a spot having smeared

37–38 One day a brāhmaṇa named Gopāla Cāpāla — a leader among the unbelievers, foul-mouthed and a chatterer — took all the articles for the worship of Bhavānī (Durgā). At night he smeared a spot at Śrīvāsa’s door,

Anubhāṣya.
The story of “Gopāla Cāpāla” is not found in the Caitanya-bhāgavata.

কলার পাত উপরে থুইল ওড়ফুল । হরিদ্রা, সিন্দূর আর রক্তচন্দন, তণ্ডুল ॥ ৩৯ ॥

kalāra pāta upare thuila oḍa-phula
of a banana a leaf upon he placed oḍa flowers
haridrā, sindūra āra rakta-candana, taṇḍula
turmeric vermilion and red sandalwood rice

39 and on a banana leaf he placed oḍa (hibiscus) flowers, turmeric, vermilion and red sandalwood, and rice.

মদ্যভাণ্ড-পাশে ধরি’ নিজ ঘরে গেল । প্রাতঃকালে শ্রীবাস তাহা ত’ দেখিল ॥ ৪০ ॥

madya-bhāṇḍa-pāśe dhari’ nija ghare gela
a pot of wine beside setting his own home he went prātaḥ-kāle śrīvāsa tāhā ta’ dekhila
in the morning Śrīvāsa that indeed saw

40 Setting a pot of wine beside them, he went home. In the morning Śrīvāsa saw it all.

An attempt to make Śrīvāsa out to be a worshiper of Śakti —

বড় বড় লোকেরে আনিল বোলাইয়া । সবারে কহে শ্রীবাস হাসিয়া হাসিয়া ॥ ৪১ ॥

baḍa baḍa lokere ānila bolāiyā
the leading people he brought having called sabāre kahe śrīvāsa hāsiyā hāsiyā
to all says Śrīvāsa smiling smiling

41 He called the leading men of the town and, smiling broadly, said to them all:

Anubhāṣya.

Bolāiyā: having them called.

নিত্য রাত্রে করি আমি ভবানী-পূজন । আমার মহিমা দেখ, ব্রাহ্মণ সজ্জন ॥ ৪২ ॥

nitya rātre kari āmi bhavānī-pūjana
every night do I Bhavānī’s worship
āmāra mahimā dekha, brāhmaṇa sajjana
my glory see brāhmaṇas gentlemen

42 “Every night I worship Bhavānī. See my glory, O respectable brāhmaṇas!”

The distress of the respectable local people, and the purifying of the place —

তবে সব শিষ্টলোক করে হাহাকার । ঐছে কর্ম্ম হেথা কৈল কোন্ দুরাচার ॥ ৪৩ ॥

tabe saba śiṣṭa-loka kare hāhākāra
then all the gentlemen make cries of dismay aiche karma hethā kaila kon durācāra
such a deed here did what wicked man

43 Then all the gentlemen cried out in dismay: “What wicked man has done such a thing here?”

হাড়িকে আনিয়া সব দূর করাইল । জল-গোময় দিয়া সেই স্থান লেপাইল ॥ ৪৪ ॥

hāḍike āniyā saba dūra karāila
a sweeper bringing all away they had removed jala-gomaya diyā sei sthāna lepāila
water and cow dung with that spot they had smeared

44 They called a sweeper and had everything removed, and had the spot purified with water and cow dung.

Gopāla Cāpāla's leprosy, the fruit of an offense against a Vaiṣṇava —

তিন দিন রহি’ সেই গোপাল চাপাল । সর্ব্বাঙ্গে হইল কুষ্ঠ, বহে রক্তধার ॥ ৪৫ ॥

tina dina rahi’ sei gopāla cāpāla
three days after that Gopāla Cāpāla
sarvāṅge haila kuṣṭha, vahe rakta-dhāra
all over his body was leprosy flows blood in streams

45 Three days later that Gopāla Cāpāla was stricken with leprosy all over his body, and blood flowed in streams.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
While Mahāprabhu, with the doors shut, was tasting the bliss of kīrtana in Śrīvāsa's courtyard, many brāhmaṇas of the town who were turned away from God tried in many ways to ridicule the Vaiṣṇavas. A certain garrulous Bhaṭṭācārya nicknamed “Gopāla Cāpāla” left outside the closed door the articles for worshiping the Devī — a banana leaf, a javā flower, red sandalwood and so on — together with a pot of wine. In the morning Śrīvāsa Paṇḍita saw it and said to everyone in jest, “Look, look! Every night I worship Bhavānī. Now you have learned how great I am as a ‘śākta’!” The respectable people were deeply distressed at the sight. They called a hāḍi (a sweeper), had the wine and the other vile things thrown far away, and purified the place with water and cow dung. For that offense against a Vaiṣṇava, Gopāla Cāpāla was stricken with a rotting leprosy.

সর্ব্বাঙ্গ বেড়িল কীটে, কাটে নিরন্তর । অসহ্য বেদনা, দুঃখে জ্বলয়ে অন্তর ॥ ৪৬ ॥

sarvāṅga beḍila kīṭe, kāṭe nirantara
his whole body covered worms bite incessantly asahya vedanā, duḥkhe jvalaye antara
unbearable pain in suffering burns his heart

46 Worms covered his whole body and gnawed at him incessantly. The pain was unbearable, and his heart burned with suffering.

He stays on the bank of the Gaṅgā and begs the Lord to deliver him —

গঙ্গাঘাটে বৃক্ষতলে রহে ত’ বসিয়া । একদিন বলে কিছু প্রভুকে দেখিয়া ॥ ৪৭ ॥

gaṅgā-ghāṭe vṛkṣa-tale rahe ta’ vasiyā
at a Gaṅgā ghāṭa under a tree he stays sitting ekadina bale kichu prabhuke dekhiyā
one day says something the Lord seeing

47 He stayed sitting under a tree by a bathing place on the Gaṅgā. One day, seeing the Lord, he said:

গ্রাম সম্বন্ধে আমি তোমার মাতুল । ভাগিনা, মুই কুষ্ঠব্যাধিতে হঞাছি ব্যাকুল ॥ ৪৮ ॥

grāma sambandhe āmi tomāra mātula
by village relation I Your maternal uncle
bhāginā, mui kuṣṭha-vyādhite hañāchi vyākula nephew I by the disease of leprosy have become tormented

48 “By village relationship I am Your maternal uncle. Nephew, I am tormented by leprosy.

লোক সব উদ্ধারিতে তোমার অবতার । মুঞি বড় দুঃখী, মোরে করহ উদ্ধার ॥ ৪৯ ॥

loka saba uddhārite tomāra avatāra people all to deliver Your descent
muñi baḍa duḥkhī, more karaha uddhāra
I very miserable me make deliverance

49 You have descended to deliver all people. I am in great misery — deliver me!”

Because of his offense against a Vaiṣṇava, the Lord rebukes him angrily and refuses to deliver him —

এত শুনি’ মহাপ্রভুর হইল ক্রুদ্ধ মন । ক্রোধাবেশে বলে তারে তর্জ্জন-বচন ॥ ৫০ ॥

eta śuni’ mahāprabhura haila kruddha mana
this hearing of Mahāprabhu became angry the mind
krodhāveśe bale tāre tarjana-vacana
in anger says to him words of rebuke

50 Hearing this, Mahāprabhu grew angry, and in His anger He spoke words of rebuke to him:

আরে পাপি, ভক্তদ্বেষি, তোরে না উদ্ধারিমু । কোটিজন্ম এই মতে কীড়ায় খাওয়াইমু ॥ ৫১ ॥

āre pāpi, bhakta-dveṣi, tore nā uddhārimu O sinner hater of devotees you not I will deliver koṭi-janma ei mate kīḍāya khāoyāimu
ten million births in this way by worms I will have eaten

51 “O sinner, hater of devotees, I will not deliver you! For ten million births I will have you eaten by worms like this.

শ্রীবাসে করাইলি তুই ভবানী-পূজন । কোটি জন্ম হবে তোর রৌরবে পতন ॥ ৫২ ॥

śrīvāse karāili tui bhavānī-pūjana Śrīvāsa made to do you Bhavānī’s worship
koṭi janma habe tora raurave patana
ten million births will be your into Raurava fall

52 You made Śrīvāsa out to be a worshiper of Bhavānī. For ten million births you will fall into the hell Raurava.

Anubhāṣya.

Worship of Bhavānī is the business of a non-Vaiṣṇava, that is, it is not the business of a Vaiṣṇava. By condemning it, the Lord taught people to regard as “bad association” the worldly, mixed Vaiṣṇava (prākṛta viddha-vaiṣṇava) who at heart nourishes the doctrine of many gods, that is, who leans toward the worship of many gods and goddesses.

পাষণ্ডী সংহারিতে মোর এই অবতার । পাষণ্ডী সংহারি’ ভক্তি করিমু সঞ্চার ॥ ৫৩ ॥

pāṣaṇḍī saṁhārite mora ei avatāra unbelievers to destroy My this descent
pāṣaṇḍī saṁhāri’ bhakti karimu sañcāra unbelievers destroying bhakti I will make spread

53 I have descended to destroy the unbelievers. Destroying the unbelievers, I shall spread devotion.”

One who offends a Vaiṣṇava suffers constantly and so cannot easily die —

এত বলি’ গেলা প্রভু করিতে গঙ্গাস্নান । সেই পাপী দুঃখ ভোগে, না যায় পরাণ ॥ ৫৪ ॥

eta bali’ gelā prabhu karite gaṅgā-snāna
so saying went the Lord to do bathing in the Gaṅgā
sei pāpī duḥkha bhoge, nā yāya parāṇa
that sinner suffering endures not goes his life

54 Saying this, the Lord went to bathe in the Gaṅgā. The sinner went on suffering, yet his life did not leave him.

Anubhāṣya.
Bhoge: suffers.

When the Lord came, he surrendered to Him —

সন্ন্যাস করিয়া যবে প্রভু নীলাচলে গেলা । তথা হৈতে যবে কুলিয়া গ্রামে আইলা ॥ ৫৫ ॥

তবে সেই পাপী প্রভুর লইল শরণ । হিত উপদেশ কৈল হইয়া করুণ ॥ ৫৬ ॥

sannyāsa kariyā yabe prabhu nīlācale gelā sannyāsa having taken when the Lord to Nīlācala went tathā haite yabe kuliyā grāme āilā
there from when to Kuliyā village He came tabe sei pāpī prabhura laila śaraṇa
then that sinner of the Lord took shelter
hita upadeśa kaila haiyā karuṇa beneficial instruction He gave becoming compassionate

55–56 After taking sannyāsa, the Lord went to Nīlācala; and when He came from there to the village of Kuliyā, that sinner took shelter of Him. Moved by compassion, the Lord gave him beneficial instruction:

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

Kuliyā-grāma: at that time Navadvīpa was on the eastern bank of the Gaṅgā, and on the other bank was the village of Kuliyā — the place now known as “Navadvīpa.”

Anubhāṣya.

Kuliyā-grāma: the present town of Navadvīpa. “Between Nadīyā and Kuliyā there is only the Gaṅgā” (Caitanya-bhāgavata, Antya 3.380): Kuliyā is on the western bank of the Gaṅgā, and Navadvīpa on the eastern bank. For mentions of Kuliyā on the western bank of the Gaṅgā, see the Bhakti-ratnākara (twelfth wave), the Caitanya-carita mahākāvya, the play Caitanya-candrodaya, and the Caitanya-bhāgavata. In the village of Kuliyā, which belongs to Koladvīpa, there is to this day a quarter called “Kuliyār Gañj” and a stream called “Kuliyār Daha”; it lies within the present municipal town of Navadvīpa. In Śrī Mahāprabhu's time there were villages called “Kuliyā” and “Pāhāḍapura” on the western bank of the Gaṅgā. They lie among the fields of “Bāhir-dvīpa.” But then and ever since, Navadvīpa was in “Antardvīpa,” on the eastern bank of the Gaṅgā. In Śrī Māyāpura that place is still known as “Dvīper Māṭh” (“the field of the island”). The village called “Kuliyā” near Kāñcaḍāpāḍā is not the Kuliyā mentioned above, nor the “pāṭa of Aparādha-bhañjana” (the place where offenses were forgiven). The false notion about it arose only a few years ago — from fancies born of hostility toward the Dhāma, and from error.

The Lord tells him to beg forgiveness from Śrīvāsa Paṇḍita —

শ্রীবাস পণ্ডিতের স্থানে আছে অপরাধ । তথা, যাহ, তেঁহো যদি করেন প্রসাদ ॥ ৫৭ ॥

śrīvāsa paṇḍitera sthāne āche aparādha Śrīvāsa Paṇḍita’s in the place there is an offense
tathā, yāha, teṅho yadi karena prasāda
there go he if does mercy

57 “You have offended Śrīvāsa Paṇḍita. Go to him; if he shows you mercy,

After surrendering, one must not sin again —

তবে তোর হবে এই পাপ-বিমোচন । যদি পুনঃ ঐছে নাহি কর আচরণ ॥ ৫৮ ॥

tabe tora habe ei pāpa-vimocana
then your will be this sin’s release
yadi punaḥ aiche nāhi kara ācaraṇa
if again such not you do act

58 then you will be freed from this sin — if you never act like this again.”

Gopāla Cāpāla takes shelter at Śrīvāsa's feet and is freed from his offense —

তবে বিপ্র আসি’ লইল শ্রীবাস-শরণ । তাঁহার কৃপায় হইল পাপ বিমোচন ॥ ৫৯ ॥

tabe vipra āsi’ laila śrīvāsa-śaraṇa
then the brāhmaṇa coming took Śrīvāsa’s shelter
tāṅhāra kṛpāya haila pāpa vimocana
his by the mercy there was from sin release

59 Then the brāhmaṇa came and took shelter of Śrīvāsa, and by his mercy he was freed from the sin.

Another foolish brāhmaṇa curses the Lord —

আর এক বিপ্র আইল কীর্ত্তন দেখিতে । দ্বারে কপাট, — না পাইল ভিতরে যাইতে ॥ ৬০ ॥

āra eka vipra āila kīrtana dekhite
another one brāhmaṇa came the kīrtana to see dvāre kapāṭa, — nā pāila bhitare yāite
at the door the panels (shut) not he could inside to go

60 Another brāhmaṇa came to see the kīrtana, but the doors were shut, and he could not get in.

ফিরি’ গেল বিপ্র ঘরে মনে দুঃখ পাঞা । আর দিন প্রভুকে কহে গঙ্গায় দেখিয়া ॥ ৬১ ॥

phiri’ gela vipra ghare mane duḥkha pāñā returning went the brāhmaṇa home in mind grief getting āra dina prabhuke kahe gaṅgāya dekhiyā
next day to the Lord says at the Gaṅgā seeing (Him)

61 The brāhmaṇa went home aggrieved. The next day, seeing the Lord at the Gaṅgā, he said to Him:

শাপিব তোমারে মুঞি, পাঞাছি মনোদুঃখ । পৈতা ছিণ্ডিয়া শাপে প্রচণ্ড দুর্ম্মুখ ॥ ৬২ ॥

śāpiba tomāre muñi, pāñāchi mano-duḥkha
I will curse You I I have got grief of mind
paitā chiṇḍiyā śāpe pracaṇḍa durmukha
the sacred thread tearing curses the fierce foul-mouthed man

62 “I will curse You — I have been hurt!” And tearing his sacred thread, that fierce, foul-mouthed man cursed Him:

সংসার-সুখ তোমার হউক বিনাশ । শাপ শুনি’ মহাপ্রভুর হইল উল্লাস ॥ ৬৩ ॥

saṁsāra-sukha tomāra hauka vināśa worldly happiness Your let there be destruction
śāpa śuni’ mahāprabhura haila ullāsa
the curse hearing of Mahāprabhu was delight

63 “May Your worldly happiness be destroyed!” Hearing the curse, Mahāprabhu was delighted.

প্রভুর শাপ-বার্ত্তা শুনে হঞা শ্রদ্ধাবান্ । ব্রহ্মশাপ হৈতে তার হয় পরিত্রাণ ॥ ৬৪ ॥

prabhura śāpa-vārtā śune hañā śraddhāvān of the Lord of the curse the account hears being faithful brahma-śāpa haite tāra haya paritrāṇa
of brāhmaṇas a curse from his is protection

64 One who hears with faith the account of the Lord’s curse is protected from the curse of brāhmaṇas.

Anubhāṣya.
Whoever thinks that the Lord, the master of māyā, is subject to curses and the like, or that He is a jīva punished by Yama and subject to the fruits of karma, invites godlessness upon himself. But once the jīva comes instead to know Him as the Supreme Lord, eternally worthy of service, its beginningless aversion to Kṛṣṇa disappears. This incident is not in the Caitanya-bhāgavata.

Mercy through punishment for Mukunda —

মুকুন্দ-দত্তেরে কৈল দণ্ড-পরসাদ । খণ্ডিল তাহার চিত্তের সব অবসাদ ॥ ৬৫ ॥

mukunda-dattere kaila daṇḍa-parasāda
to Mukunda Datta He made the mercy of punishment
khaṇḍila tāhāra cittera saba avasāda
He removed his of the heart all dejection

65 He gave Mukunda Datta the mercy of punishment and removed all the dejection from his heart.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

On the day of the Lord's mahā-prakāśa, Mukunda Datta stayed lying outside the door. When the Lord had shown His grace to the other devotees one by one, they told the Lord that Mukunda Datta was outside. The Lord replied, “I will not soon be pleased with Mukunda Datta. Before devotees he speaks of ‘pure devotion,’ but sitting among the Māyāvādīs he accepts the ‘Māyāvāda’ set out in the Yoga-vāsiṣṭha. This always pains Me.” Mukunda Datta heard these words from outside and said, “I am fortunate! Though not soon, at some time Mahāprabhu, the deliverer of the world, will show me mercy.” Seeing that Mukunda Datta was firmly resolved to give up the company of Māyāvādīs, the Lord at once had him brought near and showed him His favor. In this way the Lord punished him for the offense of associating with Māyāvādīs and granted him grace as the fruit of associating with pure devotees.

Anubhāṣya.

Mercy through punishment for Mukunda: see the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 10.

Mercy through punishment for Advaita —

আচার্য্য-গোসাঞিরে প্রভু করে গুরুভক্তি । তাহাতে আচার্য্য বড় হয় দুঃখমতি ॥ ৬৬ ॥

ācārya-gosāñire prabhu kare guru-bhakti to Ācārya Gosāñi the Lord shows devotion as to a guru tāhāte ācārya baḍa haya duḥkha-mati
by that the Ācārya greatly becomes grieved

66 The Lord showed Advaita Ācārya Gosāñi the devotion due to a guru, and this grieved the Ācārya greatly.

ভঙ্গী করি’ জ্ঞানমার্গ করিল ব্যাখ্যান । ক্রোধাবেশে প্রভু তারে কৈল অবজ্ঞান ॥ ৬৭ ॥

bhaṅgī kari’ jñāna-mārga karila vyākhyāna
a ruse making the path of knowledge he made an exposition krodhāveśe prabhu tāre kaila avajñāna
in anger the Lord to him showed disrespect

67 So, by a ruse, he expounded the path of knowledge, and the Lord, in anger, treated him with disrespect.

তবে আচার্য্য-গোসাঞির আনন্দ হইল ৷ লজ্জিত হইয়া প্রভু প্রসাদ করিল ॥ ৬৮ ॥

tabe ācārya-gosāñira ānanda haila
then of Ācārya Gosāñi joy there was lajjita haiyā prabhu prasāda karila abashed becoming the Lord mercy showed

68 Then Ācārya Gosāñi was filled with joy, and the Lord, abashed, showed him mercy.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
Advaitācārya was a godbrother of Īśvara Purī, Mahāprabhu's guru. For this reason the Lord, although Advaita was His servant, honored him as a guru. Advaita was pained that Mahāprabhu showed him such honor. To receive Mahāprabhu's grace in the form of punishment, he went to Śāntipura and began to explain the path of jñāna to some unfortunate people. Hearing of this, the Lord went to Śāntipura in anger and gave Advaita Prabhu a sound beating. Having received the blows, Advaita Prabhu began to dance, saying, “Look, today my desire is fulfilled! Mahāprabhu was stingy and treated me as His guru; today He saw me as His own servant and disciple and tried to save me from the evil notion of Māyāvāda.” Seeing this ploy of Advaitācārya, the Lord was embarrassed and became pleased with him.

Murāri Gupta's exclusive devotion to Śrī Rāma —

মুরারিগুপ্ত-মুখে শুনি’ রাম-গুণগ্রাম ৷ ললাটে লিখিল তাঁর ‘রামদাস’ নাম ॥ ৬৯ ॥

murāri-gupta-mukhe śuni’ rāma-guṇa-grāma from Murāri Gupta’s mouth hearing of Rāma the glories the many lalāṭe likhila tāṅra ‘rāmadāsa’ nāma
on the forehead He wrote his ‘Rāmadāsa’ the name

69 Hearing Rāma’s many glories from the mouth of Murāri Gupta, the Lord wrote on his forehead the name “Rāmadāsa” (servant of Rāma).

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
One day Mahāprabhu asked Murāri Gupta, who worshiped Śrī Rāma with the Rāma mantra, to recite a prayer to Śrī Rāma. Murāri recited the Rāmāṣṭaka with great prema: “Having thus heard the eight verses about Raghunandana, the lion among kings, Bhagavān placed His foot on the head of Murāri the physician and wrote on his forehead: ‘O, by My grace, become “Rāmadāsa”!’”

Anubhāṣya.
Caitanya-maṅgala, Madhya-khaṇḍa: “I ever worship Rāma, the guru of the three worlds.” “Having thus heard the eight verses about Raghuvīra, He Himself placed His foot on Murāri's head. He wrote the name ‘Rāmadāsa’ on his forehead: ‘By My grace you have become “Rāmadāsa.”’ Saying this, He showed him the form of Rāma. Murāri, falling at His feet, offers prayers.” The Lord's mercy to Murāri Gupta: see the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 10.

The Lord drinks water from an iron pot in Śrīdhara's house and gives boons —

শ্রীধরের লৌহপাত্রে কৈল জলপান । সমস্ত ভক্তেরে দিল ইষ্ট বরদান ॥ ৭০ ॥

śrīdharera lauha-pātre kaila jala-pāna
of Śrīdhara from the iron pot He made water-drinking samasta bhaktere dila iṣṭa vara-dāna
to all the devotees He gave desired boons

70 He drank water from Śrīdhara’s iron pot, and He granted all the devotees the boons they desired.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
On the night of the first city kīrtana, after the Kāzī had been delivered, Chād̃ Kāzī came along with the kīrtana as far as Śrīdhara's courtyard. When the kīrtana stopped there to rest, Mahāprabhu mercifully drank the water that was in Śrīdhara's leaky iron pot, calling it “water offered by a devotee.” From that spot the Kāzī turned back. That place, in the northeastern part of Māyāpura, is still called the place where the kīrtana rested.

Anubhāṣya.
How the Lord drank water from Śrīdhara's iron pot: see the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 23.

Mercy to Ṭhākura Haridāsa; the pastime of freeing Śacī from her offense —

হরিদাস ঠাকুরেরে করিল প্রসাদ । আচার্য্য-স্থানে মাতার খণ্ডাইল অপরাধ ॥ ৭১ ॥

haridāsa ṭhākurere karila prasāda to Haridāsa Ṭhākura He showed mercy
ācārya-sthāne mātāra khaṇḍāila aparādha toward the Ācārya His mother’s He removed offense

71 He showed mercy to Haridāsa Ṭhākura, and He freed His mother from her offense against Advaita Ācārya.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
On the day of the mahā-prakāśa, Mahāprabhu embraced Haridāsa, declared him an avatāra of Prahlāda, and gave him a boon.

When Viśvarūpa took sannyāsa, Śacīmātā blamed Advaita Ācārya for it. She thus committed an offense against a Vaiṣṇava, and the Lord freed her from that offense by having His mother take the dust of the Ācārya's feet.

Anubhāṣya.
Mercy to Ṭhākura Haridāsa: see the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 10; the Lord's mercy to Śacīmātā: the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 22.

*A godless student calls the glory of the holy name exaggeration (arthavāda) —*

ভক্তগণে প্রভু নাম-মহিমা কহিল । শুনিয়া পড়ুয়া তাঁহা অর্থবাদ কৈল ॥ ৭২ ॥

bhakta-gaṇe prabhu nāma-mahimā kahila to the devotees the Lord the Name’s glory spoke śuniyā paḍuyā tāṅhā artha-vāda kaila hearing a student there exaggeration called (it)

72 The Lord spoke to the devotees about the glory of the Name. Hearing it, a student there called it arthavāda (exaggerated praise).

Anubhāṣya.
The glory of Śrī Nāma Prabhu is non-different from Kṛṣṇa Himself. To consider it "exaggerated praise," "not real," and therefore "untrue" — this divisive mentality is what is called "arthavāda," that is, (false) praise or else defamation. It is outright godlessness, or atheism — nothing but enmity toward God.

নামে স্তুতিবাদ শুনি' প্রভুর হৈল দুঃখ । সবারে নিষেধিল, — ইহার না দেখিহ মুখ ॥ ৭৩ ॥

nāme stuti-vāda śuni' prabhura haila duḥkha about the Name 'mere praise' hearing of the Lord there was pain
sabāre niṣedhila, — ihāra nā dekhiha mukha
all He forbade his not see face

73 Hearing the Name's glories called mere praise, the Lord was pained, and He told everyone: "Do not look at this man's face!"

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
One day Mahāprabhu was describing to the devotees the boundless glory of the holy name. Hearing it, an unfortunate student said, "All this glory of the name is not real: the scriptures merely praise the name." To reinterpret the glory of the name like this is the offense against the name called arthavāda. No offense is as terrible as an offense against the name. The Lord forbade everyone to look at that offending student's face and, with His associates, bathed in the Gaṅgā sacele, that is, with His clothes on. The meaning is: whoever has seen the face of an offender of the name should bathe with his clothes on — that is the lesson.

*The Lord and His associates bathe in the Gaṅgā with their clothes on, and He glorifies devotion, the one and only means (abhidheya) —*

সগণে সচেলে গিয়া কৈল গঙ্গাস্নান । ভক্তির মহিমা তাঁহা করিল ব্যাখ্যান ॥ ৭৪ ॥

sagaṇe sacele giyā kaila gaṅgā-snāna with His associates   in His clothes   going   He made   bathing in the Gaṅgā bhaktira mahimā tāṅhā karila vyākhyāna of bhakti   the glory   there   He made   explanation

74 With His associates He went and bathed in the Gaṅgā with His clothes on, and there He explained the glory of devotion.

জ্ঞান-কর্ম্ম-যোগ-ধর্ম্মে নহে কৃষ্ণ বশ । কৃষ্ণবশ-হেতু এক — কৃষ্ণপ্রেমরস ॥ ৭৫ ॥

jñāna-karma-yoga-dharme nahe kṛṣṇa vaśa
by knowledge   karma   yoga   religious duty   not   Kṛṣṇa   controlled kṛṣṇa-vaśa-hetu eka — kṛṣṇa-prema-rasa of controlling Kṛṣṇa   the cause   one   of love for Kṛṣṇa   the rasa

75 Kṛṣṇa is not brought under control by knowledge, karma, yoga or religious duty. Only one thing brings Kṛṣṇa under control: the rasa of love for Him.

*(Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, Canto 11, Chapter 14, Verse 20)*

ন সাধয়তি মাং যোগো ন সাংখ্যং ধর্ম্ম উদ্ধব ।
ন স্বাধ্যায়স্তপস্ত্যাগো যথা ভক্তির্মমোর্জ্জিতা ॥ ৭৬ ॥

na sādhayati māṁ yogo not   controls   Me   yoga
na sāṁkhyaṁ dharma uddhava
not   sāṅkhya   religious duty   O Uddhava
na svādhyāyas tapas tyāgo not   Vedic study   austerity   renunciation
yathā bhaktir mamorjitā
as   devotion   to Me   strong

76 "O Uddhava, neither yoga, nor sāṅkhya, nor religious duty, nor Vedic study, austerity or renunciation brings Me under control as does strong devotion to Me." (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 11.14.20)

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

O Uddhava! As strong devotion to Me can win Me over, so I am not won over by aṣṭāṅga-yoga, by sāṅkhya-jñāna — the doctrine of non-difference from Brahman, by svādhyāya — a brāhmaṇa's study of his own branch of the Veda, by every kind of austerity, or by sannyāsa and the like, which is renunciation.

Anubhāṣya.

Śrī Kṛṣṇa said to Uddhava: O uddhava, yogaḥ (yama, niyama, āsana, prāṇāyāma and the rest, born of the restraint of the breath), sāṅkhyam (the enumeration of the tattvas taught by Kapila), dharmaḥ (the dharma of varṇa and āśrama), svādhyāyaḥ (study of the Veda), tapaḥ, tyāgaḥ (sannyāsa) tathā (so) mām na sādhayati (do not win Me over), yathā (as) mama ūrjitā (intensified) bhaktiḥ mām (wins Me over).

Praise of Murāri —

মুরারিকে কহে প্রভু কৃষ্ণবশ কৈলা । শুনিয়া মুরারি শ্লোক কহিতে লাগিলা ॥ ৭৭ ॥

murārike kahe prabhu kṛṣṇa-vaśa kailā to Murāri says the Lord Kṛṣṇa controlled (you) made śuniyā murāri śloka kahite lāgilā hearing Murāri a verse to recite began

77 The Lord said to Murāri, “You have brought Kṛṣṇa under your control.” Hearing this, Murāri began to recite a verse:

*(Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, Canto 10, Chapter 81, Verse 14)*[2]

ক্বাহং দরিদ্রঃ পাপীয়ান্ ক্ব কৃষ্ণঃ শ্রীনিকেতনঃ ।
ব্রহ্মবন্ধুরিতিস্মাহং বাহুভ্যাং পরিরম্ভিতঃ ॥ ৭৮ ॥

kvāhaṁ daridraḥ pāpīyān
who am I   poor   most sinful
kva kṛṣṇaḥ śrī-niketanaḥ
who   Kṛṣṇa   the abode of Śrī
brahma-bandhur iti smāhaṁ
a brāhmaṇa in name only   thus   indeed   I bāhubhyāṁ parirambhitaḥ
with His arms   embraced

78 "Who am I — poor and most sinful — and who is Kṛṣṇa, the abode of the goddess of fortune? Yet I, a brāhmaṇa in name only, was embraced in His arms." (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 10.81.16)

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
Where am I, a great sinner and a pauper, and where is Kṛṣṇa, the abode of Śrī! Knowing me to be an unworthy son of a brāhmaṇa, He embraced me. This is truly astonishing.

Anubhāṣya.
Mahāprabhu said to Murāri, "By your prema and devotion you have brought Kṛṣṇa under your control." In reply Murāri recited the verse from the Bhāgavata spoken by the brāhmaṇa "Sudāmā."

These were the words the brāhmaṇa "Śrīdāmā," or "Sudāmā," spoke to himself as he went home: daridraḥ (devoid of wealth) pāpīyān (sinful) aham kva (where)? śrī-niketanaḥ (the form in whom all majesty is rooted, the shelter of all piety) kṛṣṇaḥ kva (where)? aham brahma-bandhuḥ (the lowest of brāhmaṇas by birth) iti — thus (by Kṛṣṇa) bāhubhyām parirambhitaḥ (embraced). (The words that Kṛṣṇa could never embrace me, an unworthy brahma-bandhu, show only Kṛṣṇa's greatness; the sentence expresses the speaker's humility.)

If Murāri accepted Mahāprabhu's words favorably, he recited the verse with this thought: "Murāri has no power to bring Kṛṣṇa under control; it is Kṛṣṇa who, by His own love for His devotees, on the pretext of something incidental and secondary, makes an unworthy servant the recipient of unimaginable good fortune."

If, however, Murāri recited the verse to set aside Mahāprabhu's words as unfavorable to himself, then he said, "I am wholly unfit to control Kṛṣṇa; I have not been able to control Kṛṣṇa." The brāhmaṇa Śrīdāmā listed his own disqualifications — poverty, a bent toward sin, not being a true brāhmaṇa and so on — and proclaimed his good fortune: Kṛṣṇa embraced him. But Murāri Gupta thinks, “Even in that way I am unworthy.”

In the commentary on the tenth canto, the Vaiṣṇava-toṣaṇī, the meaning of the verse is explained thus: “Kva, and so on. Pāpīyān: unfortunate; kṛṣṇaḥ: Bhagavān Himself. Thus ‘Kṛṣṇa’ and ‘most sinful’ contradict each other, and so do ‘poverty’ and ‘abode of Śrī.’ Nevertheless, brahma-bandhuḥ, born in a family of brāhmaṇas, bāhubhyām, with both arms, parirambhitaḥ, embraced. Sma expresses wonder. Thus brāhmaṇa birth alone is named as the cause of the embrace, not friendship, for there he considered himself utterly unworthy. Therefore it is only the Lord's devotion to brāhmaṇas that is praised, not even His love for His devotees.”

In the preceding verse Sudāmā's mood is recorded thus: “With the chest on which Kamalā, dearer to Him than life, resides — with that chest Brahmaṇya-deva, out of love for brāhmaṇas, embraced a pauper like me, bereft of Lakṣmī.” In keeping with the mood of that verse, the commentary on the following verse, quoted here, says: “The cause of the embrace is brāhmaṇa birth alone, not friendship.” And the brāhmaṇa Śrīdāmā in his humility thinks: “I myself am utterly unworthy; I myself do not live as a brāhmaṇa. It is only the Lord, to show the excellence of devotion to brāhmaṇas and His own excellence, who has shown such love even to a brahma-bandhu — that is what is astonishing.” The brāhmaṇa Śrīdāmā, wishing to express his humility and his own insignificance, condemned himself as a “brahma-bandhu.” And by saying that Kṛṣṇa shows extraordinary grace even to a brahma-bandhu, he truly revealed his humility and his brāhmaṇa nature. By this the brāhmaṇa Sudāmā set a shining example of giving up one's own greatness. Being a brahma-bandhu is not his own quality or his own achievement; rather, being a brahma-bandhu is something extraneous — that which, for the brāhmaṇa Sudāmā, is not his own property, is itself the cause of Kṛṣṇa's love. Neither his own greatness nor his own devotion to Kṛṣṇa compelled Kṛṣṇa to act so.

Murāri Gupta, too, adopted such a mood: covering his own greatness, he displayed humility. In the social view of that time Murāri Gupta was merely a śūdra by birth, and the word “brahma-bandhu” does not apply to him. But reflecting on the import of the verse “Women, śūdras and dvija-bandhus have no access to hearing the three Vedas” (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 1.4.25), Murāri Gupta likened the position of a dvija-bandhu to that of a śūdra.

In his commentary on the Chāndogya Upaniṣad, Śaṅkarācārya, explaining the word brahma-bandhu, says: “He calls the brāhmaṇas his kinsmen, but does not himself live as a brāhmaṇa.” (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 1.7.57): “Shaving the head, seizing one's wealth, expelling one from one's dwelling — this is the execution of brahma-bandhus; there is no other, bodily execution for them.” In the Kūrma Purāṇa: “The servant of a śūdra, a servant of the king, a vṛṣala, a priest for a whole village, and one who lives by killing and imprisoning — these six are brahma-bandhus.” Being a brahma-bandhu, that is, a brāhmaṇa merely by birth, is no proof of one's own qualification; rather, it proves only dependence on something else.

The story of how the Lord planted a mango tree and gave out its fruit —

একদিন প্রভু সব ভক্তগণ লঞা । সংকীর্ত্তন করি’ বৈসে শ্রমযুক্ত হঞা ॥ ৭৯ ॥

ekadina prabhu saba bhakta-gaṇa lañā
one day the Lord all the devotees taking saṁkīrtana kari’ vaise śrama-yukta hañā saṅkīrtana having performed sat down tired being

79 One day the Lord performed saṅkīrtana with all His devotees and then sat down, tired.

এক আম্রবীজ প্রভু অঙ্গনে রোপিল । তৎক্ষণে জন্মিয়া বৃক্ষ বাড়িতে লাগিল ॥ ৮০ ॥

eka āmra-bīja prabhu aṅgane ropila
one mango seed the Lord in the courtyard planted tat-kṣaṇe janmiyā vṛkṣa bāḍite lāgila
that moment sprouting a tree to grow began

80 The Lord planted a mango seed in the courtyard. At once it sprouted, and a tree began to grow.

দেখিতে দেখিতে বৃক্ষ লাগিল ফলিতে । পাকিল অনেক ফল, সবেই বিস্মিতে ॥ ৮১ ॥

dekhite dekhite vṛkṣa lāgila phalite
before their eyes the tree began to bear fruit pākila aneka phala, sabei vismite ripened many fruits all amazed

81 Before their eyes the tree began to bear fruit; many fruits ripened, and everyone was amazed.

শত দুই ফল প্রভু শীঘ্র পাড়াইল । প্রক্ষালন করি’ কৃষ্ণে ভোগ লাগাইল ॥ ৮২ ॥

śata dui phala prabhu śīghra pāḍāila
some two hundred fruits the Lord quickly had picked prakṣālana kari’ kṛṣṇe bhoga lāgāila
washing having done to Kṛṣṇa as an offering He offered

82 The Lord quickly had some two hundred fruits picked, washed them and offered them to Kṛṣṇa.

রক্ত-পীতবর্ণ, নাহি অষ্ঠি-বল্কল । একজনের পেট ভরে খাইলে এক ফল ॥ ৮৩ ॥

rakta-pīta-varṇa, nāhi aṣṭhi-valkala
red and yellow in color no stone or skin
ekajanera peṭa bhare khāile eka phala
of one man the stomach fills on eating one fruit

83 They were red and yellow, without stone or skin, and one fruit would fill a man’s stomach.

দেখিয়া সন্তুষ্ট হৈলা শচীর নন্দন । সবাকে খাওয়াল আগে করিয়া ভক্ষণ ॥ ৮৪ ॥

dekhiyā santuṣṭa hailā śacīra nandana seeing pleased became of Śacī the son sabāke khāoyāla āge kariyā bhakṣaṇa
all He fed first having tasted

84 Seeing them, the son of Śacī was pleased. He tasted them first and then fed everyone.

অস্থি-বল্কল নাহি, — অমৃত-রসময় । এক ফল খাইলে রসে উদর পূরয় ॥ ৮৫ ॥

aṣṭhi-valkala nāhi, — amṛta-rasamaya
stone and skin none full of nectarean juice
eka phala khāile rase udara pūraya
one fruit on eating with juice the stomach fills

85 Without stone or skin, they were full of nectarean juice; eating one fruit filled the stomach with its juice.

এইমত প্রতিদিন ফলে বারমাস । বৈষ্ণব খায়েন ফল, — প্রভুর উল্লাস ॥ ৮৬ ॥

ei-mata pratidina phale bāra māsa
in this way every day it fruited twelve months vaiṣṇava khāyena phala, — prabhura ullāsa
the Vaiṣṇavas eat the fruit the Lord’s delight

86 In this way the tree bore fruit every day for twelve months, and the Vaiṣṇavas ate it, to the Lord’s delight.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
One day the Lord, tired from the city kīrtana with the devotees, came to a certain place and planted a mango seed in the courtyard of the devotee who lived there. At once it bore fruit, and a mango festival took place. That place is now known as “Āmraghaṭṭa” (“Āmaghāṭā”).

Anubhāṣya.
This incident is not in the Śrī Caitanya-bhāgavata.

এই সব লীলা করে শচীর নন্দন । অন্য লোক নাহি জানে বিনা ভক্তগণ ॥ ৮৭ ॥

ei saba līlā kare śacīra nandana
these all pastimes performs of Śacī the son anya loka nāhi jāne vinā bhakta-gaṇa
other people not know except the devotees

87 The son of Śacī performed all these pastimes, but no one knew of them except His devotees.

এই মত বারমাস কীর্ত্তন অবসানে । আম্রমহোৎসব প্রভু করে দিনে দিনে ॥ ৮৮ ॥

ei mata bāra-māsa kīrtana avasāne
in this way twelve months of kīrtana at the end āmra-mahotsava prabhu kare dine dine
a mango festival the Lord holds day after day

88 Thus for twelve months, at the end of each kīrtana, the Lord held a festival of mangoes day after day.

*During the kīrtana the Lord keeps the clouds from raining —*

কীর্ত্তন করিতে প্রভু আইলা মেঘগণ । আপন-ইচ্ছায় কৈল মেঘ নিবারণ ॥ ৮৯ ॥

kīrtana karite prabhu āilā megha-gaṇa kīrtana while performing the Lord came clouds
āpana-icchāya kaila megha nivāraṇa
by His own will He made of the clouds the dispersal

89 Once, while the Lord was performing kīrtana, clouds gathered, and by His own will He dispersed them.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
One day Mahāprabhu was performing saṅkīrtana far away, and at that time the sky was massed with clouds. The Lord willed the clouds to go and ordered them away, and they at once dispersed. For this reason that sandbank of the Gaṅgā came to be called “Megher Car” (“the Cloud Sandbank”). Now, because the Gaṅgā has changed its course, that “Megher Car” has shifted to the village of “Belpukhuriyā.”

And the place where Belpukhuriyā used to be is now called “Tāraṇavāsa” and “Ṭoṭā.”

Anubhāṣya.
Caitanya-maṅgala, Madhya-khaṇḍa: “The day was done, evening came, the far horizons grew lovely[3]. Suddenly clouds overspread the vault of the sky; thunder rolls again and again with a deep roar. Seeing this, the Vaiṣṇavas took it for a calamity. Then Mahāprabhu took cymbals in His hands and loudly sang the saṅkīrtana of the names and qualities. Thinking, ‘I shall bless the world of the gods,’ the Lord turned His face up to the sky. The clouds went far away, the sky cleared, and the Vaiṣṇavas' joy grew. The night became pure, tinted by the moon. His followers sing His qualities, and He Himself dances.”

*Śrīvāsa reads the Viṣṇu-sahasra-nāma —*

একদিন প্রভু শ্রীবাসে আজ্ঞা দিল । ‘বৃহৎ সহস্র নাম’ পড়, শুনিতে মন হৈল ॥ ৯০ ॥

ekadina prabhu śrīvāse ājñā dila
one day the Lord to Śrīvāsa an order gave ‘bṛhat sahasra nāma’ paḍa, śunite mana haila
‘the great Thousand Names’ read to hear My mind wishes

90 One day the Lord said to Śrīvāsa: “Read the great Sahasra-nāma (the Thousand Names); I wish to hear it.”

The pastime in which the Lord is absorbed in the mood of Nṛsiṁha —

পড়িতে আইলা স্তবে নৃসিংহের নাম । শুনিয়া আবিষ্ট হৈলা প্রভু গুণধাম ॥ ৯১ ॥

paḍite āilā stave nṛsiṁhera nāma
reading he came in the hymn to Nṛsiṁha’s name
śuniyā āviṣṭa hailā prabhu guṇadhāma
hearing overwhelmed became the Lord the abode of virtues

91 As he read, he came in the hymn to the name of Nṛsiṁha; hearing it, the Lord, the abode of all virtues, was overwhelmed.

Absorbed in the mood of Śrī Nṛsiṁha, the one chastiser of godlessness, the Lord puts the godless to flight —

নৃসিংহ-আবেশে প্রভু হাতে গদা লঞা । পাষণ্ডী মারিতে যায় নগরে ধাইয়া ॥ ৯২ ॥

nṛsiṁha-āveśe prabhu hāte gadā lañā in Nṛsiṁha’s mood   the Lord   in His hand   a club   taking pāṣaṇḍī mārite yāya nagare dhāiyā unbelievers   to strike   goes   into the town   running

92 In the mood of Nṛsiṁha the Lord took a club in His hand and ran into the town to strike down the unbelievers.

The people's terror —

নৃসিংহ-আবেশ দেখি’ মহাতেজোময় । পথ ছাড়ি’ ভাগে লোক পাঞা বড় ভয় ॥ ৯৩ ॥

nṛsiṁha-āveśa dekhi’ mahā-tejomaya in Nṛsiṁha’s mood   seeing   greatly   blazing patha chāḍi’ bhāge loka pāñā baḍa bhaya
the road   leaving   flee   the people   getting   great   fear

93 Seeing Him absorbed in Nṛsiṁha’s mood and blazing with power, people left the road and fled in great fear.

Anubhāṣya.
Bhāge: they flee. This incident is not in the Caitanya-bhāgavata.

The Lord restrains His anger and shows compassion —

লোক-ভয় দেখি’ প্রভুর বাহ্য হইল । শ্রীবাস-গৃহেতে গিয়া গদা ফেলাইল ॥ ৯৪ ॥

loka-bhaya dekhi’ prabhura bāhya haila
the people’s fear   seeing   of the Lord   outer awareness   came śrīvāsa-gṛhete giyā gadā phelāila
to Śrīvāsa’s house   going   the club   He threw down

94 Seeing the people’s fear, the Lord returned to outer awareness; He went to Śrīvāsa’s house and threw down the club.

The Lord's words to Śrīvāsa —

শ্রীবাসে কহেন প্রভু করিয়া বিষাদ । লোক ভয় পায়, — মোর হয় অপরাধ ॥ ৯৫ ॥

śrīvāse kahena prabhu kariyā viṣāda
to Śrīvāsa says the Lord becoming dejected loka bhaya pāya, — mora haya aparādha
the people fear got My is offense

95 Dejected, the Lord said to Śrīvāsa: “The people were frightened — that is My offense.”

Anubhāṣya.
Caitanya-maṅgala, Madhya-khaṇḍa: “Śrīvāsa Paṇḍita was performing the rite for his ancestors. With a very pure heart he hears the ‘Sahasra-nāma.’ At that time Gaurahari came to that place. He hears the ‘Sahasra-nāma’ to His heart's content. As He listened, He became absorbed in the mood of Nṛsiṁha. Both His eyes turned red with anger, His hair stood on end. His whole body thrilled, the color of the dawn. Again and again a loud roar — the roar of a lion. Suddenly He seized a club and rushed off. Seeing this, everyone trembled at heart. Restraining it all, the Lord sat on His seat: ‘I do not know what offense I have committed.’”

Śrīvāsa's words: Gaura's name destroys offenses —

শ্রীবাস বলেন, — যে তোমার নাম লয় । তার কোটি অপরাধ, সব হয় ক্ষয় ॥ ৯৬ ॥

śrīvāsa balena, — ye tomāra nāma laya Śrīvāsa says whoever Your name takes tāra koṭi aparādha, saba haya kṣaya
his millions of offenses all are destroyed

96 Śrīvāsa said: “Whoever takes Your name — all his millions of offenses are destroyed.

The sight of Gaura destroys worldly existence —

অপরাধ নাহি, কৈলে লোকের নিস্তার । যে তোমা’ দেখিল, তার ছুটিল সংসার ॥ ৯৭ ॥

aparādha nāhi, kaile lokera nistāra offense none You made of the people deliverance
ye tomā’ dekhila, tāra chuṭila saṁsāra
whoever You saw his was released worldly bondage

97 There was no offense; You delivered the people. Whoever saw You was released from worldly bondage.”

এত বলি’ শ্রীবাস করিল সেবন । তুষ্ট হঞা প্রভু আইলা আপন-ভবন ॥ ৯৮ ॥

eta bali’ śrīvāsa karila sevana
so saying Śrīvāsa rendered service
tuṣṭa hañā prabhu āilā āpana-bhavana pleased becoming the Lord came to His own home

98 Saying this, Śrīvāsa served Him, and the Lord, pleased, returned to His own home.

The Lord in the mood of Śiva on the shoulders of a most fortunate Śaiva —

আর দিন শিবভক্ত শিবগুণ গায় । প্রভুর অঙ্গনে নাচে, ডম্বুরু বাজায় ॥ ৯৯ ॥

āra dina śiva-bhakta śiva-guṇa gāya
another day a devotee of Śiva Śiva’s glories sings prabhura aṅgane nāce, ḍamburu bājāya
in the Lord’s courtyard dances a ḍamaru plays

99 Another day a devotee of Śiva came singing Śiva’s glories; he danced in the Lord’s courtyard, playing a ḍamaru drum.

মহেশ-আবেশ হৈলা শচীর নন্দন । তার স্কন্ধে চড়ি’ নৃত্য কৈল বহুক্ষণ ॥ ১০০ ॥

maheśa-āveśa hailā śacīra nandana
in Maheśa’s mood   became   of Śacī   the son
tāra skandhe caḍi’ nṛtya kaila bahu-kṣaṇa
his   on the shoulders   climbing   dancing   He did   a long time 100 The son of Śacī became absorbed in the mood of Maheśa (Śiva); He climbed onto the man’s shoulders and danced for a long time.

Anubhāṣya.
See the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 8.

The Lord gives love for Kṛṣṇa to a dancing beggar —

আর দিন এক ভিক্ষুক আইলা মাগিতে । প্রভুর নৃত্য দেখি’ নৃত্য লাগিলা করিতে ॥ ১০১ ॥

āra dina eka bhikṣuka āilā māgite
another   day   a   beggar   came   to beg prabhura nṛtya dekhi’ nṛtya lāgilā karite
the Lord’s   dancing   seeing   dancing   began   to do

101 Another day a beggar came for alms. Seeing the Lord dance, he began to dance too.

প্রভু-সঙ্গে নৃত্য করে পরম উল্লাসে । প্রভু তারে প্রেম দিল, প্রেমরসে ভাসে ॥ ১০২ ॥

prabhu-saṅge nṛtya kare parama ullāse
with the Lord   dancing   he does   in supreme   joy
prabhu tāre prema dila, prema-rase bhāse
the Lord   to him   love   gave   in love’s rasa   he floats

102 He danced with the Lord in supreme joy; the Lord gave him love of God, and he floated in its rasa.

The Lord asks an astrologer about His own past —

আর দিনে জ্যোতিষ এক সর্ব্বজ্ঞ আইল । তাহারে সম্মান করি’ প্রভু প্রশ্ন কৈল ॥ ১০৩ ॥

āra dine jyotiṣa eka sarva-jña āila
another day an astrologer one omniscient came tāhāre sammāna kari’ prabhu praśna kaila
to him honor showing the Lord a question asked

103 Another day an omniscient astrologer came. The Lord honored him and asked:

Anubhāṣya.
Sarvajña: one who knows the three times — past, future and present.

কে আছিলুঁ পূর্ব্বজন্মে আমি, কহ গণি’ ।
গণিতে লাগিলা সর্ব্বজ্ঞ প্রভুবাক্য শুনি’ ॥ ১০৪ ॥

ke āchiluṅ pūrvajanme āmi, kaha gaṇi’
who was in My previous birth I tell calculating gaṇite lāgilā sarvajña prabhuvākya śuni’
to calculate began the omniscient one the Lord’s words hearing

104 “Who was I in My previous birth? Calculate and tell Me.” Hearing the Lord’s words, the omniscient man began to calculate.

Anubhāṣya.
To this day in East Bengal (especially in the Ḍhākā division), in place of verb forms such as chila, chile, chilām, people use āchila, āchilā and āchilām.

The astrologer realizes that the Lord is the Supreme Lord —

গণি’ ধ্যানে দেখে সর্ব্বজ্ঞ, — মহাজ্যোতির্ম্ময় । অনন্ত বৈকুণ্ঠ-ব্রহ্মাণ্ড — সবার আশ্রয় ॥ ১০৫ ॥

gaṇi’ dhyāne dekhe sarva-jña, — mahā-jyotirmaya
calculating in meditation sees the omniscient one a great effulgence ananta vaikuṇṭha-brahmāṇḍa — sabāra āśraya
of the endless Vaikuṇṭhas and universes of all the shelter

105 Having calculated, he saw in meditation a form of great effulgence — the shelter of all, of the endless Vaikuṇṭhas and universes,

পরমতত্ত্ব, পরব্রহ্ম, পরম-ঈশ্বর ।
দেখি’ প্রভুর মূর্ত্তি সর্ব্বজ্ঞ হইল ফাঁফর ॥ ১০৬ ॥

parama-tattva, para-brahma, parama-īśvara
the Supreme Truth the Supreme Brahman the Supreme Lord
dekhi’ prabhura mūrti sarva-jña haila phāṅphara
seeing the Lord’s form the omniscient one was bewildered

106 the Supreme Truth, the Supreme Brahman, the Supreme Lord. Seeing the Lord’s form, the omniscient man was bewildered.

The astrologer is bewildered —

বলিতে না পারে কিছু, মৌন হইল । প্রভু পুনঃ প্রশ্ন কৈল, কহিতে লাগিল ॥ ১০৭ ॥

balite nā pāre kichu, mauna haila to say not could anything silent he became prabhu punaḥ praśna kaila, kahite lāgila
the Lord again question asked to speak he began

107 He could say nothing and fell silent. The Lord asked again, and he began to speak:

The astrologer's answer to the Lord's question —

পূর্ব্বজন্মে ছিলা তুমি পরম-আশ্রয় । পরিপূর্ণ ভগবান্ — সর্ব্বৈশ্বর্য্যময় ॥ ১০৮ ॥

pūrva janme chilā tumi parama-āśraya
in the previous birth were You the supreme shelter
paripūrṇa bhagavān — sarvaiśvaryamaya
the complete Bhagavān full of all majesty

108 “In Your previous birth You were the supreme shelter, the complete Bhagavān, full of all majesty.

পূর্ব্বে যৈছে ছিলা তুমি এবেহ সেরূপ ।
দুর্ব্বিজ্ঞেয় নিত্যানন্দ — তোমার স্বরূপ ॥ ১০৯ ॥

pūrve yaiche chilā tumi ebeha se-rūpa
before as were You now also that form durvijñeya nityānanda — tomāra svarūpa
hard to understand eternal bliss Your true nature

109 As You were before, so You are now. Your true nature is eternal bliss, hard to understand.”

The Lord declares Himself a cowherd —

প্রভু হাসি’ কৈলা, — তুমি কিছু না জানিলা । পূর্ব্বে আমি আছিলাম জাতিতে গোয়ালা ॥ ১১০ ॥

prabhu hāsi’ kailā, — tumi kichu nā jānilā
the Lord laughing said you anything not have understood pūrve āmi āchilāma jātite goyālā
before I was by caste a cowherd

110 The Lord laughed and said: “You have understood nothing. Before, I was a cowherd by caste.

গোপগৃহে জন্ম ছিল, গাভীর রাখাল । সেই পুণ্যে হৈলাঙ আমি ব্রাহ্মণ-ছাওয়াল ॥ ১১১ ॥

gopa-gṛhe janma chila, gābhīra rākhāla
in a cowherd’s house birth was of the cows a herdsman
sei puṇye hailāṅa āmi brāhmaṇa-chāoyāla
by that merit have become I a brāhmaṇa’s son

111 I was born in a cowherd’s house and tended the cows. By that merit I have now become a brāhmaṇa’s son.”

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
Serving cows brings piety. In My previous birth I was a cowherd and served the cows. The piety I earned in this way was the cause (bore the fruit) of My becoming a “brāhmaṇa” this time.

Anubhāṣya.
The Lord's playful, mysterious words to the all-knowing astrologer.

Seeing the dark form, the astrologer is bewildered and takes shelter of the Lord
—

সর্ব্বজ্ঞ কহে, আমি তাহা ধ্যানে দেখিলাঙ । তাহাতে ঐশ্বর্য্য দেখি’ ফাঁফর হইলাঙ ॥ ১১২ ॥

sarva-jña kahe, āmi tāhā dhyāne dekhilāṅa
the omniscient one says I that in meditation saw tāhāte aiśvarya dekhi’ phāṅphara hailāṅa
in it majesty seeing bewildered I became 112 The omniscient man said: “That is what I saw in meditation, and seeing majesty in it, I was bewildered.

সেইরূপে এইরূপে দেখি একাকার । কভু ভেদ দেখি, এই মায়ায় তোমার ॥ ১১৩ ॥

sei-rūpe ei-rūpe dekhi ekākāra that form this form I see as one kabhu bheda dekhi, ei māyāya tomāra sometimes a difference I see that by māyā Your 113 I see that form and this form as one. If ever I see a difference, that is by Your māyā.

*The Lord shows mercy to the astrologer and gives him prema —*

যে হও, সে হও তুমি, তোমাকে নমস্কার । প্রভু তারে প্রেম দিয়া কৈল পুরস্কার ॥ ১১৪ ॥

ye hao, se hao tumi, tomāke namaskāra
whoever You are that You are to You obeisance
prabhu tāre prema diyā kaila puraskāra
the Lord to him love giving made reward

114 Whoever You may be, I bow down to You.” The Lord rewarded him with love of God.

Anubhāṣya.
The story of the astrologer is not found in the Caitanya-bhāgavata.

In the mood of Baladeva, the Lord enacts the pastime of dragging the Yamunā —

এক দিন প্রভু বিষ্ণুমণ্ডপে বসিয়া । ‘মধু আন’, ‘মধু আন’ বলেন ডাকিয়া ॥ ১১৫ ॥

eka dina prabhu viṣṇu-maṇḍape vasiyā
one day the Lord in the Viṣṇu pavilion sitting ‘madhu āna’, ‘madhu āna’ balena ḍākiyā
‘honey bring’ ‘honey bring’ says calling out

115 One day, sitting in the Viṣṇu pavilion, the Lord called out: “Bring honey! Bring honey!”

নিত্যানন্দ-গোসাঞি প্রভুর আবেশ জানিল । গঙ্গাজল-পাত্র আনি’ সম্মুখে ধরিল ॥ ১১৬ ॥

nityānanda-gosāñi prabhura āveśa jānila Nityānanda Gosāñi the Lord's mood understood
gaṅgā-jala-pātra āni' sammukhe dharila
a vessel of Gaṅgā water bringing before (Him) placed 116 Nityānanda Gosāñi understood the Lord's mood; He brought a vessel of Gaṅgā water and set it before Him.

Anubhāṣya.
See the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 25.

জল পান করিয়া নাচে হঞা বিহ্বল । যমুনাকর্ষণ-লীলা দেখয়ে সকল ॥ ১১৭ ॥

jala pāna kariyā nāce hañā vihvala
water drinking He dances becoming overwhelmed yamunākarṣaṇa-līlā dekhaye sakala
the pastime of drawing the Yamunā see all

117 The Lord drank the water and danced, overwhelmed, and everyone saw the pastime of drawing the Yamunā.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
The pastime of dragging the Yamunā: one day Baladeva, angry with the Yamunā, dragged the Yamunā with His plough and pestle. When Mahāprabhu, in the mood of Baladeva, cried, "Bring honey, bring honey!", all the others at that moment were seeing that very pastime of dragging the Yamunā.

Anubhāṣya.
Baladeva went to Gokula and lived there in the months of Caitra and Vaiśākha surrounded by the gopīs. Having drunk vāruṇī, Baladeva called the Yamunā to come near so that he could sport in the water. (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 10.65.25–30, 33): "The Lord called the Yamunā for sport in the water. But the river disregarded his words, thinking him drunk, and did not come. Then Bala, angered, dragged her with the tip of his plough. 'Sinful one! Disregarding me, you do not come when I call. With the tip of my plough I will bring you here, split into a hundred streams, you willful one!' Thus rebuked, the frightened Yamunā, O king, trembling, fell at the feet of the delight of the Yadus and said: 'Rāma, Rāma, mighty-armed one! I did not know your might: by a single portion of it you uphold the earth, O lord of the universe. O Bhagavān, soul of the universe, lover of your devotees! Release me: I did not know the supreme nature of the Lord, and now I have surrendered to you.’ Then, being entreated, Lord Bala released the Yamunā and plunged into the water with the women, like the king of elephants with his she-elephants. Even today, O king, the channel along which the Yamunā was dragged can be seen; it seems to proclaim the might of Bala, whose power is unlimited.”

Candraśekhara Ācāryaratna sees the Lord in the form of Baladeva —

মদমত্ত-গতি বলদেব-অনুকার । আচার্য্য শেখর তাঁরে দেখে রামাকার ॥ ১১৮ ॥

mada-matta-gati baladeva-anukāra intoxicated gait Baladeva’s imitation
ācārya śekhara tāṅre dekhe rāmākāra
Ācārya Śekhara Him sees in Rāma’s form

118 He moved with an intoxicated gait, like Baladeva, and Ācārya Śekhara (Candraśekhara) saw Him in the form of Rāma.

Vanamālī Ācārya sees a golden plough in the Lord's hand —

বনমালী আচার্য্য দেখে সোনার লাঙ্গল । সবে মিলি’ নৃত্য করে আনন্দে বিহ্বল ॥ ১১৯ ॥

vanamālī ācārya dekhe sonāra lāṅgala Vanamālī Ācārya sees a golden plough
sabe mili’ nṛtya kare ānande vihvala
all together dancing do in bliss overwhelmed

119 Vanamālī Ācārya saw a golden plough, and all danced together, overwhelmed with bliss.

Anubhāṣya.

Caitanya-maṅgala, Madhya-khaṇḍa: “With him was his son, named Vanamālī. Born in a brāhmaṇa family, he lives in the eastern land, Vaṅga. He saw the Lord's body fashioned of gold, adorned with jewels, like the peak of Sumeru. In the guise of Halāyudha the Lord of the three worlds dances.” “Vanamālī Paṇḍita,” mentioned in Ādi 10.73, also saw the golden plough and pestle in the Lord's hands. That one has the title “Paṇḍita,” and this one the title “Ācārya”: are they one and the same person, or two different people?

A dance lasting twelve hours —

এইমত নৃত্য হইল চারি প্রহর । সন্ধ্যায় গঙ্গাস্নান করি’ সবে গেলা ঘর ॥ ১২০ ॥

ei-mata nṛtya haila cāri prahara
in this way dancing went on four praharas sandhyāya gaṅgā-snāna kari’ sabe gelā ghara
in the evening bathing in the Gaṅgā having done all went home

120 So the dancing went on for four praharas (twelve hours); in the evening everyone bathed in the Gaṅgā and went home.

*By the Lord's order, kīrtana of Kṛṣṇa in every home —*

নগরিয়া লোকে প্রভু যবে আজ্ঞা দিলা । ঘরে ঘরে সংকীর্ত্তন করিতে লাগিলা ॥ ১২১ ॥

nagariyā loke prabhu yabe ājñā dilā to the townspeople the Lord when an order gave ghare ghare saṁkīrtana karite lāgilā
in house after house saṅkīrtana to perform they began 121 When the Lord gave the townspeople His order, they began to perform saṅkīrtana in every house:

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

When preaching the name in the town, the Lord first ordered the townspeople who lived near Śrīvāsa's courtyard to chant the name of Hari while clapping their hands; gradually mṛdaṅgas, karatālas and the like began to be played. From then on saṅkīrtana has spread from door to door, and it continues to this day.

A song of the names —

‘হরি হরয়ে নমঃ, কৃষ্ণ যাদবায় নমঃ ।
গোপাল গোবিন্দ রাম শ্রীমধুসূদন’ ॥ ১২২ ॥

‘hari haraye namaḥ, kṛṣṇa yādavāya namaḥ
O Hari to Hari obeisance O Kṛṣṇa to Yādava obeisance
gopāla govinda rāma śrī-madhusūdana’
Gopāla Govinda Rāma Śrī Madhusūdana

122 “Hari haraye namaḥ, kṛṣṇa yādavāya namaḥ; gopāla govinda rāma śrī-madhusūdana!”

মৃদঙ্গ-করতাল সংকীর্ত্তন-মহাধ্বনি । ‘হরি’ ‘হরি’-ধ্বনি বিনা অন্য নাহি শুনি ॥ ১২৩ ॥

mṛdaṅga-karatāla saṁkīrtana-mahādhvani
mṛdaṅgas and karatālas the great sound of saṅkīrtana ‘hari’ ‘hari’-dhvani vinā anya nāhi śuni
‘Hari’ ‘Hari’ the sound except other not heard

123 With mṛdaṅgas and karatālas the sound of saṅkīrtana was tremendous; no sound was heard but “Hari! Hari!”

The yavanas and the Kāzī oppose the kīrtana —

শুনিয়া যে ক্রুদ্ধ হৈল সকল যবন । কাজী পাশে আসি’ সব কৈল নিবেদন ॥ ১২৪ ॥

śuniyā ye kruddha haila sakala yavana hearing that angry became all the Muslims
kājī pāśe āsi’ saba kaila nivedana
to the Kazi coming all made a complaint

124 Hearing it, all the Muslims grew angry; they went to the Kazi and lodged a complaint.

Anubhāṣya.

The townspeople's kīrtana of Kṛṣṇa, the Kāzī's anger, and the Kāzī's deliverance: see the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 23.

Kāzī: the phaujadāra (district magistrate), Chā̃d Kāzī. In former times the land tax was collected by the zamindars — rājās or maṇḍalas (village headmen). Punishment, administration and the like were in the hands of the kāzīs. Both zamindar and kāzī were subordinate to the subādāra, the governor of Subā Bāṅgālā. The parganās of Nadīyā, Islāmapura, Bāgoyāna and others then belonged to Hari Hoḍa or to his descendant Kṛṣṇadāsa Hoḍa. But although they owned the land, it was the Kāzī who had taken over the government. It is said that Chā̃d Kāzī was the guru of the Nawab of Bengal, “Husain Shah.” According to some, his other name was “Maulānā Sirājuddin”; others say “Habibar Rahamān.” His descendants still live in that place, and Chā̃d Kāzī's tomb also survives.

*The Kāzī breaks the khola —*

ক্রোধে সন্ধ্যাকালে কাজী এক ঘরে আইল । মৃদঙ্গ ভাঙ্গিয়া লোকে কহিতে লাগিল ॥ ১২৫ ॥

krodhe sandhyā-kāle kājī eka ghare āila
in anger in the evening the Kazi to one house came mṛdaṅga bhāṅgiyā loke kahite lāgila
a mṛdaṅga breaking to the people to speak he began

125 One evening the Kazi angrily came to a house, broke a mṛdaṅga and said to the people:

Anubhāṣya.
To this day in the village of Śrī Māyāpura there is a well-known piece of land called “Khol-bhāṅgār Ḍāṅgā” (“the mound where the khola was broken”).

*The Kazi opposes the kīrtana and forbids it —*

এতকাল প্রকটে কেহ না কৈল হিন্দুয়ানি । এবে যে উদ্যম চালাও, কার বল জানি’ ॥ ১২৬ ॥

eta-kāla prakaṭe keha nā kaila hinduyāni
till now openly anyone not practiced Hindu rites
ebe ye udyama cālāo, kāra bala jāni’
now this effort you push on whose strength I would know 126 “Till now no one practiced Hindu rites openly. Now you press on with this effort — on whose strength, I would like to know?

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
From the coming of Bakhtiyar Khilji up to the time of Cāṅd Kāzī, Hinduism in Navadvīpa had sunk into utter decline. Those who truly had faith in the Hindu religion would quietly say “Hari, Hari” once and then fall silent. That is why the Kazi said, “For so long Hinduism has not shown itself at all — by whose strength are you now undertaking such an effort?”

কেহ কীর্ত্তন না করিহ সকল নগরে । আজি আমি ক্ষমা করি’ যাইতেছোঁ ঘরে ॥ ১২৭ ॥

keha kīrtana nā kariha sakala nagare
anyone kīrtana not do in the whole town
āji āmi kṣamā kari’ yāitechoṅ ghare
today I forgiving am going home

127 No one in the whole town is to perform kīrtana. Today I forgive you and go home.

আর যদি কীর্ত্তন করিতে লাগ পাইমু । সর্ব্বস্ব দণ্ডিয়া তার জাতি যে লইমু ॥ ১২৮ ॥

āra yadi kīrtana karite lāga pāimu
again if kīrtana doing I catch (you)
sarvasva daṇḍiyā tāra jāti ye laimu
all property fining his caste indeed I will take 128 If I catch anyone performing kīrtana again, I will confiscate all he owns and take away his caste.”

The distressed good people come to the Lord with their complaint —

এত বলি’ কাজী গেল, — নগরিয়া লোক । প্রভু-স্থানে নিবেদিল পাঞা বড় শোক ॥ ১২৯ ॥

eta bali’ kājī gela, — nagariyā loka
so saying the Kazi left the townspeople
prabhu-sthāne nivedila pāñā baḍa śoka
to the Lord reported getting great grief

129 Saying this, the Kazi left, and the townspeople, deeply grieved, reported it to the Lord.

*The Lord grows angry and orders everyone to perform saṅkīrtana —*

প্রভু আজ্ঞা দিল — যাই’ করহ কীর্ত্তন । মুঞি সংহারিমু আজি সকল যবন ॥ ১৩০ ॥

prabhu ājñā dila — yāi’ karaha kīrtana
the Lord an order gave go do kīrtana
muñi saṁhārimu āji sakala yavana
I will destroy today all the Muslims

130 The Lord ordered: “Go and perform kīrtana! Today I shall destroy all the Muslims.”

ঘরে গিয়া সব লোক করয়ে কীর্ত্তন । কাজীর ভয়ে স্বচ্ছন্দ নহে, চমকিত মন ॥ ১৩১ ॥

ghare giyā saba loka karaye kīrtana
home going all people perform kīrtana
kājīra bhaye svacchanda nahe, camakita mana for fear of the Kazi at ease not startled their minds

131 Everyone went home and performed kīrtana, but out of fear of the Kazi they were not at ease; their minds were alarmed.

তা-সবার অন্তরে ভয় প্রভু মনে জানি’ । কহিতে লাগিলা লোকে শীঘ্র ডাকি’ আনি’ ॥ ১৩২ ॥

tā-sabāra antare bhaya prabhu mane jāni’
in all their hearts fear the Lord in His mind knowing kahite lāgilā loke śīghra ḍāki’ āni’
to speak began to the people quickly calling bringing

132 Knowing the fear in their hearts, the Lord quickly called the people together and said:

নগরে নগরে আজি করিমু কীর্ত্তন । সন্ধ্যাকালে কর সভে নগর-মণ্ডন ॥ ১৩৩ ॥

nagare nagare āji karimu kīrtana
through every part of the town today I shall do kīrtana
sandhyā-kāle kara sabhe nagara-maṇḍana
in the evening make all of you of the town decoration

133 “Today I shall perform kīrtana through every part of the town. In the evening, all of you, decorate the town.

সন্ধ্যাতে দেউটি সবে জ্বাল ঘরে ঘরে । দেখ, কোন্ কাজী আসি’ মোরে মানা করে ॥ ১৩৪ ॥

sandhyāte deuṭi sabe jvāla ghare ghare
in the evening lamps all light in every house
dekha, kon kājī āsi’ more mānā kare
see what Kazi coming Me stops

134 In the evening light lamps in every house. We shall see what Kazi comes to stop Me!”

এত কহি’ সন্ধ্যাকালে চলে গৌররায় । কীর্ত্তনের কৈল প্রভু তিন সম্প্রদায় ॥ ১৩৫ ॥

eta kahi’ sandhyākāle cale gaurarāya
so saying in the evening set out Gaurarāya
kīrtanera kaila prabhu tina sampradāya
of kīrtana formed the Lord three groups

135 Saying this, in the evening Gaurarāya set out. The Lord formed three groups of kīrtana.

*The kīrtana is divided into three groups —*

আগে সম্প্রদায়ে নৃত্য করে হরিদাস । মধ্যে নাচে আচার্য্য-গোসাঞি পরম উল্লাস ॥ ১৩৬ ॥

āge sampradāye nṛtya kare haridāsa
in the front group dancing does Haridāsa
madhye nāce ācārya-gosāñi parama ullāsa
in the middle dances Ācārya Gosāñi in supreme joy

136 In the front group Haridāsa danced; in the middle Ācārya Gosāñi danced in supreme joy.

পাছে সম্প্রদায়ে নৃত্য করে গৌরচন্দ্র । তাঁর সঙ্গে নাচি’ বুলে প্রভু নিত্যানন্দ ॥ ১৩৭ ॥

pāche sampradāye nṛtya kare gauracandra
in the last group dancing does Gauracandra
tāṅra saṅge nāci’ bule prabhu nityānanda
with Him dancing moves Prabhu Nityānanda

137 In the last group Gauracandra danced, and Nityānanda Prabhu moved along dancing with Him.

বৃন্দাবন দাস ইহা ‘চৈতন্যমঙ্গলে’ ।
বিস্তারি’ বর্ণিয়াছেন চৈতন্য-কৃপাবলে ॥ ১৩৮ ॥

vṛndāvana dāsa ihā ‘caitanya-maṅgale’
Vṛndāvana dāsa this in the Caitanya-maṅgala
vistāri’ varṇiyāchena caitanya-kṛpā-bale
in detail has described by the power of Caitanya’s mercy

138 Vṛndāvana dāsa has described this in detail in the Caitanya-maṅgala by the power of Caitanya’s mercy.

*Singing kīrtana, He goes around the town of Navadvīpa —*

এই মত কীর্ত্তন করি’ নগরে ভ্রমিলা ৷ ভ্রমিতে ভ্রমিতে প্রভু কাজীদ্বারে গেলা ॥ ১৩৯ ॥

ei mata kīrtana kari’ nagare bhramilā
in this way kīrtana performing through the town they wandered bhramite bhramite prabhu kājī-dvāre gelā wandering on the Lord to the Kazi’s door came 139 Performing kīrtana in this way, they wandered through the town, and wandering on, the Lord came to the Kazi’s door.

Anubhāṣya.
The Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 23: “May my mind cling to Your feet, (O Śārṅgadhara,) may my mind cling to Your feet! This is Caitanyacandra's first saṅkīrtana: the devotees sing, and Śrī Śacīnandana dances. In Nadīyā a road runs along the bank of the Gaṅgā, and along that road, ahead of all, Gaurarāya goes dancing. First Gaurahari danced a long while at His own ghāṭa, and then He went on to Mādhāi's ghāṭa. ‘Viśvambhara, the Lord of all, dances along the banks of the Bhāgīrathī’ (refrain). Reaching Bārakoṇā Ghāṭa and Nāgariyā Ghāṭa, the Lord passed through Gaṅgānagara and came to Simuliyā. At the edge of Nadīyā lies the settlement of Simuliyā, and there the Lord arrived, dancing all the way. Then the Ṭhākura took the road to the Kazi's house, and dancing He came to the Kazi's quarter.”

তর্জ্জ-গর্জ্জ করে লোক, করে কোলাহল ৷ গৌরচন্দ্র-বলে লোক প্রশ্রয়-পাগল ॥ ১৪০ ॥

tarja-garja kare loka, kare kolāhala
growling and roaring make the people make an uproar gauracandra-bale loka praśraya-pāgala
by Gauracandra’s strength the people emboldened and wild

140 The people growled and roared and raised an uproar; emboldened by Gauracandra’s strength, they were wild.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
Then, by the strength of Śrī Śrī Gauracandra, the people grew bold and went almost mad.

The Kazi hides —

কীর্ত্তনের ধ্বনিতে কাজী লুকাইল ঘরে।
তর্জ্জন গর্জ্জন শুনি’ না হয় বাহিরে ॥ ১৪১ ॥

kīrtanera dhvanite kājī lukāila ghare
at the sound of the kīrtana the Kazi hid in the house
tarjana garjana śuni’ nā haya bāhire
the growling roaring hearing not comes outside

141 At the sound of the kīrtana the Kazi hid in his house; hearing the growling and roaring, he would not come out.

The rowdy people run riot —

উদ্ধত লোক ভাঙ্গে কাজীর ঘর-পুষ্পবন।
বিস্তারি’ বর্ণিলা ইহা দাস-বৃন্দাবন ॥ ১৪২ ॥

uddhata loka bhāṅge kājīra ghara-puṣpavana unruly people break of the Kazi house and flower garden
vistāri’ varṇilā ihā dāsa-vṛndāvana
in detail has described this dāsa Vṛndāvana

142 Unruly people wrecked the Kazi’s house and flower garden. Vṛndāvana dāsa has described this in detail.

Anubhāṣya.

See the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 23.

The Kazi is called out through respectable good men —

তবে মহাপ্রভু তার দ্বারেতে বসিলা ৷ ভব্যলোক পাঠাইয়া কাজীরে বোলাইলা ॥ ১৪৩ ॥

tabe mahāprabhu tāra dvārete vasilā
then Mahāprabhu at his door sat down
bhavya-loka pāṭhāiyā kājīre bolāilā respectable people sending the Kazi He had called 143 Then Mahāprabhu sat down at his door and sent respectable men to call the Kazi.

The Lord honors the Kazi according to worldly custom —

দূর হইতে আইলা কাজী মাথা নোঙাইয়া ৷ কাজীরে বসাইলা প্রভু সম্মান করিয়া ॥ ১৪৪ ॥

dūra haite āilā kājī māthā noṅāiyā
from a distance came the Kazi his head bowing kājīre vasāilā prabhu sammāna kariyā
the Kazi had seated the Lord honor showing

144 The Kazi came from a distance with his head bowed. The Lord received him with honor and had him sit down.

The Lord expresses surprise at the Kazi's behavior —

প্রভু বলেন, — আমি তোমার আইলাম অভ্যাগত ৷ আমা দেখি’ লুকাইলা, — এ-ধর্ম্ম কেমত ॥ ১৪৫ ॥

prabhu balena, — āmi tomāra āilāma abhyāgata
the Lord says I your have come guest āmā dekhi’ lukāilā, — e-dharma kemata
Me seeing you hid this etiquette what kind

145 The Lord said: “I have come to you as a guest, yet seeing Me, you hid. What kind of etiquette is this?”

The Kazi's reply —

কাজী কহে, — তুমি আইস ক্রুদ্ধ হইয়া ।
তোমা শান্ত করাইতে রহিনু লুকাইয়া ॥ ১৪৬ ॥

kājī kahe, — tumi āisa kruddha haiyā
the Kazi says You came angry being tomā śānta karāite rahinu lukāiyā
You calm to let become I stayed hidden

146 The Kazi said: “You came in anger. I stayed hidden so that You might grow calm.

এবে তুমি শান্ত হৈলে, আসি’ মিলিলাঙ্ । ভাগ্য মোর, — তুমি-হেন অতিথি পাইলাঙ ॥ ১৪৭ ॥

ebe tumi śānta haile, āsi’ mililāṅ
now You calm have become coming I have met (You)
bhāgya mora, — tumi-hena atithi pāilāṅ
fortune my You-like a guest I have received

147 Now that You are calm, I have come to meet You. How fortunate I am to have such a guest as You!

গ্রামসম্বন্ধে ‘চক্রবর্ত্তী’ হয় মোর চাচা । দেহ-সম্বন্ধ হৈতে গ্রাম-সম্বন্ধ সাঁচা ॥ ১৪৮ ॥

grāma-sambandha ‘cakravartī’ haya mora cācā
by village relation ‘Cakravartī’ is my uncle
deha-sambandhe haite grāma-sambandha sāṅcā
blood relation than village relation is stronger

148 By village relationship Cakravartī is my uncle, and a village relationship is stronger than a blood relationship.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

In one part of the village of Brāhmaṇa-puṣkariṇī the old house of the Kazis still stands. Joined to the other part of that village is Tāraṇavāsa, formerly Bilva-puṣkariṇī. That village and the Kazis' Brāhmaṇa-puṣkariṇī were one and the same village, and so Mahāprabhu stood to Cāṅd Kāzī in the relation of a sister's son to a maternal uncle.

Anubhāṣya.

Cakravartī — Nīlāmbara Cakravartī. Cācā — a father's brother, an uncle; in colloquial speech, kākā. Sāc̃ā — genuine, pure, true (saccā).

নীলাম্বর চক্রবর্ত্তী হয় তোমার নানা ৷ সে সম্বন্ধে হও তুমি আমার ভাগিনা ॥ ১৪৯ ॥

nīlāmbara cakravartī haya tomāra nānā Nīlāmbara Cakravartī is Your maternal grandfather se sambandhe hao tumi āmāra bhāginā
by that relation are You my nephew

149 Nīlāmbara Cakravartī is Your maternal grandfather; by that relationship You are my nephew.

Anubhāṣya.

Nānā — maternal grandfather.

ভাগিনার ক্রোধ মামা অবশ্য সহয় ৷ মাতুলের অপরাধ ভাগিনা না লয় ॥ ১৫০ ॥

bhāginārа krodha māmā avaśya sahaya
of a nephew the anger an uncle surely tolerates mātulera aparādha bhāginā nā laya
of the uncle the offense the nephew not takes

150 An uncle surely tolerates his nephew’s anger, and a nephew does not take offense at his uncle.”

এই মত দুঁহার কথা হয় ঠারে-ঠোরে ৷ ভিতরের অর্থ কেহ বুঝিতে না পারে ॥ ১৫১ ॥

ei mata duṅhāra kathā haya ṭhāre-ṭhore
in this way of the two the talk was in hints and allusions bhitarera artha keha bujhite nā pāre
the inner meaning anyone to understand not could

151 So the two spoke in hints and allusions, and no one could understand the inner meaning.

The Lord's words and the Kazi's reply —

প্রভু কহে, — প্রশ্ন লাগি’ আইলাম তোমার স্থানে ৷ কাজী কহে, — আজ্ঞা কর, যে তোমার মনে ॥ ১৫২ ॥

prabhu kahe, — praśna lāgi’ āilāma tomāra sthāne
the Lord says questions for I have come to your place
kājī kahe, — ājñā kara, ye tomāra mane
the Kazi says command what in Your mind

152 The Lord said, “I have come to you to ask some questions.” The Kazi said, “Command me — ask whatever is in Your mind.”

The Lord asks about the customs of Islam —

প্রভু কহে, — গোদুগ্ধ খাও, গাভী তোমার মাতা ৷ বৃষ অন্ন উপজায়, তাতে তেঁহো পিতা ॥ ১৫৩ ॥

prabhu kahe, — go-dugdha khāo, gābhī tomāra mātā
the Lord says cow’s milk you drink the cow your mother
vṛṣa anna upajāya, tāte teṅho pitā
the bull grain produces so he father

153 The Lord said: “You drink cow’s milk, so the cow is your mother; the bull produces grain, so he is your father.

Anubhāṣya.

Anna upajāya (“produces grain”): the bull draws the plow and prepares the field for sowing and planting rice and other crops. In this way he gives the farmer the chief help in producing seed, grain and rice.

পিতা-মাতা মারি’ খাও — এবা কোন্ ধর্ম্ম । কোন্ বলে কর তুমি এমত বিকর্ম্ম ॥ ১৫৪ ॥

pitā-mātā māri’ khāo — ebā kon dharma
father and mother killing you eat this what religion
kon bale kara tumi e-mata vikarma
by what authority do you such a sinful act

154 You kill and eat your father and mother — what kind of religion is that? On what authority do you commit such a sinful act?”

Anubhāṣya.
Ebā — “this,” “or this.”

The Kazi's words —

কাজী কহে, — তোমার যৈছে বেদ-পুরাণ । তৈছে আমার শাস্ত্র — কেতাব ‘কোরাণ’ ॥ ১৫৫ ॥

kājī kahe, — tomāra yaiche veda-purāṇa
the Kazi says Your as the Vedas and Purāṇas taiche āmāra śāstra — ketāva ‘korāṇa’
so our scripture the book the Korān

155 The Kazi said: “As You have the Vedas and Purāṇas, so we have our scripture, the book called the Korān.

Anubhāṣya.
Ketāba — a book.

সেই শাস্ত্রে কহে, — প্রবৃত্তি-নিবৃত্তি-মার্গ-ভেদ । নিবৃত্তি-মার্গে জীবমাত্র-বধের নিষেধ ॥ ১৫৬ ॥

sei śāstre kahe, — pravṛtti-nivṛtti-mārga-bheda
that scripture says of engagement and renunciation the paths the distinction
nivṛtti-mārge jīva-mātra-vadhera niṣedha
on the path of renunciation of any living being killing is forbidden

156 That scripture distinguishes two paths: engagement in the world (pravṛtti) and renunciation (nivṛtti). On the path of renunciation the killing of any living being is forbidden.

Anubhāṣya.
Śarīʿat, ṭarīqat and maʿrifat — three kinds of path.

প্রবৃত্তি-মার্গে গোবধ করিতে বিধি হয় । শাস্ত্র-আজ্ঞায় বধ কৈলে নাহি পাপ-ভয় ॥ ১৫৭ ॥

pravṛtti-mārge go-vadha karite vidhi haya on the path of engagement cow-killing to do an injunction there is śāstra-ājñāya vadha kaile nāhi pāpa-bhaya
by scriptural order killing if done no fear of sin

157 On the path of engagement there is an injunction to kill cows, and if the killing is done by scriptural order, there is no fear of sin.

তোমার বেদেতে আছে গোবধের বাণী । অতএব গোবধ করে বড় বড় মুনি ॥ ১৫৮ ॥

tomāra vedete āche go-vadhera vāṇī
Your in the Vedas there are of cow-killing words
ataeva go-vadha kare baḍa baḍa muni
therefore cow-killing did great sages

158 Your Vedas too speak of killing cows; that is why great sages killed cows.”

The killing enjoined by the Vedas is justified because the animal regains its life

প্রভু কহে, — বেদে কহে গোবধ নিষেধ । অতএব হিন্দুমাত্র না করে গোবধ ॥ ১৫৯ ॥

prabhu kahe, — vede kahe go-vadha niṣedha
the Lord says the Vedas say cow-killing forbidden
ataeva hindu-mātra nā kare go-vadha
therefore any Hindu not does cow-killing

159 The Lord said: “The Vedas forbid the killing of cows; that is why no Hindu kills a cow.

জিয়াইতে পারে যদি, তবে মারে প্রাণী । বেদ-পুরাণে আছে হেন আজ্ঞা-বাণী ॥ ১৬০ ॥

jiyāite pāre yadi, tabe māre prāṇī
to revive he can if then he kills a living being veda-purāṇe āche hena ājñā-vāṇī
in the Vedas and Purāṇas there is such an injunction

160 One may kill a living being only if one can bring it back to life; there is such an injunction in the Vedas and Purāṇas.

অতএব ‘জরদ্গব’ মারে মুনিগণ । বেদমন্ত্রে সিদ্ধ করে তাহার জীবন ॥ ১৬১ ॥

ataeva ‘jarad-gava’ māre muni-gaṇa
therefore an old cow killed the sages
veda-mantre siddha kare tāhāra jīvana
by Vedic mantras perfect made its life

161 So the sages would kill an old cow and by Vedic mantras make its life perfect again.

জরদ্গব হঞা যুবা হয় আর বার । তাতে তার বধ নহে, হয় উপকার ॥ ১৬২ ॥

jarad-gava hañā yuvā haya āra vāra
an old cow being young becomes once more tāte tāra vadha nahe, haya upakāra
so its killing not is a benefit

162 The old cow became young once more; so for it this was not killing but a benefit.

The brāhmaṇas born in the age of Kali have no such power —

কলিকালে তৈছে শক্তি নাহিক ব্রাহ্মণে । অতএব গোবধ কেহ না করে এখনে ॥ ১৬৩ ॥

kali-kāle taiche śakti nāhika brāhmaṇe
in the age of Kali such power there is not in brāhmaṇas
ataeva go-vadha keha nā kare ekhane
therefore cow-killing anyone not does now

163 In the age of Kali brāhmaṇas have no such power; therefore no one kills cows now.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
(The Kazi said:) That scripture, the Koran, distinguishes two kinds of path: pravṛtti (the path of engagement) and nivṛtti (the path of renunciation). On the path of nivṛtti killing living beings is forbidden. But those who, like us, follow the path of pravṛtti do not become sinners if they kill cows by the order of scripture. And look at your Vedas: they contain injunctions to kill cows, and that is why great sages have killed cows from time immemorial.

Mahāprabhu said: The Vedas contain no injunction to kill cows. The statements about sacrifice performed by killing a cow that one does find in them concern the jaradgava, that is, a very old cow. The sages would kill a jaradgava and then, by Vedic mantras, bring it back to life in a youthful body. Such killing is no killing at all; it is only a kindness to the old cow. Since the brāhmaṇas of Kali have no such power, cows may not be killed now.

*(Brahma-vaivarta Purāṇa, Kṛṣṇa-janma-khaṇḍa, Chapter 185, verse 180;*

cited in the Malamāsa-tattva)

অশ্বমেধং গবালম্ভং সন্ন্যাসং পলপৈতৃকম্ ।
দেবরেণ সুতোৎপত্তিং কলৌ পঞ্চ বিবর্জ্জয়েৎ ॥ ১৬৪ ॥

aśvamedhaṁ gavālambhaṁ
the horse sacrifice the sacrifice of a cow
sannyāsaṁ pala-paitṛkam
sannyāsa the offering of flesh to the forefathers
devareṇa sutotpattiṁ
by a husband’s brother the begetting of a son
kalau pañca vivarjayet
in Kali these five one should give up

164 “In the age of Kali one should give up five things: the horse sacrifice, the sacrifice of a cow, sannyāsa, the offering of flesh to the forefathers, and begetting a son by a husband’s brother.” (Brahma-vaivarta Purāṇa, Kṛṣṇa-janma-khaṇḍa 185.180)

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

The aśvamedha, the gomedha, sannyāsa, a śrāddha to the forefathers with meat, and begetting a son by the husband's brother — these five are forbidden in the age of Kali.

Anubhāṣya.

aśvamedhaṁ (a particular sacrifice in which a horse is killed) gavālambhaṁ (the gomedha) sannyāsaṁ (entering the fourth āśrama) pala-paitṛkam (a śrāddha to the forefathers with meat) devareṇa (by the husband's younger brother) sutotpattiṁ (begetting a son) — (these) pañca kalau (in the Kali-yuga) vivarjayet (one should give up).

The Lord examines the customs of Islam —

তোমরা জীয়াইতে নার, — বধমাত্র সার । নরক হইতে তোমার নাহিক নিস্তার ॥ ১৬৫ ॥

tomarā jīyāite nāra, — vadha-mātra sāra
you   to revive   cannot   killing alone   the essence naraka haite tomāra nāhika nistāra
from hell   your   there is no   deliverance

165 You cannot bring them back to life; killing is all you do. There is no deliverance from hell for you.

গো-অঙ্গে যত লোম, তত সহস্র বৎসর । গোবধী রৌরব-মধ্যে পচে নিরন্তর ॥ ১৬৬ ॥

go-aṅge yata loma, tata sahasra vatsara
on a cow’s body   as many   hairs   so many   thousands of   years go-vadhī raurava-madhye pace nirantara
a cow-killer   in Raurava   rots   incessantly

166 One who kills a cow rots in the hell Raurava for as many thousands of years as there are hairs on the cow’s body.

তোমা-সবার শাস্ত্রকর্ত্তা — সেহ ভ্রান্ত হৈল । না জানি’ শাস্ত্রের মর্ম্ম ঐছে আজ্ঞা দিল ॥ ১৬৭ ॥

tomā-sabāra śāstrakartā — seha bhrānta haila of you all   the scripture’s compiler   he too   mistaken   was nā jāni’ śāstrera marma aiche ājñā dila not   knowing   of scripture   the heart   such   an order   he gave 167 The compiler of your scripture was mistaken too: not knowing the heart of scripture, he gave such an order.”

Anubhāṣya.

Bhrānta (mistaken): because he approved of needless violence to living beings, his absorption in a “second” (dvitīyābhiniveśa) left his understanding perverted, that is, confused.

The Kazi has no answer and admits that his scripture is incomplete —

শুনি’ স্তব্ধ হৈল কাজী, নাহি স্ফুরে বাণী । বিচারিয়া কহে কাজী পরাভব মানি’ ॥ ১৬৮ ॥

śuni’ stabdha haila kājī, nāhi sphure vāṇī hearing stunned became the Kazi not come words
vicāriyā kahe kājī parābhava māni’ reflecting says the Kazi defeat admitting

168 Hearing this, the Kazi was stunned and could find no words. After reflecting, he admitted defeat and said:

তুমি যে কহিলে, পণ্ডিত, সেই সত্য হয় । আধুনিক আমার শাস্ত্র, বিচার-সহ নয় ॥ ১৬৯ ॥

tumi ye kahile, paṇḍita, sei satya haya
You what have said Paṇḍita that true is ādhunika āmāra śāstra, vicāra-saha naya recent our scripture scrutiny-bearing not 169 “What You have said, Paṇḍita, is true. Our scripture is recent and cannot bear scrutiny.

Anubhāṣya.

Ādhunika (recent) — new, arisen within time; it is not apauruṣeya (not of human authorship) like the Veda.

Vicāra-saha naya (does not withstand scrutiny): since it does not establish the eternal, real truth, it is easily refuted by reasoning.

কল্পিত আমার শাস্ত্র, — আমি সব জানি । জাতি-অনুরোধে তবু সেই শাস্ত্র মানি ॥ ১৭০ ॥

kalpita āmāra śāstra, — āmi saba jāni invented our scripture I all know
jāti-anurodhe tabu sei śāstra māni out of regard for my community yet that scripture I accept 170 Our scripture is invented — I know all this. Yet out of regard for my community I accept it.

Anubhāṣya.
Kalpita (invented) — born of mental speculation, and therefore not eternal truth.
Jāti — one's community and loyalty to it.

সহজে যবন শাস্ত্রে অদৃঢ় বিচার । হাসি’ তাহে মহাপ্রভু পুছেন আর বার ॥ ১৭১ ॥

sahaje yavana śāstre adṛḍha vicāra
by nature in the Muslims’ scripture unsound reasoning
hāsi’ tāhe mahāprabhu puchena āra vāra smiling at that Mahāprabhu asks once more 171 By its very nature, the reasoning in the Muslims’ scripture is unsound.” Smiling at this, Mahāprabhu asked him once more:

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

The scriptures of the yavanas are of three kinds: the old book of the “Yu” (the Jews), the Koran and the Bible. All these books have a beginning; none of them is beginningless like the words of the Veda. Therefore, since the reasoning in those scriptures has no firm root, it is open to doubt.

Anubhāṣya.
Adṛḍha vicāra (unsound reasoning) — reasoning that can be cut through, that is, refuted, by argument.

The Lord asks again —

আর এক প্রশ্ন করি, শুন, তুমি মামা । যথার্থ কহিবে, ছলে না বঞ্চিবে আমা’ ॥ ১৭২ ॥

āra eka praśna kari, śuna, tumi māmā
another one question I ask listen you uncle yathārtha kahibe, chale nā vañcibe āmā’
truthfully you will say by tricks not you will deceive Me

172 “I have one more question; listen, uncle. Answer truthfully and do not deceive Me with tricks.

তোমার নগরে হয় সদা সংকীর্ত্তন । বাদ্যগীত-কোলাহল, সঙ্গীত, নর্ত্তন ॥ ১৭৩ ॥

tomāra nagare haya sadā saṁkīrtana
in your town there is always saṅkīrtana vādya-gīta-kolāhala, saṅgīta, nartana
a tumult of instruments and songs music dancing

173 In your town there is always saṅkīrtana — a tumult of instruments and songs, music and dancing.

তুমি কাজী, — হিন্দু-ধর্ম্ম-বিরোধে অধিকারী । এবে যে না কর মানা বুঝিতে না পারি ॥ ১৭৪ ॥

tumi kājī, — hindu-dharma-virodhe adhikārī
you the Kazi to oppose Hindu religion have authority
ebe ye nā kara mānā bujhite nā pāri now that not you do stop to understand not I can

174 You are the Kazi, with authority to oppose Hindu practices. Why you do not stop it now, I cannot understand.”

In answer the Kazi tells of his dream —

কাজী বলে, — সবে তোমায় বলে ‘গৌরহরি’ । সেই নামে আমি তোমায় সম্বোধন করি ॥ ১৭৫ ॥

kājī bale, — sabe tomāya bale ‘gaurahari’
the Kazi says all You call ‘Gaurahari’ sei nāme āmi tomāya sambodhana kari
by that name I You address make

175 The Kazi said: “Everyone calls You Gaurahari, so by that name I shall address You.

শুন, গৌরহরি, এই প্রশ্নের কারণ । নিভৃত হও যদি, তবে করি নিবেদন ॥ ১৭৬ ॥

śuna, gaurahari, ei praśnera kāraṇa
listen Gaurahari of this question the reason nibhṛta hao yadi, tabe kari nivedana alone we are if then I make submission

176 Listen, Gaurahari: if we are alone, I shall tell You the reason in answer to this question.”

The Lord reassures him —

প্রভু বলে, — এ লোক আমার অন্তরঙ্গ হয় । স্ফুট করি’ কহ তুমি, না করিহ ভয় ॥ ১৭৭ ॥

prabhu bale, — e loka āmāra antaraṅga haya
the Lord says these people My intimates are sphuṭa kari’ kaha tumi, nā kariha bhaya plainly making speak you not have fear

177 The Lord said: “These people are My intimate associates. Speak openly and do not be afraid.”

Anubhāṣya.
Sphuṭa — clearly.

In a dream Śrī Nṛsiṁhadeva terrifies him —

কাজী কহে, — যবে আমি হিন্দুর ঘরে গিয়া ।
কীর্ত্তন করিলুঁ মানা মৃদঙ্গ ভাঙ্গিয়া ॥ ১৭৮ ॥

সেই রাত্রে এক সিংহ মহা ভয়ঙ্কর । নরদেহ, সিংহমুখ, গর্জ্জয়ে বিস্তর ॥ ১৭৯ ॥

kājī kahe, — yabe āmi hindura ghare giyā
the Kazi says when I a Hindu’s house going kīrtana kariluṅ mānā mṛdaṅga bhāṅgiyā
the kīrtana made forbidden a mṛdaṅga breaking sei rātre eka siṁha mahā bhayaṅkara
that night a lion greatly terrifying nara-deha, siṁha-mukha, garjaye vistara
a man’s body a lion’s face roars loudly

178–179 The Kazi said: “When I went to a Hindu’s house, broke a mṛdaṅga and forbade the kīrtana, that night a most terrifying lion came, with a human body and a lion’s face, roaring loudly.

Anubhāṣya.
Nara-deha, siṁha-mukha (a human body and a lion's face) — Śrī Nṛsiṁhadeva. He destroys enmity toward the devotees, toward devotion and toward Bhagavān, and destroys those who bear such enmity.

শয়নে আমার উপর লাফ দিয়া চড়ি’ । অট্ট অট্ট হাসে, করে দন্ত-কড়মড়ি ॥ ১৮০ ॥

śayane āmāra upara lāpha diyā caḍi’
in bed me upon leaping climbing
aṭṭa aṭṭa hāse, kare danta-kaḍamaḍi fiercely fiercely laughs makes gnashing of teeth

180 As I lay in bed, it leapt up onto me, laughing fiercely and gnashing its teeth.

মোর বুকে নখ দিয়া ঘোর-স্বরে বলে । ফাড়িমু তোমার বুক মৃদঙ্গ বদলে ॥ ১৮১ ॥

mora buke nakha diyā ghora-svare bale
my on the chest claws setting in a dreadful voice says
phāḍimu tomāra buka mṛdaṅga badale
I will tear open your chest the mṛdaṅga in exchange for 181 Setting its claws on my chest, it said in a dreadful voice: ‘I will tear open your chest in return for the mṛdaṅga!

Anubhāṣya.
Phāḍimu — I will tear apart.

মোর কীর্ত্তন মানা করিস্, করিমু তোর ক্ষয় ।
আঁখি মুদি’ কাঁপি আমি পাঞা বড় ভয় ॥ ১৮২ ॥

mora kīrtana mānā karis, karimu tora kṣaya
My kīrtana forbidden you make I will make your destruction
āṅkhi mudi’ kāṅpi āmi pāñā baḍa bhaya
eyes closing tremble I getting great fear

182 You forbid My kīrtana — I will destroy you!’ I shut my eyes and trembled in great fear.

ভীত দেখি’ সিংহ বলে হইয়া সদয় । তোরে শিক্ষা দিতে কৈলু তোর পরাজয় ॥ ১৮৩ ॥

bhīta dekhi’ siṁha bale haiyā sadaya afraid seeing the lion says becoming kind tore śikṣā dite kailu tora parājaya
you a lesson to give I made your defeat

183 Seeing me afraid, the lion grew kind and said: ‘I have defeated you only to teach you a lesson.

সে দিন বহুত নাহি কৈলি উৎপাত । তেঞি ক্ষমা করি’ না করিনু প্রাণাঘাত ॥ ১৮৪ ॥

se dina bahuta nāhi kaili utpāta
that day much not you made trouble
teñi kṣamā kari’ nā karinu prāṇāghāta
therefore forgiving not I did taking of life

184 That day you did not cause much trouble, so I forgive you and have not taken your life.

ঐছে যদি পুনঃ কর, তবে না সহিমু । সবংশে তোমারে আর যবন নাশিমু ॥ ১৮৫ ॥

aiche yadi punaḥ kara, tabe nā sahimu
such if again you do then not I will tolerate savaṁśe tomāre āra yavana nāśimu
with your family you and the Muslims I will destroy

185 If you do such a thing again, I will not tolerate it: I will destroy you with your whole family, and the Muslims too.'

এত কহি' সিংহ গেল, আমার হৈল ভয় । এই দেখ, নখচিহ্ন আমার হৃদয় ॥ ১৮৬ ॥

eta kahi' siṁha gela, āmāra haila bhaya
so saying the lion went my was fear ei dekha, nakha-cihna āmāra hṛdaya
here see claw marks my chest

186 Saying this, the lion went away, and I was left in fear. Look — here are the marks of its claws on my chest!"

এত বলি' কাজী নিজ-বুক দেখাইল । শুনি' দেখি' সর্ব্বলোক আশ্চর্য্য মানিল ॥ ১৮৭ ॥

eta bali' kājī nija-buka dekhāila
so saying the Kazi his own chest showed śuni' dekhi' sarva-loka āścarya mānila hearing seeing all people wonder felt

187 Saying this, the Kazi showed his chest. Hearing his words and seeing the marks, everyone was amazed.

কাজী কহে, — ইহা আমি কারে না কহিল। সেই দিন এক আমার পিয়াদা আইল ॥ ১৮৮ ॥

kājī kahe, — ihā āmi kāre nā kahila
the Kazi says this I to anyone not told sei dina eka āmāra piyādā āila that day a my constable came 188 The Kazi said: “I have told this to no one. That same day one of my constables came to me

Anubhāṣya.
Piyādā — a servant of low rank, a carrier of news or letters; in colloquial speech, a cāprāsī.

আসি’ কহে, — গেলুঁ মুঞি কীর্ত্তন নিষেধিতে। অগ্নি উল্কা মোর মুখে লাগে আচম্বিতে ॥ ১৮৯ ॥

āsi’ kahe, — geluṅ muñi kīrtana niṣedhite coming says went I the kīrtana to forbid
agni ulkā mora mukhe lāge ācambite
a firebrand my on the face struck suddenly

189 and said: ‘I went to forbid the kīrtana, and suddenly a firebrand struck my face.

পুড়িল সকল দাড়ি, মুখে হৈল ব্রণ। যেই পেয়াদা যায়, তার এই বিবরণ ॥ ১৯০ ॥ puḍila sakala dāḍi, mukhe haila vraṇa

burned all my beard on the face were blisters yei peyādā yāya, tāra ei vivaraṇa
whatever constable goes his this account

190 My whole beard was burned, and my face was blistered.’ Every constable who went told the same story.

তাহা দেখি’ রহিনু মুঞি মহাভয় পাঞা ।
কীর্ত্তন না বর্জ্জিয়া ঘরে রহোঁ ত’ বসিয়া ॥ ১৯১ ॥

tāhā dekhi’ rahinu muñi mahā-bhaya pāñā that seeing stayed I great fear getting kīrtana nā varjiyā ghare rahoṅ ta’ vasiyā
the kīrtana not forbidding at home I stay indeed sitting 191 Seeing this, I was seized with great fear; I no longer forbid the kīrtana, but stay sitting at home.

তবে ত’ নগরে হইবে স্বচ্ছন্দে কীর্ত্তন ।
শুনি’ সব ম্লেচ্ছ আসি’ কৈল নিবেদন ॥ ১৯২ ॥

tabe ta’ nagare haibe svacchande kīrtana
then indeed in the town would be freely kīrtana
śuni’ saba mleccha āsi’ kaila nivedana
hearing all the mlecchas coming made a complaint

192 Then kīrtana could go on freely in the town. Hearing of it, all the mlecchas (Muslims) came and complained:

Anubhāṣya.
Mleccha: “One who eats beef, speaks much against [scripture] and is devoid of all proper conduct is called a mleccha.”

নগরে হিন্দুর ধর্ম্ম বাড়িল অপার । ‘হরি’ ‘হরি’ ধ্বনি বই নাহি শুনি আর ॥ ১৯৩ ॥

nagare hindura dharma bāḍila apāra
in the town of the Hindus religion has grown boundlessly ‘hari’ ‘hari’ dhvani bai nāhi śuni āra
‘Hari’ ‘Hari’ sound except not we hear other

193 ‘The Hindus’ religion has grown beyond bounds in the town; we hear no sound but “Hari! Hari!”’

আর ম্লেচ্ছ কহে, — হিন্দু ‘কৃষ্ণ’ ‘কৃষ্ণ’ বলি’ ।
হাসে, কান্দে, নাচে, গায়, গড়ি’ যায় ধূলি ॥ ১৯৪ ॥

āra mleccha kahe, — hindu ‘kṛṣṇa’ ‘kṛṣṇa’ bali’
another mleccha says the Hindus ‘Kṛṣṇa’ ‘Kṛṣṇa’ saying hāse, kānde, nāce, gāya, gaḍi’ yāya dhūli
laugh weep dance sing rolling go in the dust

194 Another mleccha said: ‘The Hindus cry “Kṛṣṇa! Kṛṣṇa!” — they laugh, weep, dance, sing and roll in the dust.

‘হরি’ ‘হরি’ করি’ হিন্দু করে কোলাহল ।
পাতসাহ শুনিলে তোমার করিবেক ফল ॥ ১৯৫ ॥

‘hari’ ‘hari’ kari’ hindu kare kolāhala
‘Hari’ ‘Hari’ saying the Hindus make an uproar pātasāha śunile tomāra karibeka phala
the king if he hears your will make punishment

195 Crying “Hari! Hari!” the Hindus raise an uproar. If the king hears of it, he will punish you.’

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
Even though the Pādśāh is your relative, he can punish you. The Pādśāh — the Pādśāh of Gauḍa, “Husain” Shah.

Anubhāṣya.
Pātsāha (the Pādśāh) — ʿAlāʾ-ud-dīn Sayyid Husain Shah (1498–1511 A.D.), at that time the independent ruler of Bengal. He killed his patron and master, the terribly oppressive Nawab Muzaffar Khan of the Abyssinian (Habshi) dynasty, and ascended the throne of Bengal. On taking the masnad of Bengal he assumed the name “Sayyid Husain ʿAlāʾ-ud-dīn Sharīf Makka.” Ghulam Husain, the author of the chronicle Riyāẓ-us-Salāṭīn, says that one of Nawab Husain Shah's ancestors had been the Sharif of Mecca, and so he probably took that name in memory of his family's glory. In the stone inscriptions of Gauḍa, however, he is known simply as “Husain Shah.” After his death his eldest son Nasrat Shah became Nawab of Bengal (1521–1533 A.D.). This cruel-natured nawab terribly oppressed the Vaiṣṇavas and, as a result of his own sins, was killed in a mosque by one of his officials.

তবে সেই যবনেরে আমি ত' পুছিল । হিন্দু 'হরি' বলে, তার স্বভাব জানিল ॥ ১৯৬ ॥

tabe sei yavanere āmi ta' puchila
then those Muslims I indeed asked hindu 'hari' bale, tāra svabhāva jānila
a Hindu 'Hari' says his nature I know

196 Then I asked those Muslims: 'That a Hindu says "Hari" — I know that is his nature.

তুমি ত' যবন হঞা কেনে অনুক্ষণ । হিন্দুর দেবতার নাম লহ কি কারণ ॥ ১৯৭ ॥

tumi ta' yavana hañā kene anukṣaṇa
you indeed Muslims being why constantly hindura devatāra nāma laha ki kāraṇa of the Hindus' God the name you take what the reason

197 But you are Muslims — why do you constantly take the name of the Hindus' God?'

ম্লেচ্ছ কহে, — হিন্দুরে আমি করি পরিহাস । কেহ কেহ — কৃষ্ণদাস, কেহ — রামদাস ॥ ১৯৮ ॥

mleccha kahe, — hindure āmi kari parihāsa a mleccha says the Hindus I make fun of keha keha — kṛṣṇadāsa, keha — rāmadāsa
some are Kṛṣṇadāsa some Rāmadāsa

198 One mleccha said: 'I make fun of the Hindus. Some of them are Kṛṣṇadāsa, some Rāmadāsa, কেহ — হরিদাস, সদা বলে ‘হরি’ ‘হরি’ । জানি কার ঘরে ধন করিবেক চুরি ॥ ১৯৯ ॥

keha — haridāsa, sadā bale ‘hari’ ‘hari’
some Haridāsa always say ‘Hari’ ‘Hari’
jāni kāra ghare dhana karibeka curi
I think someone’s from the house wealth they will steal

199 some Haridāsa, and they always say “Hari! Hari!” — I thought they meant to steal (hari) someone’s wealth.

সেই হৈতে জিহ্বা মোর বলে ‘হরি’ ‘হরি’ । ইচ্ছা নাহি, তবু বলে, — কি উপায় করি ॥ ২০০ ॥

sei haite jihvā mora bale ‘hari’ ‘hari’
since then tongue my says ‘Hari’ ‘Hari’
icchā nāhi, tabu bale, — ki upāya kari desire none yet it says what means can I make

200 Since then my tongue says “Hari! Hari!” I don’t want it to, yet it does — what can I do?’

আর ম্লেচ্ছ কহে, — শুন — আমি ত’ এইমতে ।
হিন্দুকে পরিহাস কৈনু সে দিন হইতে ॥ ২০১ ॥

জিহ্বা কৃষ্ণনাম করে, না মানে বর্জ্জন । না জানি কি মন্ত্রৌষধি জানে হিন্দুগণ ॥ ২০২ ॥

āra mleccha kahe, — śuna — āmi ta’ ei-mate
another mleccha says listen I indeed in this way
hinduke parihāsa kainu se dina haite
the Hindus mockery made that day since jihvā kṛṣṇa-nāma kare, nā māne varjana
my tongue Kṛṣṇa’s name makes not heeds restraint
nā jāni ki mantrauṣadhi jāne hindu-gaṇa
not I know what spells and herbs know the Hindus

201–202 Another mleccha said: ‘Listen: I too mocked the Hindus like this, and since that day my tongue chants the name of Kṛṣṇa and will not be held back. I don’t know what spells and herbs the Hindus know.’

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

The Kazi said: “O Gaurahari, when I questioned that mleccha peon, he answered: ‘I said to the Hindus, “Some of you, calling yourselves Kṛṣṇadāsa, Rāmadāsa or Haridāsa, keep saying ‘Hari, Hari.’ But the word hari, hari means ‘I steal, I steal,’ so it seems you say ‘Hari, Hari’ (‘I take away, I take away’) because you mean to steal other people's wealth.” Ever since the day I joked with them like this, my tongue keeps saying “Hari, Hari” against my will, and I can do nothing about it.’”

Anubhāṣya.

Parihāsa (mockery) is one of the four kinds of nāmābhāsa, as it is said: “Chanting the name of Vaikuṇṭha — to indicate something else, in jest, for the sake of a tune, or with disregard — destroys all sins: so the wise know.” (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 6.2.14) Yet nāmābhāsa based on indication, mockery, musical filler or disregard is not merely the material pronunciation of syllables. Directed toward the eternal, real Substance, nāmābhāsa awakens remembrance of Viṣṇu, and so it destroys the jīva's desire for sense objects. As a result, the liberated jīva, now turned toward service, gains the qualification to utter the pure name.

*The smārta pāṣaṇḍīs complain to the Kazi —*

এত শুনি’ তা’-সবারে ঘরে পাঠাইল । হেনকালে পাষণ্ডী হিন্দু পাঁচ-সাত আইল ॥ ২০৩ ॥

eta śuni’ tā’-sabāre ghare pāṭhāila
this hearing them all home I sent hena-kāle pāṣaṇḍī hindu pāṅca-sāta āila
just then unbelieving Hindus five or seven came 203 Hearing this, I sent them all home. Just then five or seven unbelieving Hindus came.

Anubhāṣya.

Pāṣaṇḍī — a dull follower of karma who believes in many gods, an enemy of Viṣṇu and the Vaiṣṇavas, an idolater.

আসি’ কহে, — হিন্দুর ধর্ম্ম ভাঙ্গিল নিমাঞি । যে কীর্ত্তন প্রবর্ত্তাইল, কভু শুনি নাই ॥ ২০৪ ॥

āsi’ kahe, — hindura dharma bhāṅgila nimāñi
coming say of the Hindus the religion has broken Nimāi
ye kīrtana pravartāila, kabhu śuni nāi which kīrtana He has started ever heard not 204 They said: ‘Nimāi has broken the Hindu religion. He has started a kīrtana we have never heard of.

মঙ্গলচণ্ডী, বিষহরি করি জাগরণ । তা’তে নৃত্য, গীত, বাদ্য, — যোগ্য আচরণ ॥ ২০৫ ॥

maṅgalacaṇḍī, viṣahari kari jāgaraṇa
for Maṅgalacaṇḍī Viṣahari making a night vigil
tā’te nṛtya, gīta, vādya, — yogya ācaraṇa
then dancing singing music proper conduct

205 When we keep night vigils for Maṅgalacaṇḍī or Viṣahari, then dancing, singing and music are proper.

পূর্ব্বে ভাল ছিল এই নিমাঞি পণ্ডিত । গয়া হৈতে আসিয়া চালায় বিপরীত ॥ ২০৬ ॥

pūrve bhāla chila ei nimāñi paṇḍita
before good was this Nimāi Paṇḍita
gayā haite āsiyā cālāya viparīta from Gayā coming back behaves the opposite

206 This Nimāi Paṇḍita used to be good, but since He came back from Gayā He behaves the opposite way.

উচ্চ করি’ গায় গীত, দেয় করতালি । মৃদঙ্গ-করতাল-শব্দে কর্ণে লাগে তালি ॥ ২০৭ ॥

ucca kari’ gāya gīta, deya karatāli
loudly making sings songs gives hand-claps mṛdaṅga-karatāla-śabde karṇe lāge tāli
by the sound of mṛdaṅgas and karatālas our ears are deafened

207 He sings loudly and claps His hands; the sound of mṛdaṅgas and karatālas deafens our ears.

না জানি, কি খাঞা মত্ত হঞা নাচে, গায় । হাসে, কান্দে, পড়ে, উঠে, গড়াগড়ি যায় ॥ ২০৮ ॥ nā jāni, ki khāñā matta hañā nāce, gāya not we know what having eaten mad becoming He dances sings

hāse, kānde, paḍe, uṭhe, gaḍāgaḍi yāya
laughs weeps falls rises rolls about goes

208 We don’t know what He has eaten that He dances and sings like a madman, laughs, weeps, falls, gets up and rolls about.

নগরিয়া পাগল কৈল সদা সংকীর্ত্তন । রাত্রে নিদ্রা নাহি যাই, করি জাগরণ ॥ ২০৯ ॥

nagariyā pāgala kaila sadā saṁkīrtana
the townspeople mad He has made constant saṅkīrtana
rātre nidrā nāhi yāi, kari jāgaraṇa
at night sleep not we get we make vigil

209 With constant saṅkīrtana He has made the townspeople mad. At night we cannot sleep; we lie awake.

‘নিমাঞি’ নাম ছাড়ি’ এবে বোলায় ‘গৌরহরি’ ।
হিন্দুর ধর্ম্ম নষ্ট কৈল পাষণ্ড সঞ্চারি’ ॥ ২১০ ॥

‘nimāñi’ nāma chāḍi’ ebe bolāya ‘gaurahari’ ‘Nimāi’ the name giving up now calls Himself ‘Gaurahari’ hindura dharma naṣṭa kaila pāṣaṇḍa sañcāri’
of the Hindus the religion ruined He has unbelief spreading

210 He has dropped the name Nimāi and now calls Himself Gaurahari. He has ruined the Hindu religion by spreading unbelief.

কৃষ্ণের কীর্ত্তন করে নীচ বাড় বাড় ৷ এই পাপে নবদ্বীপ হইবে উজাড় ॥ ২১১ ॥

kṛṣṇera kīrtana kare nīca bāḍa bāḍa
of Kṛṣṇa kīrtana He does the low-born rise rise
ei pāpe navadvīpa haibe ujāḍa
for this sin Navadvīpa will be laid waste

211 He performs kīrtana of Kṛṣṇa, and the low-born are rising higher and higher. For this sin Navadvīpa will be laid waste.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
Nīca bāḍa bāḍa: he performs Kṛṣṇa's kīrtana with many low-born people, and by this the low are “growing,” that is, rising.

হিন্দুশাস্ত্রে ‘ঈশ্বর’ নাম — মহামন্ত্র জানি ৷ সর্ব্বলোক শুনিলে মন্ত্রের বীর্য্য হয় হানি ॥ ২১২ ॥

hindu-śāstre ‘īśvara’ nāma — mahā-mantra jāni
in Hindu scripture ‘God’s’ name the great mantra we know
sarva-loka śunile mantrera vīrya haya hāni
all people if they hear of the mantra the potency is lost

212 In Hindu scripture we know the name of God to be the great mantra; if everyone hears it, the mantra loses its power.

Anubhāṣya.
These polytheists (bahv-īśvara-vādīs) are called by the word pāṣaṇḍa because they considered the Lord, or the Lord's name, “a part of karma” (karmāṅga). They did not know how supremely magnanimous and glorious Kṛṣṇa's name is.

Blinded by worldly high birth and social standing, they thought: if a low person, that is, one born in a low family, takes Kṛṣṇa's name, that is a special kind of sin; therefore taking Kṛṣṇa's name depends on good family or high birth. These polytheists equated the mahā-mantra, Kṛṣṇa's name, with other mantras for japa, and thought: if the mahā-mantra, which is to be chanted always, is spoken or sung aloud — that is, if it suddenly comes onto the tongue and reaches the ear — then instead of revealing its own matchless supreme majesty and delivering everyone from Brahmā down to a blade of grass, it becomes fruitless. So opposed are they to the path of the Śrutis, these arguers whose reasoning rests on sense knowledge (akṣaja-hetuvādīs)!

গ্রামের ঠাকুর তুমি, সব তোমার জন । নিমাই বোলাইয়া তারে করহ বর্জ্জন ॥ ২১৩ ॥

grāmera ṭhākura tumi, saba tomāra jana
of the town the lord you all your people
nimāi bolāiyā tāre karaha varjana
Nimāi summoning Him make banishment

213 You are the lord of the town; all the people are yours. Summon Nimāi and banish Him.’

Anubhāṣya.

Next they address the Kazi and say: “You are the all-powerful master of this place, and everyone in the village is subject to you. Therefore summon Nimāi Paṇḍita and expel Him from the community.”

The Kazi consoles them —

তবে আমি প্রীতিবাক্য কহিল সবারে । সবে ঘরে যাহ, আমি নিষেধিব তারে ॥ ২১৪ ॥

tabe āmi prīti-vākya kahila sabāre
then I kind words spoke to all sabe ghare yāha, āmi niṣedhiba tāre
all home go I will stop Him

214 Then I spoke kindly to them all: ‘Go home, all of you; I will stop Him.’

The Kazi's words to the Lord —

হিন্দুর ঈশ্বর বড় যেই নারায়ণ । সেই তুমি হও, — হেন লয় মোর মন ॥ ২১৫ ॥

hindura īśvara baḍa yei nārāyaṇa
of the Hindus God great who Nārāyaṇa sei tumi hao, — hena laya mora mana that You are so takes my mind

215 The great God of the Hindus is Nārāyaṇa, and my mind tells me that You are He.”

The Lord's merciful words —

এত শুনি’ মহাপ্রভু হাসিয়া হাসিয়া । কহিতে লাগিলা কিছু কাজিরে ছুঁইয়া ॥ ২১৬ ॥

eta śuni’ mahāprabhu hāsiyā hāsiyā
this hearing Mahāprabhu smiling smiling
kahite lāgilā kichu kājire chuṅiyā
to speak began something the Kazi touching

216 Hearing this, Mahāprabhu, smiling broadly, touched the Kazi and said:

Nāmābhāsa* destroys sins —*

তোমার মুখে কৃষ্ণনাম, — এ বড় বিচিত্র । পাপক্ষয় গেল, হৈলা পরম পবিত্র ॥ ২১৭ ॥

tomāra mukhe kṛṣṇa-nāma, — e baḍa vicitra
in your mouth Kṛṣṇa’s name this very wonderful pāpa-kṣaya gela, hailā parama pavitra destruction of sins has come you have become supremely pure 217 “The name of Kṛṣṇa in your mouth — this is most wonderful! Your sins are destroyed, and you have become supremely pure.

‘হরি’ ‘কৃষ্ণ’ ‘নারায়ণ’ — লৈলে তিন নাম ।
বড় ভাগ্যবান্ তুমি, বড় পুণ্যবান্ ॥ ২১৮ ॥

‘hari’ ‘kṛṣṇa’ ‘nārāyaṇa’ — laile tina nāma
‘Hari’ ‘Kṛṣṇa’ ‘Nārāyaṇa’ you have taken three names
baḍa bhāgyavān tumi, baḍa puṇyavān
very fortunate you very pious

218 You have uttered three names — Hari, Kṛṣṇa and Nārāyaṇa. You are most fortunate and most pious.”

Anubhāṣya.
Nāmābhāsa arose on the Kazi's lips.

The Kazi speaks humbly —

এত শুনি’ কাজীর দুই চক্ষে পড়ে পানি । প্রভুর চরণ ছুঁই’ বলে প্রিয়বাণী ॥ ২১৯ ॥

eta śuni’ kājīra dui cakṣe paḍe pāni
this hearing of the Kazi from both eyes fell water prabhura caraṇa chuṅi’ bale priya-vāṇī
the Lord’s feet touching says sweet words

219 Hearing this, the Kazi wept, and touching the Lord’s feet, he spoke these sweet words:

তোমার প্রসাদে মোর ঘুচিল কুমতি । এই কৃপা কর, যেন তোমাতে রহু ভক্তি ॥ ২২০ ॥

tomāra prasāde mora ghucila kumati
by Your mercy my has gone evil mind ei kṛpā kara, yena tomāte rahu bhakti
this mercy make so that in You may remain devotion

220 “By Your mercy my evil mind is gone. Grant me this mercy: may my devotion remain fixed on You.”

The Lord's words —

প্রভু কহে, — এক দান মাগিয়ে তোমায় । সংকীর্ত্তন বাদ যৈছে নহে নদীয়ায় ॥ ২২১ ॥

prabhu kahe, — eka dāna māgiye tomāya
the Lord says one gift I ask of you saṁkīrtana vāda yaiche nahe nadīyāya
to saṅkīrtana obstruction so that not is in Nadīyā

221 The Lord said: “I ask one gift of you: let there be no obstruction to saṅkīrtana in Nadīyā.”

Anubhāṣya.
That the kīrtana of Kṛṣṇa's name should meet with no obstruction in Navadvīpa.

The Kazi's promise —

কাজী কহে, — মোর বংশে যত উপজিবে । তাহাকে ‘তালাক’ দিব, কীর্ত্তন না বাধিবে ॥ ২২২ ॥

kājī kahe, — mora vaṁśe yata upajibe
the Kazi says my in the line all who will be born tāhāke ‘tālāka’ diba, kīrtana nā bādhibe on them an oath I will place the kīrtana not they will obstruct

222 The Kazi said: “I will bind everyone born in my line by a solemn oath (tālāka) never to obstruct the kīrtana.”

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
Tālāka — a solemnly made vow.

Anubhāṣya.
The Kazi's descendants still take part in the saṅkīrtana of Kṛṣṇa's name and have not the slightest objection to it.

The joy of the Lord and the devotees —

শুনি’ প্রভু ‘হরি’ বলি’ উঠিলা আপনি । উঠিল বৈষ্ণব সব করি’ হরি-ধ্বনি ॥ ২২৩ ॥

śuni’ prabhu ‘hari’ bali’ uṭhilā āpani hearing the Lord ‘Hari’ saying rose Himself
uṭhila vaiṣṇava saba kari’ hari-dhvani
rose the Vaiṣṇavas all making the sound of Hari

223 Hearing this, the Lord rose, saying “Hari!”, and all the Vaiṣṇavas rose, raising the sound of “Hari!”

The Lord returns home with His associates —

কীর্ত্তন করিতে প্রভু করিলা গমন । সঙ্গে চলি’ আইসে কাজী উল্লসিত মন ॥ ২২৪ ॥

kīrtana karite prabhu karilā gamana kīrtana performing the Lord made departure saṅge cali’ āise kājī ullasita mana with Him walking comes the Kazi rejoicing in heart

224 The Lord set off performing kīrtana, and the Kazi walked along with Him, rejoicing at heart.

কাজীরে বিদায় দিল শচীর নন্দন । নাচিতে নাচিতে আইলা আপন ভবন ॥ ২২৫ ॥

kājīre vidāya dila śacīra nandana
to the Kazi farewell gave of Śacī the son nācite nācite āilā āpana bhavana
dancing dancing He came to His own home

225 The son of Śacī bade the Kazi farewell and, dancing all the way, returned to His own home.

এই মতে কাজীরে প্রভু করিলা প্রসাদ । ইহা যেই শুনে তার খণ্ডে অপরাধ ॥ ২২৬ ॥

ei mate kājīre prabhu karilā prasāda
in this way to the Kazi the Lord showed mercy
ihā yei śune tāra khaṇḍe aparādha
this whoever hears his are destroyed offenses

226 Thus the Lord showed mercy to the Kazi. Whoever hears this is freed from offenses.

During the Lord's kīrtana in Śrīvāsa's house, Śrīvāsa's son leaves his body —

এক দিন শ্রীবাসের মন্দিরে গোসাঞি । নিত্যানন্দ-সঙ্গে নৃত্য করে দুই ভাই ॥ ২২৭ ॥

eka dina śrīvāsera mandire gosāñi
one day of Śrīvāsa in the house the Lord
nityānanda-saṅge nṛtya kare dui bhāi
with Nityānanda dancing do the two brothers

227 One day in Śrīvāsa’s house the Lord was dancing with Nityānanda — the two brothers together.

শ্রীবাস-পুত্রের তাহাঁ হৈল পরলোক । তবু শ্রীবাসের চিত্তে না জন্মিল শোক ॥ ২২৮ ॥

śrīvāsa-putrera tāhāṅ haila paraloka Śrīvāsa’s son’s there was departure to the other world
tabu śrīvāsera citte nā janmila śoka
yet of Śrīvāsa in the heart not arose grief

228 There Śrīvāsa’s son passed to the other world, yet no grief arose in Śrīvāsa’s heart.

The truth is spoken through the mouth of the dead son —

মৃতপুত্র-মুখে কৈল জ্ঞানের কথন । আপনে দুই ভাই হৈলা শ্রীবাস-নন্দন ॥ ২২৯ ॥

mṛta-putra-mukhe kaila jñānera kathana through the departed son’s mouth He made of knowledge the telling āpane dui bhāi hailā śrīvāsa-nandana
Themselves the two brothers became Śrīvāsa’s sons

229 Through the mouth of the departed son the Lord had spiritual knowledge spoken, and the two brothers Themselves became Śrīvāsa’s sons.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
One night Mahāprabhu was performing kīrtana in Śrīvāsa's courtyard, and at that time one of Śrīvāsa's sons departed from this world. Fearing that the rasa of the kīrtana would be broken, Śrīvāsa forbade everyone to show any grief, and Mahāprabhu danced and sang kīrtana until late in the night. When the kīrtana ended, Mahāprabhu could understand that some misfortune had befallen the house. Learning that Śrīvāsa's son had departed, the Lord first expressed sorrow that He had not been told sooner. Then He had the dead boy laid before Him and asked him, “Boy, why are you leaving Śrīvāsa?” The dead boy replied, “I was destined to stay in Śrīvāsa's house for a certain number of days. Those days are over, and now by Your will I am going elsewhere. I am a jīva, eternally subordinate to You and dependent on You, and I have no right to do anything beyond Your will.” Hearing the dead boy's words, Śrīvāsa's family gained divine knowledge, and no grief remained in them. Then the boy's funeral rites were performed. The Lord said to Śrīvāsa, “The son you had has gone. But Nityānanda and I are your eternal sons; We can never leave you.”

Anubhāṣya.
See the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 25.

The Lord gives His remnants to Nārāyaṇī, Śrīvāsa's niece —

তবে ত’ করিলা সব ভক্তে বর দান । উচ্ছিষ্ট দিয়া নারায়ণীর করিল সম্মান ॥ ২৩০ ॥

tabe ta’ karilā saba bhakte vara dāna
then indeed He made to all devotees boons the gift
ucchiṣṭa diyā nārāyaṇīra karila sammāna
remnants giving to Nārāyaṇī He made honor

230 Then He granted boons to all the devotees, and He honored Nārāyaṇī by giving her His remnants.

Anubhāṣya.
See the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 10. Certain characterless prākṛta-sahajiyā “Ṭhākuras,” pāṣaṇḍīs by nature, wishing to present Śrīla Vṛndāvana dāsa as a golaka[4], say: “Śrīmatī Nārāyaṇī ate the remnants of Śrīman Mahāprabhu's food, or His chewed betel, and as a result, while a widow, gave birth to Ṭhākura Vṛndāvana dāsa.” Such slanderous babble is wholly offensive, and therefore one must not listen to it.

*A tailor born in a yavana family sees the Lord's form and goes mad —*

শ্রীবাসের বস্ত্র সিয়ে দরজী যবন । প্রভু তারে করাইল নিজরূপ দর্শন ॥ ২৩১ ॥

śrīvāsera vastra siye darajī yavana Śrīvāsa’s clothes sews a tailor a Muslim prabhu tāre karāila nija-rūpa darśana
the Lord to him granted His own form the sight

231 A Muslim tailor sewed clothes for Śrīvāsa, and the Lord granted him the sight of His own form.

দেখিনু দেখিনু বলি’ হইল পাগল । প্রেমে নৃত্য করে হৈল বৈষ্ণব আগল ॥ ২৩২ ॥

dekhinu dekhinu bali’ haila pāgala
I have seen I have seen saying he became mad
preme nṛtya kare haila vaiṣṇava āgala
in love dancing does became a Vaiṣṇava foremost

232 Crying “I have seen! I have seen!” he went mad, danced in love and became a foremost Vaiṣṇava.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
A yavana tailor who lived near Śrīvāsa used to sew his clothes. When he watched Mahāprabhu's dancing with faith and was charmed, the Lord showed him the spiritual (cinmaya) nature of His own form. The tailor began to dance, mad with prema, crying, “I have seen! I have seen!” Āgala — foremost.

At the Lord's wish Śrīvāsa describes Kṛṣṇa's sweet pastimes —

আবেশেতে শ্রীবাসে প্রভু বংশী ত’ মাগিল। শ্রীবাস কহে, বংশী তোমার গোপী হরি’ নিল ॥ ২৩৩ ॥

āveśete śrīvāse prabhu vaṁśī ta’ māgila
in ecstasy from Śrīvāsa the Lord the flute indeed asked śrīvāsa kahe, vaṁśī tomāra gopī hari’ nila Śrīvāsa says the flute Your the gopīs stealing took

233 In ecstasy the Lord asked Śrīvāsa for His flute. Śrīvāsa said, “The gopīs have stolen Your flute.”

শুনি’ প্রভু ‘বল’ ‘বল’ বলেন আবেশে। শ্রীবাস বর্ণেন বৃন্দাবন-লীলারসে ॥ ২৩৪ ॥

śuni’ prabhu ‘bala’ ‘bala’ balena āveśe hearing the Lord ‘tell’ ‘tell’ says in ecstasy
śrīvāsa varṇena vṛndāvana-līlā-rase
Śrīvāsa describes of the Vṛndāvana pastimes the rasa

234 Hearing this, the Lord said in ecstasy, “Tell on! Tell on!”, and Śrīvāsa described the rasa of the Vṛndāvana pastimes.

প্রথমেতে বৃন্দাবন-মাধুর্য্য বর্ণিল। শুনিয়া প্রভুর চিত্তে আনন্দ বাড়িল ॥ ২৩৫ ॥

prathamete vṛndāvana-mādhurya varṇila
first Vṛndāvana's sweetness he described śuniyā prabhura citte ānanda bāḍila hearing in the Lord's heart joy increased

235 First he described the sweetness of Vṛndāvana, and as the Lord heard it, the joy in His heart increased.

তবে ‘বল’ ‘বল’ প্রভু বলে বারবার । পুনঃ পুনঃ কহে শ্রীবাস করিয়া বিস্তার ॥ ২৩৬ ॥

tabe ‘bala’ ‘bala’ prabhu bale vāravāra
then ‘tell’ ‘tell’ the Lord says again and again
punaḥ punaḥ kahe śrīvāsa kariyā vistāra
again and again says Śrīvāsa making expansion

236 Then the Lord said again and again, “Tell on! Tell on!”, and Śrīvāsa spoke again and again, in ever greater detail:

বংশীবাদ্যে গোপীগণের বনে আকর্ষণ । তাঁ-সবার সঙ্গে যৈছে বন-বিহরণ ॥ ২৩৭ ॥

vaṁśī-vādye gopī-gaṇera vane ākarṣaṇa
by the flute's music of the gopīs into the forest the drawing tāṅ-sabāra saṅge yaiche vana-viharaṇa
with them all how the forest wandering

237 how the music of the flute drew the gopīs into the forest, and how Kṛṣṇa wandered in the forest with them.

তাহি মধ্যে ছয়-ঋতু লীলার বর্ণন । মধুপান, রাসোৎসব, জলকেলি কথন ॥ ২৩৮ ॥

tāhi madhye chaya-ṛtu līlāra varṇana
within that of the six seasons' pastimes the description
madhu-pāna, rāsotsava, jala-keli kathana honey-drinking the rāsa festival water sports the telling

238 Within that he described the pastimes of the six seasons, the drinking of honey, the festival of the rāsa dance and the sports in the water.

‘বল’ ‘বল’ বলে প্রভু শুনিতে উল্লাস ।
শ্রীবাস কহেন তবে রাসরসের বিলাস ॥ ২৩৯ ॥

‘bala’ ‘bala’ bale prabhu śunite ullāsa
‘tell’ ‘tell’ says the Lord in hearing delight
śrīvāsa kahena tabe rāsa rasera vilāsa
Śrīvāsa tells then the rāsa of rasa the play

239 “Tell on! Tell on!” said the Lord, delighted to hear, and Śrīvāsa then told of the rāsa dance and its play of rasa.

Anubhāṣya.
Śrīvāsa's description of Kṛṣṇa's madhura (śṛṅgāra) rasa with the gopīs of Vraja deserves special attention.

কহিতে, শুনিতে ঐছে প্রাতঃকাল হৈল । প্রভু শ্রীবাসেরে তোষি’ আলিঙ্গন কৈল ॥ ২৪০ ॥

kahite, śunite aiche prātaḥ-kāla haila
in telling in hearing thus morning came prabhu śrīvāsere toṣi’ āliṅgana kaila
the Lord Śrīvāsa gratifying embrace made

240 As one spoke and the other listened, morning came. The Lord gratified Śrīvāsa by embracing him.

In Ācāryaratna's house the Lord dances in the guise of Lakṣmī —

তবে আচার্য্যের ঘরে কৈল কৃষ্ণলীলা । রুক্মিণ্যাদি-রূপ প্রভু আপনে হইলা ॥ ২৪১ ॥

tabe ācāryera ghare kaila kṛṣṇa-līlā
then in the Ācārya’s house He made Kṛṣṇa’s pastimes
rukmiṇyādi-rūpa prabhu āpane hailā of Rukmiṇī and others the forms the Lord Himself became 241 Then in the house of the Ācārya (Candraśekhara) He enacted Kṛṣṇa’s pastimes, Himself taking the parts of Rukmiṇī and others.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
One night in the house of Śrī Candraśekhara Ācāryaratna the Lord assumed the form of Rukmiṇī and others and enacted a pastime. Advaita, Haridāsa and many others also put on various costumes.

Anubhāṣya.
On the Lord in the mood and guise of Rukmiṇī, see the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 18.

কভু দুর্গা, লক্ষ্মী হয়, কভু বা চিচ্ছক্তি । খাটে বসি’ ভক্তগণে দিলা প্রেমভক্তি ॥ ২৪২ ॥

kabhu durgā, lakṣmī haya, kabhu vā cic-chakti
sometimes Durgā Lakṣmī He is sometimes or the spiritual energy
khāṭe vasi’ bhakta-gaṇe dilā prema-bhakti
on the cot sitting to the devotees He gave loving devotion

242 Sometimes He became Durgā or Lakṣmī, sometimes the spiritual energy (cit-śakti); seated on a cot, He gave the devotees loving devotion.

Anubhāṣya.
On the Lord, in the guise of Ādyā-śakti, giving the devotees breast milk and prema-bhakti, see the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 18.

A brāhmaṇa woman touches the Lord's feet, and the Lord throws Himself into the Gaṅgā —

একদিন মহাপ্রভুর নৃত্য-অবসানে । এক ব্রাহ্মণী আসি’ ধরিল চরণে ॥ ২৪৩ ॥

ekadina mahāprabhura nṛtya-avasāne
one day of Mahāprabhu the dancing at the end
eka brāhmaṇī āsi’ dharila caraṇe
a brāhmaṇa lady coming clasped His feet

243 One day, when Mahāprabhu’s dancing ended, a brāhmaṇa lady came and clasped His feet.

চরণের ধূলি সেই লয় বার বার । দেখিয়া প্রভুর দুঃখ হইল অপার ॥ ২৪৪ ॥

caraṇera dhūli sei laya vāra vāra
of the feet the dust she takes again and again
dekhiyā prabhura duḥkha haila apāra
seeing of the Lord distress was boundless

244 Again and again she took the dust of His feet. Seeing this, the Lord was immeasurably distressed.

সেইক্ষণে ধাঞা প্রভু গঙ্গাতে পড়িল । নিত্যানন্দ হরিদাস ধরি’ উঠাইল ॥ ২৪৫ ॥

sei-kṣaṇe dhāñā prabhu gaṅgāte paḍila
that moment running the Lord into the Gaṅgā fell nityānanda haridāsa dhari’ uṭhāila
Nityānanda Haridāsa catching lifted (Him) out

245 At once the Lord ran and threw Himself into the Gaṅgā; Nityānanda and Haridāsa caught hold of Him and lifted Him out.

বিজয় আচার্য্যের ঘরে সে রাত্রে রহিলা । প্রাতঃকালে ভক্ত সবে ঘরে লঞা গেলা ॥ ২৪৬ ॥

vijaya ācāryera ghare se rātre rahilā of Vijaya Ācārya in the house that night He stayed prātaḥ-kāle bhakta sabe ghare lañā gelā
in the morning the devotees all home taking He went 246 That night He stayed in the house of Vijaya Ācārya, and in the morning He went home, taking all the devotees with Him.

Anubhāṣya.

This incident does not appear in the Caitanya-bhāgavata.

The Lord cries aloud, “Gopī! Gopī!” —

একদিন গোপীভাবে গৃহেতে বসিয়া । ‘গোপী’ ‘গোপী’ নাম লয় বিষণ্ণ হইয়া ॥ ২৪৭ ॥

ekadina gopī-bhāve gṛhete vasiyā
one day in the mood of a gopī at home sitting ‘gopī’ ‘gopī’ nāma laya viṣaṇṇa haiyā ‘gopī’ ‘gopī’ the name He takes sorrowful being

247 One day, sitting at home in the mood of a gopī, the Lord was sorrowfully repeating, “Gopī! Gopī!”

*A pāṣaṇḍī student, not understanding the heart of the matter, tries to stop the Lord —*

এক পড়ুয়া আইল প্রভুকে দেখিতে । ‘গোপী’ ‘গোপী’ নাম শুনি’ লাগিল বলিতে ॥ ২৪৮ ॥

eka paḍuyā āila prabhuke dekhite
a student came the Lord to see ‘gopī’ ‘gopī’ nāma śuni’ lāgila balite
‘gopī’ ‘gopī’ the name hearing began to say

248 A student came to see the Lord. Hearing Him say “Gopī! Gopī!”, he said:

কৃষ্ণনাম না লও কেনে, কৃষ্ণনাম — ধন্য । ‘গোপী’ ‘গোপী’ বলিলে বা কিবা হয় পুণ্য ॥ ২৪৯ ॥

kṛṣṇa-nāma nā lao kene, kṛṣṇa-nāma — dhanya Kṛṣṇa’s name not You take why Kṛṣṇa’s name blessed ‘gopī’ ‘gopī’ balile vā kibā haya puṇya
‘gopī’ ‘gopī’ by saying or what is merit

249 “Why don’t You take the name of Kṛṣṇa? The name of Kṛṣṇa is blessed. What merit is there in saying ‘Gopī! Gopī!’?”

The Lord chases the student to strike him; the student flees —

শুনি’ প্রভু ক্রোধে কৈল কৃষ্ণে দোষোদ্গার । ঠেঙ্গা লঞা উঠিলা প্রভু পড়ুয়া মারিবার ॥ ২৫০ ॥

śuni’ prabhu krodhe kaila kṛṣṇe doṣodgāra hearing the Lord in anger made against Kṛṣṇa complaints
ṭheṅgā lañā uṭhilā prabhu paḍuyā māribāra
a stick taking rose the Lord the student to beat

250 Hearing this, the Lord angrily poured out complaints against Kṛṣṇa, and taking up a stick, He rose to beat the student.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
Doṣodgāra* — blaming with mockery.

ভয়ে পলায় পড়ুয়া, প্রভু পাছে পাছে ধায় । আস্তে ব্যস্তে ভক্তগণ প্রভুরে রহায় ॥ ২৫১ ॥

bhaye palāya paḍuyā, prabhu pāche pāche dhāya
in fear flees the student the Lord behind behind runs āste vyaste bhakta-gaṇa prabhure rahāya
hurriedly the devotees the Lord stopped

251 The student fled in fear with the Lord running after him, and the devotees hurriedly held the Lord back.

The Lord is calmed —

প্রভুরে শান্ত করি’ আনিল নিজ-ঘরে । পড়ুয়া পলায়া গেল পড়ুয়া-সভারে ॥ ২৫২ ॥

prabhure śānta kari’ ānila nija-ghare
the Lord calming they brought to His own home
paḍuyā palāyā gela paḍuyā-sabhāre
the student fleeing went to the students’ assembly

252 Calming the Lord, they brought Him home, and the student ran off to the assembly of students.

The students speak harshly of the Lord and grow angry —

পড়ুয়া সহস্র যাহাঁ পড়ে একঠাঞি । প্রভুর বৃত্তান্ত দ্বিজ কহে তাহাঁ যাই ॥ ২৫৩ ॥

paḍuyā sahasra yāhāṅ paḍe eka-ṭhāñi
students a thousand where study in one place
prabhura vṛttānta dvija kahe tāhāṅ yāi
of the Lord the account the brāhmaṇa tells there going

253 Going where a thousand students studied together, the brāhmaṇa told them what had happened with the Lord.

শুনি’ ক্রোধ কৈল সব পড়ুয়ার গণ । সবে মেলি’ করে তবে প্রভুর নিন্দন ॥ ২৫৪ ॥

śuni’ krodha kaila saba paḍuyāra gaṇa hearing anger made all the students
sabe meli’ kare tabe prabhura nindana
all together make then of the Lord reviling

254 Hearing it, all the students grew angry, and together they began to revile the Lord:

সব দেশ ভ্রষ্ট কৈল একলা নিমাঞি । ব্রাহ্মণ মারিতে চাহে, ধর্ম্মভয় নাই ॥ ২৫৫ ॥

saba deśa bhraṣṭa kaila ekalā nimāñi
the whole country corrupted has alone Nimāi
brāhmaṇa mārite cāhe, dharma-bhaya nāi
a brāhmaṇa to beat He wants fear of dharma none

255 “Nimāi alone has corrupted the whole country. He wants to beat a brāhmaṇa — He has no fear of dharma!

A plot to beat the Lord —

পুনঃ যদি ঐছে করে মারিব তাহারে ৷ কোন্ বা মানুষ হয়, কি করিতে পারে ॥ ২৫৬ ॥

punaḥ yadi aiche kare māriba tāhāre
again if such He does we will beat Him
kon vā mānuṣa haya, ki karite pāre what sort of man is He what to do can He 256 If He does such a thing again, we will beat Him. What sort of man is He? What can He do?”

For their enmity toward the Lord they lose their learning and intelligence —

প্রভুর নিন্দায় সবার বুদ্ধি হৈল নাশ ৷ সুপঠিত বিদ্যা কারও না হয় প্রকাশ ॥ ২৫৭ ॥

prabhura nindāya sabāra buddhi haila nāśa
by reviling the Lord of all the intelligence became destroyed
supaṭhita vidyā kārao nā haya prakāśa
well-studied learning in anyone not is manifest

257 By reviling the Lord they all lost their intelligence; the learning they had studied so well no longer shone in any of them.

Anubhāṣya.
For (Śvetāśvatara Upaniṣad 6.23): “Only to the great soul whose supreme devotion is for God, and for the guru as for God, are the meanings of these words revealed.” That is, the true meaning of these Śrutis, whose import is devotion to Hari, is revealed only in the pure heart of that great soul whose supreme (causeless and uninterrupted) devotion is for Viṣṇu, his supreme Deity, and equally for Śrī Gurudeva, the best of His servants. In no other heart is it revealed.

Śrī Prahlāda's words (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 7.5.24): “If a person, having offered himself to Viṣṇu, performs the ninefold devotion directly for Bhagavān, I consider that the best learning.” Śrīdhara's commentary: “If it is performed already offered, and not first performed and offered afterward, I consider that the best learning. The sense is: nothing of that kind have I studied or learned from this teacher.” That is, first self-surrender, then the activity of serving Hari — this alone is the rule. Only then may the study of scripture be considered the best. No learning or study can be higher than worship of Viṣṇu preceded by self-surrender.

Under the sway of ignorance (avidyā), the proud man who prides himself on worldly learning disregards Viṣṇu, the life of the bride of transcendental knowledge. Since that hypocrite does not surrender to Viṣṇu, the eternal, real Substance, knowledge does not dawn in his heart, stained with sin. Therefore it is said (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 11.11.18): “If one expert in the śabda-brahman is not absorbed in the Supreme, his labor yields him only labor, like one who tends a cow that gives no milk.” If someone, though thoroughly versed in the Vedas and other scriptures, is not devoted to Viṣṇu, the Parabrahman, all his labor in studying scripture ends only in useless toil.

তথাপি দাম্ভিক পড়ুয়া নম্র নাহি হয় ।
যাহাঁ তাহাঁ প্রভুর নিন্দা হাসি’ সে করয় ॥ ২৫৮ ॥

tathāpi dāmbhika paḍuyā namra nāhi haya still proud students humble not become yāhāṅ tāhāṅ prabhura nindā hāsi’ se karaya
here and there of the Lord reviling laughing they do

258 Still the proud students did not become humble; everywhere they laughed and reviled the Lord.

*Seeing the wretched fate of the pāṣaṇḍīs, the Lord is filled with compassion —*

সর্ব্বজ্ঞ গোসাঞি জানি’ সবার দুর্গতি । ঘরে বসি’ চিন্তেন তা’-সবার অব্যাহতি ॥ ২৫৯ ॥

sarva-jña gosāñi jāni’ sabāra durgati
the omniscient Lord knowing of all the plight
ghare vasi’ cintena tā’-sabāra avyāhati
at home sitting thinks of their deliverance

259 The omniscient Lord knew the plight that awaited them all, and sitting at home, He thought of how to deliver them:

Who the nondevotees are —

যত অধ্যাপক, আর তাঁর শিষ্যগণ ৷
ধর্ম্মী, কর্ম্মী, তপোনিষ্ঠ, নিন্দক, দুর্জ্জন ॥ ২৬০ ॥

yata adhyāpaka, āra tāṅra śiṣya-gaṇa
all teachers and their students
dharmī, karmī, tapo-niṣṭha, nindaka, durjana
religious ritualists devoted to austerity blasphemers wicked

260 “All these teachers and their students are given to religious duties, to fruitive works and to austerity, yet they are blasphemers and wicked.

The Lord ponders how to free them from the offense of enmity toward Kṛṣṇa —

এই সব মোর নিন্দা-অপরাধ হৈতে ৷ আমি না লওয়াইলে ভক্তি, না পারে লইতে ॥ ২৬১ ॥

ei saba mora nindā-aparādha haite
these all of My blasphemy the offense because of āmi nā laoyāile bhakti, nā pāre laite
I not make take devotion not can take

261 Because of their offense in reviling Me, they cannot take up devotion unless I make them take it.

নিস্তারিতে আইলাম আমি, হৈল বিপরীত ৷ এসব দুর্জ্জনের কৈছে হইবেক হিত ॥ ২৬২ ॥

nistārite āilāma āmi, haila viparīta
to deliver came I became the opposite esaba durjanera kaiche haibeka hita
these wicked people’s how will be good

262 I came to deliver them, but the opposite has happened. How will these wicked people be benefited?

Anubhāṣya.

The Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 25: “I tried to cure the phlegm with bits of pippalī, but instead the phlegm in the body only increased.”

আমাকে প্রণতি করে, হয় পাপক্ষয় । তবে সে ইহারে ভক্তি লওয়াইলে লয় ॥ ২৬৩ ॥

āmāke praṇati kare, haya pāpa-kṣaya
to Me obeisance they make is destruction of sins
tabe se ihāre bhakti laoyāile laya
then they these devotion if made to take take 263 If they bow down to Me, their sins will be destroyed; then they will take up devotion when I give it.

Anubhāṣya.

A smārta student sunk in karma could not understand that the Lord's anger toward Kṛṣṇa and His reproaches of Kṛṣṇa in the mood of a gopī were transcendental, and he argued with the Lord. The Lord, full of the mood of a gopī, took him for Kṛṣṇa's partisan and angrily chased him, and the student fled. Seeing this, the so-called brāhmaṇas (brāhmaṇa-bruvas), sunk in karma and averse to Hari, deluded as they were, plotted to beat the Lord. And the Lord, to free them from their evil fate and misery, wished to accept the fourth āśrama — the āśrama of the guru of those who, in the eyes of worldly society, are highest in birth and proud of their varṇa. See the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 25.

*The Lord wishes to deliver the pāṣaṇḍīs —*

মোরে নিন্দা করে যে, না করে নমস্কার । এসব জীবেরে অবশ্য করিব উদ্ধার ॥ ২৬৪ ॥

more nindā kare ye, nā kare namaskāra Me reviling do who not do obeisance
esaba jīvere avaśya kariba uddhāra
these souls surely I will make deliverance

264 Those who revile Me and do not bow down to Me — these souls I must surely deliver.

*The resolve to enact the pastime of sannyāsa, honored by the world —*

অতএব অবশ্য আমি সন্ন্যাস করিব । সন্ন্যাসি-বুদ্ধ্যে মোরে প্রণত হইব ॥ ২৬৫ ॥

ataeva avaśya āmi sannyāsa kariba therefore surely I sannyāsa will take sannyāsi-buddhye more praṇata haiba thinking (Me) a sannyāsī to Me bowing they will be 265 Therefore I shall certainly accept sannyāsa; thinking of Me as a sannyāsī, they will bow down to Me.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

According to the scriptures, when a brāhmaṇa accepts sannyāsa, everyone — householders, brāhmaṇas and all the rest — bows to him with the thought of a sannyāsī, that is, knowing that a sannyāsī is worthy of obeisance. If I accept sannyāsa, the blaspheming brāhmaṇas will surely bow down to Me and receive good sense from Me.

*By bowing to the Lord as a sannyāsī, even the pāṣaṇḍīs — brāhmaṇas and other high castes — will be purified in heart, and the urge to serve will awaken* in them —

প্রণতিতে হ’বে ইহার অপরাধ ক্ষয় । নির্ম্মল হৃদয়ে ভক্তি করাইব উদয় ॥ ২৬৬ ॥

praṇatite ha’be ihāra aparādha kṣaya
by bowing will be their offenses destroyed
nirmala hṛdaye bhakti karāiba udaya
in pure hearts devotion I will make arise

266 By bowing down their offenses will be destroyed, and in their purified hearts I will make devotion arise.

Anubhāṣya.
Mahāprabhu was convinced that even so-called brāhmaṇas, pāṣaṇḍīs by nature, would prostrate themselves before a Vaiṣṇava sannyāsī; and in those days such was proper conduct (sadācāra) as well. Nowadays, however, there are people even more arrogant than those so-called brāhmaṇas, who do not prostrate themselves before a Vaiṣṇava sannyāsī. For them the scripture enjoins: “A man who sees a Deity or a tridaṇḍī yati and does not bow down must perform atonement.” (A variant reading: “…if he does not bow down, he is purified by fasting.”) That is, if some so-called brāhmaṇa sees the Deity of Śrī Viṣṇu, the supreme Godhead, or a Vaiṣṇava tridaṇḍi-sannyāsī and does not bow down, then for that lapse he must perform atonement or be purified by fasting.

এসব পাষণ্ডীর তবে হইবে নিস্তার । আর কোন উপায় নাহি, এই যুক্তি সার ॥ ২৬৭ ॥

esaba pāṣaṇḍīra tabe haibe nistāra
these unbelievers’ then will be deliverance
āra kona upāya nāhi, ei yukti sāra
other any means none this reasoning the essence

267 Then these unbelievers will be delivered. There is no other means — this is the essence of My reasoning.”

At that time Keśava Bhāratī accepts alms in the Lord's house in Navadvīpa —

এই দৃঢ় যুক্তি করি’ প্রভু আছে ঘরে । কেশব ভারতী আইলা নদীয়া-নগরে ॥ ২৬৮ ॥

ei dṛḍha yukti kari’ prabhu āche ghare
this firm resolve making the Lord is at home
keśava bhāratī āilā nadīyā-nagare
Keśava Bhāratī came to the town of Nadīyā

268 Having firmly resolved this, the Lord stayed at home. Then Keśava Bhāratī came to the town of Nadīyā.

প্রভু তাঁরে নমস্করি’ কৈল নিমন্ত্রণ । ভিক্ষা করাইয়া তাঁরে কৈল নিবেদন ॥ ২৬৯ ॥

prabhu tāṅre namaskari’ kaila nimantraṇa
the Lord him bowing to made an invitation
bhikṣā karāiyā tāṅre kaila nivedana
alms having fed to him made a request

269 The Lord bowed to him and invited him, and after feeding him, He made a request:

The Lord appeals to Bhāratī —

তুমি ত’ ঈশ্বর বট, — সাক্ষাৎ নারায়ণ । কৃপা করি’ কর মোর সংসার মোচন ॥ ২৭০ ॥

tumi ta’ īśvara baṭa, — sākṣāt nārāyaṇa
you indeed a lord are Nārāyaṇa in person
kṛpā kari’ kara mora saṁsāra mocana
mercy making make My from worldly life release

270 “You are indeed a lord — Nārāyaṇa in person. Be merciful and release Me from worldly life.”

Bhāratī's words —

ভারতী কহেন, — তুমি ঈশ্বর, অন্তর্য্যামী । যে কহ, সে করিব, — স্বতন্ত্র নহি আমি ॥ ২৭১ ॥

bhāratī kahena, — tumi īśvara, antaryāmī Bhāratī says You God the knower of every heart
ye kaha, se kariba, — svatantra nahi āmi
what You say that I will do independent not I

271 Bhāratī said: “You are God, the knower of every heart. Whatever You say, I will do; I am not independent.”

*Bhāratī returns to Kāṭoyā, and the Lord accepts sannyāsa from him —*

এত বলি’ ভারতী গোসাঞি কাটোয়াতে গেলা । মহাপ্রভু তাহা যাই’ সন্ন্যাস করিলা ॥ ২৭২ ॥

eta bali’ bhāratī gosāñi kāṭoyāte gelā
so saying Bhāratī Gosāñi to Kāṭoyā went mahāprabhu tāhā yāi’ sannyāsa karilā
Mahāprabhu there going sannyāsa accepted

272 Saying this, Bhāratī Gosāñi went to Kāṭoyā, and Mahāprabhu went there and accepted sannyāsa.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

At the end of Mahāprabhu's twenty-fourth year, on the day of the saṅkramaṇa (the sun's passage into a new sign) that begins the uttarāyaṇa and that fell in the bright fortnight of Māgha, Mahāprabhu left Śrī Navadvīpa at the end of the night. He swam across the Gaṅgā at “Nidayā's Ghāṭa,” reached Kaṇṭakanagara, that is, the village of Kāṭoyā, and accepted (one) daṇḍa from Keśava Bhāratī. On Mahāprabhu's order Candraśekhara Ācāryaratna performed all the ritual parts of sannyāsa. The kīrtana went on all day, and only when the day was nearly over was the shaving of the head completed. The next morning Śrī Kṛṣṇa Caitanya, dressed as a sannyāsī and bearing the daṇḍa, set out to wander through Rāḍha-deśa. Keśava Bhāratī went with Him for some distance.

At the Lord's sannyāsa: Nitāi, Ācāryaratna and Mukunda —

সঙ্গে নিত্যানন্দ, চন্দ্রশেখর আচার্য্য ।
মুকুন্দদত্ত, — এই তিন কৈল সর্ব্ব কার্য্য ॥ ২৭৩ ॥

saṅge nityānanda, candraśekhara ācārya
with Him Nityānanda Candraśekhara Ācārya
mukunda-datta, — ei tina kaila sarva kārya
Mukunda Datta these three did all the duties

273 With Him were Nityānanda, Candraśekhara Ācārya and Mukunda Datta; these three performed all the necessary duties.

এই আদি-লীলার কৈল সূত্র গণন ।
বিস্তারি বর্ণিলা ইহা দাস বৃন্দাবন ॥ ২৭৪ ॥

ei ādi-līlāra kaila sūtra gaṇana
this of the Ādi-līlā I made in summary the list
vistāri varṇilā ihā dāsa vṛndāvana
in detail has described this dāsa Vṛndāvana

274 Thus I have listed the Ādi-līlā in summary; Vṛndāvana dāsa has described it in detail.

Anubhāṣya.
See the Caitanya-bhāgavata, Madhya, Chapter 26.

The Lord's states of heart in the moods of dāsya, sakhya, vātsalya and madhura (but not śānta) —

যশোদানন্দন হৈলা শচীর নন্দন । চতুর্ব্বিধ ভক্তভাব করে আস্বাদন ॥ ২৭৫ ॥

yaśodā-nandana hailā śacīra nandana Yaśodā's son became of Śacī the son caturvidha bhakta-bhāva kare āsvādana
four kinds of devotees' moods He makes tasting

275 The son of Yaśodā has become the son of Śacī, and He tastes the four kinds of devotees' moods.

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
Caturvidha bhakta-bhāva (the four kinds of devotees' moods) — the four kinds of devotional mood based on the rasas of dāsya, sakhya, vātsalya and madhura.

*Gaurasundara is Himself the viṣaya-vigraha, filled with the bhāva of the āśraya; refutation of the "Gaura-nāgarī" doctrine —*

স্বমাধুর্য্য রাধা-প্রেমরস আস্বাদিতে । রাধাভাব অঙ্গী করিয়াছে ভালমতে ॥ ২৭৬ ॥

sva-mādhurya rādhā-prema-rasa āsvādite
His own sweetness of Rādhā's love the rasa to taste
rādhā-bhāva aṅgī kariyāche bhāla-mate Rādhā's mood accepted He has fully 276 To taste His own sweetness and the rasa of Rādhā's love, He has fully accepted Rādhā's mood.

গোপী-ভাব যাতে প্রভু ধরিয়াছে একান্ত । ব্রজেন্দ্রনন্দনে মানে আপনার কান্ত ॥ ২৭৭ ॥

gopī-bhāva yāte prabhu dhariyāche ekānta
the gopīs' mood since the Lord has taken wholly vrajendra-nandane māne āpanāra kānta
the son of the king of Vraja regards as His own beloved 277 Because the Lord has wholly taken the gopīs' mood, He regards the son of the king of Vraja as His beloved.

গোপিকা-ভাবের এই সুদৃঢ় নিশ্চয় । ব্রজেন্দ্রনন্দন বিনা অন্যত্র না হয় ॥ ২৭৮ ॥

gopikā-bhāvera ei sudṛḍha niścaya
of the gopīs' mood this firm conviction
vrajendra-nandana vinā anyatra nā haya
the son of the king of Vraja except elsewhere not it is

278 This is the firm conviction of the gopīs' love: it cannot exist toward anyone but the son of the king of Vraja —

Anubhāṣya.
Śrī Gaurasundara is Kṛṣṇa illumined by the mood and luster of Śrī Rādhā. Therefore, for the sake of serving Śrī Kṛṣṇa, He never gave up the heartfelt mood of Śrīmatī Rādhikā and the other gopīs, the mood of the āśraya. Never, like Śrī Kṛṣṇa Himself, did He take on the conduct of the viṣaya; that is, never, conceiving of Himself as the enjoyer, did He display the ways of a "lecherous nāgara," such as looking at other men's wives. The worldly, lustful Sahajiyā sect, lechers after other men's wives, try to load their own abominable lustful thirst and adultery onto the shoulders of Śrī Gaurasundara, the guru of the world, who displays the pastimes of an ācārya. But by this they only increase their offense at the feet of Śrī Svarūpa Dāmodara, the crest jewel of Vaiṣṇava ācāryas, and of Ṭhākura Vṛndāvana dāsa. The Caitanya-bhāgavata, Ādi, Chapter 15: "He never jested with other men's wives; when He saw a woman, the Lord moved far to one side. In this way He was playful with everyone — only at women would He not look even from the corner of His eye. In this avatāra the Lord would not even let the word 'woman' reach His ears — this is known to all the world. Therefore no great soul ever offers a prayer such as 'Gaurāṅga-nāgara.' Although every prayer befits Him, the wise still sing only of His true nature." In these three verses the imaginary "Gaura-nāgarī doctrine," which opposes the conclusions of devotion and is nourished by immorality, is clearly refuted.

*The gopīs have no love for any form other than Kṛṣṇa's svayaṁ-rūpa —*

শ্যামসুন্দর, শিখিপিচ্ছ-গুঞ্জা-বিভূষণ । গোপ-বেশ, ত্রিভঙ্গিম, মুরলী-বদন ॥ ২৭৯ ॥

śyāmasundara, śikhi-piccha-guñjā-vibhūṣaṇa Śyāmasundara with peacock feather and guñjā adorned gopa-veśa, tri-bhaṅgima, muralī-vadana
in cowherd dress bent in three places the flute at His lips

279 Śyāmasundara, adorned with a peacock feather and guñjā berries, dressed as a cowherd, His body bent in three places, the flute at His lips.

ইহা ছাড়ি’ কৃষ্ণ যদি হয় অন্যাকার । গোপিকার ভাব নাহি যায় নিকট তাহার ॥ ২৮০ ॥

ihā chāḍi’ kṛṣṇa yadi haya anyākāra
this leaving Kṛṣṇa if is of another form
gopikāra bhāva nāhi yāya nikaṭa tāhāra
the gopīs’ mood not goes near Him

280 If Kṛṣṇa leaves this form and takes another, the gopīs’ love does not even go near Him.

*(Lalita-mādhava, Act 6, verse 14)*

গোপীনাং পশুপেন্দ্রনন্দনজুষো ভাবস্য কস্তাং কৃতী
বিজ্ঞাতুং ক্ষমতে দুরূহপদবীসঞ্চারিণঃ প্রক্রিয়াম্ ।
আবিষ্কুর্ব্বতি বৈষ্ণবীমপি তনুং তস্মিন্ ভুজৈর্জিষ্ণুভি- র্যাসাং হন্ত চতুর্ভিরদ্ভুতরুচিং রাগোদয়ঃ কুঞ্চতি ॥ ২৮১ ॥

gopīnāṁ paśupendra-nandana-juṣo bhāvasya kas tāṁ kṛtī
of the gopīs the son of the king of the cowherds serving of the love who that wise man
vijñātuṁ kṣamate durūha-padavī-sañcāriṇaḥ prakriyām to understand is able on a hard-to-fathom path moving the course āviṣkurvati vaiṣṇavīm api tanuṁ tasmin bhujair jiṣṇubhir manifesting of Viṣṇu even a form in Him with arms victorious
yāsāṁ hanta caturbhir adbhuta-ruciṁ rāgodayaḥ kuñcati whose alas four of wondrous beauty the rise of love shrinks

281 “What wise man can understand the course of the gopīs’ love for the son of the king of the cowherds — love that moves on a path hard to fathom? Even when He reveals a form of Viṣṇu, wondrously beautiful with four victorious arms, alas, their rising love shrinks away.” (Lalita-mādhava 6.14)

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

Once Śrī Kṛṣṇa, in jest, manifested the four-armed form of Nārāyaṇa, endowed with wondrous beauty — and the love (rāga) of the gopīs, instead of awakening, shrank. So which paṇḍita can understand the workings of the gopīs' bhāva? For they follow the inaccessible path of parakīya, worshipping the son of Nanda alone.

Anubhāṣya.

Viśākhā's words to Savarṇā, the wife of Sūrya: gopīnāṁ durūha-padavī-sañcāriṇaḥ (whose nature is to move along a path hard to understand) paśupendra-nandana-juṣaḥ (of one who serves the son of the lord of the cowherds, Nanda, the king of the gopas — that is, wholly devoted to serving Kṛṣṇa) bhāvasya tāṁ prakriyāṁ vijñātuṁ (to understand) kaḥ kṛtī kṣamate (is able)? (For) hanta! jiṣṇubhiḥ (victorious) caturbhiḥ bhujaiḥ (the arms of the Nārāyaṇa form He has assumed) adbhuta-ruciṁ (whose luster, whose beauty, is wondrous — unearthly and full of radiance) vaiṣṇavīṁ tanuṁ āviṣkurvati (when He manifests) tasmin (in Kṛṣṇa) api yāsāṁ (of the gopīs) rāgodayaḥ kuñcati (does not blossom).

*Wishing to hide during the rāsa, Kṛṣṇa shows the gopīs a four-armed form and so protects Himself —*

বসন্তকালে রাসলীলা করে গোবর্দ্ধনে । অন্তর্দ্ধান কৈলা সঙ্কেত করি’ রাধা সনে ॥ ২৮২ ॥

vasanta-kāle rāsa-līlā kare govardhane
in spring the rāsa dance He does near Govardhana
antarddhāna kailā saṅketa kari’ rādhā sane disappearance He made a signal making with Rādhā

282 In spring, while performing the rāsa dance near Govardhana, Kṛṣṇa disappeared, having made a secret sign to Rādhā.

নিভৃতনিকুঞ্জে বসি’ দেখে রাধার বাট । অন্বেষিতে আইলা তাহাঁ গোপিকার ঠাট ॥ ২৮৩ ॥

nibhṛta-nikuñje vasi’ dekhe rādhāra bāṭa
in a secluded bower   sitting   watches   for Rādhā   the path anveṣite āilā tāhāṅ gopikāra ṭhāṭa
to search   came   there   of the gopīs   a crowd

283 Sitting in a secluded bower, He watched the path for Rādhā. Searching for Him, a crowd of gopīs came there.

Anubhāṣya.
Bāṭa — a path, a road. Ṭhāṭa — an army drawn up in ranks.

দূর হৈতে কৃষ্ণ দেখি’ বলে গোপীগণ । “এই দেখ কুঞ্জ-ভিতর ব্রজেন্দ্রনন্দন” ॥ ২৮৪ ॥

dūra haite kṛṣṇa dekhi’ bale gopī-gaṇa
from afar   Kṛṣṇa   seeing   say   the gopīs “ei dekha kuñja-bhitara vrajendra-nandana”
here   look   in the bower   the son of the king of Vraja

284 Seeing Kṛṣṇa from afar, the gopīs said, “Look, there in the bower is the son of the king of Vraja!”

গোপীগণ দেখি’ কৃষ্ণের হইল সাধ্বস । লুকাইতে নারিল, ভয়ে হৈলা বিবশ ॥ ২৮৫ ॥

gopī-gaṇa dekhi’ kṛṣṇera haila sādhvasa
the gopīs   seeing   of Kṛṣṇa   was   alarm
lukāite nārila, bhaye hailā vibaśa
to hide   could not   from fear   became   overpowered

285 Seeing the gopīs, Kṛṣṇa was alarmed; He could not hide, and fear overpowered Him.

Anubhāṣya.
Sādhvasa — fear, terror, apprehension, agitation of the mind, confusion.

চতুর্ভুজ মূর্ত্তি ধরি’ আছেন বসিয়া। কৃষ্ণ দেখি’ গোপী কহে নিকটে আসিয়া ॥ ২৮৬ ॥

catur-bhuja mūrti dhari’ āchena vasiyā
a four-armed form assuming He remains sitting kṛṣṇa dekhi’ gopī kahe nikaṭe āsiyā
Kṛṣṇa seeing the gopīs say near coming

286 Assuming a four-armed form, He remained seated. Seeing Kṛṣṇa so, the gopīs came near and said:

*The gopīs offer prayers to Nārāyaṇa —*

‘ইহোঁ কৃষ্ণ নহে, ইহোঁ নারায়ণ-মূর্ত্তি।’
এত বলি’ সবে তাঁরে করে নতি-স্তুতি ॥ ২৮৭ ॥

‘ihoṅ kṛṣṇa nahe, ihoṅ nārāyaṇa-mūrti’
this Kṛṣṇa not this a form of Nārāyaṇa eta bali’ sabe tāṅre kare nati-stuti
so saying all to Him make obeisance and prayers

287 “This is not Kṛṣṇa; this is a form of Nārāyaṇa.” Saying this, they all bowed to Him and offered prayers:

‘নমো নারায়ণ’, দেব করহ প্রসাদ।
কৃষ্ণসঙ্গ দেহ মোরে, ঘুচাহ বিষাদ ॥ ২৮৮ ॥

‘namo nārāyaṇa’, deva karaha prasāda obeisance to Nārāyaṇa O Lord show mercy
kṛṣṇa-saṅga deha more, ghucāha viṣāda
Kṛṣṇa’s company give us dispel sorrow

288 “Obeisance to Nārāyaṇa! O Lord, be gracious: grant us Kṛṣṇa’s company and dispel our sorrow.”

Anubhāṣya.
More — to us.

এত বলি নমস্করি’ গেলা গোপীগণ । হেনকালে রাধা আসি’ দিলা দরশন ॥ ২৮৯ ॥

eta bali namaskari’ gelā gopī-gaṇa
so saying bowing went the gopīs
hena-kāle rādhā āsi’ dilā daraśana
just then Rādhā coming gave sight (of Herself)

289 Saying this, the gopīs bowed and went away. Just then Rādhā came into view.

*As soon as Śrīmatī Rādhikā arrives, the four-armed form vanishes: the two-armed form is the svayaṁ-rūpa —*

রাধা দেখি’ কৃষ্ণ তাঁরে হাস্য করিতে । সেই চতুর্ভুজ মূর্ত্তি চাহেন রাখিতে ॥ ২৯০ ॥

rādhā dekhi’ kṛṣṇa tāṅre hāsya karite Rādhā seeing Kṛṣṇa Her a joke to make sei catur-bhuja mūrti cāhena rākhite that four-armed form wishes to keep

290 Seeing Rādhā, Kṛṣṇa wanted to keep that four-armed form to play a joke on Her.

লুকাইলা দুই ভুজ রাধার অগ্রেতে । বহু যত্ন কৈলা কৃষ্ণ, নারিল রাখিতে ॥ ২৯১ ॥

lukāilā dui bhuja rādhāra agrete vanished two arms of Rādhā before bahu yatna kailā kṛṣṇa, nārila rākhite much effort made Kṛṣṇa could not keep (them)

291 But before Rādhā two of His arms vanished; Kṛṣṇa tried hard, but could not keep them.

Śrī Rādhā's inconceivable love for Kṛṣṇa —

রাধার বিশুদ্ধ-ভাবের অচিন্ত্য প্রভাব । যে কৃষ্ণেরে করাইলা দ্বিভুজ স্বভাব ॥ ২৯২ ॥

rādhāra viśuddha-bhāvera acintya prabhāva
of Rādhā’s pure love the inconceivable power
ye kṛṣṇere karāilā dvi-bhuja svabhāva which Kṛṣṇa made the two-armed nature

292 Such is the inconceivable power of Rādhā’s pure love: it brought Kṛṣṇa back to His natural two-armed form.

Kṛṣṇa's cleverness is defeated before Śrī Rādhā; Śyāmasundara is the eternal svayaṁ-rūpa — (Ujjvala-nīlamaṇi, section 7, the words of Śrī Rūpa Gosvāmī)

রাসারম্ভবিধৌ নিলীয়বসতা কুঞ্জে মৃগাক্ষিগণৈ-
র্দৃষ্টং গোপয়িতুং স্বমুদ্ধুরধিয়া যা সুষ্ঠু সন্দর্শিতা ।
রাধায়াঃ প্রণয়স্য হন্ত মহিমা যস্য শ্রিয়া রক্ষিতুং সা শক্যা প্রভবিষ্ণুনাপি হরিণা নাসীচ্চতুর্ব্বাহুতা ॥ ২৯৩ ॥

rāsārambha-vidhau nilīya vasatā kuñje mṛgākṣi-gaṇair
in the rite of beginning the rāsa hiding sitting in a bower by the doe-eyed gopīs dṛṣṭaṁ gopayituṁ svam uddhura-dhiyā yā suṣṭhu sandarśitā seen to conceal Himself with a clever mind which well was displayed
rādhāyāḥ praṇayasya hanta mahimā yasya śriyā rakṣituṁ of Rādhā’s love behold the greatness whose by the splendor to keep sā śakyā prabhaviṣṇunāpi hariṇā nāsīc catur-bāhutā
that possible by the all-powerful even Hari not was four-armedness

293 “At the beginning of the rāsa dance Hari hid in a bower. When the doe-eyed gopīs found Him, He cleverly displayed a four-armed form to conceal Himself. But behold the greatness of Rādhā’s love: before its splendor even the all-powerful Hari could not keep His four arms.” (Ujjvala-nīlamaṇi, Nāyikā-bheda 7)

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.

At the beginning of the rāsa, Kṛṣṇa, in play, hid in a kuñja. Seeing the doe-eyed gopīs coming toward Him, He grew anxious and displayed His charming four-armed form. The ordinary gopīs said only, "This is not Śrī Kṛṣṇa, the object of our love." But how wondrous is the glory of Rādhā's love! As soon as Śrī Rādhā arrived, Kṛṣṇa, try as He might, could not keep that four-armed form.

Anubhāṣya.

govardhanopatyakāyāṁ (in the valley at Govardhana, at the site of the rāsa known as "Parāsaulī") vasanta-kāle (in spring) rāsārambha-vidhau (at the beginning of the rāsa dance, that is, when it was about to begin) kuñje nilīya vasatā (hiding) hariṇā (by Śrī Kṛṣṇa) mṛgākṣi-gaṇaiḥ (doe-eyed) gopībhiḥ (by the gopīs — in the forest Praviṣṭaka, called Peṭhā) dṛṣṭaṁ svam (Himself) gopayituṁ (to hide — for the many gopīs had surrounded that kuñja on all sides, and it was impossible to slip away from it suddenly) uddhura-dhiyā (with superb intelligence) yā catur-bāhutā suṣṭhu sandarśitā, yasya (of the glory of love for Kṛṣṇa) śriyā prabhaviṣṇunā (by Kṛṣṇa) api sā catur-bāhutā rakṣituṁ na śakyā āsīt — hanta (oh!) rādhāyāḥ praṇayasya mahimā (glory) — (so inconceivable is it). (In the Gautamīya-tantra: "…dwelling on the beautiful hill of Govardhana, eager to taste the rasa of the rāsa dance." Bhagavān is subordinate to prema; still, one cannot say that His majesty ceases to exist before prema, for it is eternal; rather, it becomes hidden.)

Nanda is Jagannātha Miśra; Yaśodā is Śacī —

সেই ব্রজেশ্বর — ইঁহ জগন্নাথ পিতা । সেই ব্রজেশ্বরী — ইঁহ শচীদেবী মাতা ॥ ২৯৪ ॥

sei vrajeśvara — iṅha jagannātha pitā that king of Vraja now Jagannātha the father sei vrajeśvarī — iṅha śacīdevī mātā
that queen of Vraja now Śacīdevī the mother

294 That king of Vraja is now Jagannātha, the father; that queen of Vraja is now Śacīdevī, the mother.

Kānāi and Balāi of Vraja are Gaura and Nitāi of Gauḍa —

সেই নন্দসুত — ইঁহ চৈতন্য-গোসাঞি । সেই বলদেব — ইঁহ নিত্যানন্দ-ভাই ॥ ২৯৫ ॥

sei nanda-suta — iṅha caitanya-gosāñi
that son of Nanda now Caitanya Gosāñi sei baladeva — iṅha nityānanda-bhāi
that Baladeva now brother Nityānanda

295 That son of Nanda is now Caitanya Gosāñi; that Baladeva is now His brother Nityānanda.

Nityānanda Rāma serves Gaura-Kṛṣṇa in all the rasas except madhura —

বাৎসল্য, দাস্য, সখ্য — তিন ভাবময় । সেই নিত্যানন্দ — কৃষ্ণচৈতন্য-সহায় ॥ ২৯৬ ॥

vātsalya, dāsya, sakhya — tina bhāvamaya
parental love servitude friendship three full of moods sei nityānanda — kṛṣṇa-caitanya-sahāya
that Nityānanda Kṛṣṇa Caitanya's helper

296 Full of three moods — parental affection, servitude and friendship — that Nityānanda is the helper of Kṛṣṇa Caitanya.

প্রেম ভক্তি দিয়া তেঁহো ভাসাল জগতে । তাঁর চরিত্র-চিত্র লোকে না পারে বুঝিতে ॥ ২৯৭ ॥

prema bhakti diyā teṅho bhāsāla jagate
love devotion giving He flooded the world
tāṅra caritra-citra loke nā pāre bujhite
His wonderful character people not can understand

297 Giving loving devotion, He flooded the world. People cannot understand His wonderful character.

Advaita, the avatāra of a devotee, preaches pure devotion —

অদ্বৈত-আচার্য্য-গোসাঞি ভক্ত-অবতার । কৃষ্ণ অবতারিয়া কৈলা ভক্তির প্রচার ॥ ২৯৮ ॥

advaita-ācārya-gosāñi bhakta-avatāra Advaita Ācārya Gosāñi the devotee-incarnation
kṛṣṇa avatāriyā kailā bhaktira pracāra
Kṛṣṇa bringing down He made of bhakti the preaching

298 Advaita Ācārya Gosāñi is the incarnation as a devotee. Bringing Kṛṣṇa down to this world, He preached devotion.

Advaita serves Gaura-Kṛṣṇa in two moods —

সখ্য, দাস্য, — দুই ভাব সহজ তাঁহার । কভু প্রভু করেন তাঁরে গুরু-ব্যবহার ॥ ২৯৯ ॥

sakhya, dāsya, — dui bhāva sahaja tāṅhāra friendship servitude two moods natural His kabhu prabhu karena tāṅre guru-vyavahāra
sometimes the Lord makes toward Him dealings as with a guru

299 Friendship and servitude — these two moods are natural to Him. Sometimes the Lord treats Him as His guru.

The dāsya of Śrīvāsa and the other pure devotees —

শ্রীবাসাদি যত মহাপ্রভুর ভক্তগণ । নিজ নিজ ভাবে করেন চৈতন্য-সেবন ॥ ৩০০ ॥

śrīvāsādi yata mahāprabhura bhakta-gaṇa Śrīvāsa and the other all Mahāprabhu’s devotees
nija nija bhāve karena caitanya-sevana
in their own moods do service to Caitanya

300 Śrīvāsa and all of Mahāprabhu’s other devotees serve Caitanya, each in his own mood.

*The Lord's potencies — Gadādhara, Svarūpa, Rāmānanda, Śrī Rūpa and others — serve Gaura-Kṛṣṇa in madhura-rasa —*

পণ্ডিত গোসাঞি আদি যাঁর যেই রস । সেই সেই রসে প্রভু হন তাঁর বশ ॥ ৩০১ ॥

paṇḍita gosāñi ādi yāṅra yei rasa Paṇḍita Gosāñi and others whose whatever rasa sei sei rase prabhu hana tāṅra vaśa
by that very rasa the Lord is their controlled

301 Whatever the rasa of each — of Paṇḍita Gosāñi (Gadādhara) and the others — by that rasa the Lord comes under his control.

Anubhāṣya.
These verses describe the gradations in the wondrous variety of moods in which Śrī Nityānanda and Śrī Advaita serve Gaura, transcendentally and supremely marvelously. The Gaura-gaṇoddeśa-dīpikā (11–16): “Gauracandra is in the form of a devotee, for He is the son of Nanda. Nityānanda, who in Vraja is Śrī Halāyudha, is a devotee by His very nature. Ācārya Advaita, who is Śrī Sadāśiva, is the avatāra of a devotee. Śrīnivāsa and the others are called devotees, for they are in the form of devotees. The foremost of the twice-born, Śrī Gadādhara Paṇḍita, is the potency of a devotee. Śrīmad Viśvambhara, Advaita and the avadhūta Nityānanda — here three vigrahas are to be recognized, and all three are prabhus. One is Mahāprabhu, Śrī Caitanya, the ocean of mercy; two are prabhus, the illustrious great souls Nityānanda and Advaita. They are gosvāmīs and vigrahas; and together with Gadādhara, the twice-born, and Śrīnivāsa Paṇḍita, they make up the Pañca-tattva. On this the Gosvāmī Śrī Svarūpa, whose feet are lotuses, said: ‘Here three vigrahas are to be known, and these three are prabhus: one is Mahāprabhu, and two are prabhus; so the saintly hold.’” Ibid., verses 23–24: Śrī Īśvara Purī served in śṛṅgāra-rasa, Advaita Prabhu in dāsya- and sakhya-rasa, and Śrī Raṅgapurī in pure vātsalya-rasa. See Ādi 7.10–17.

*In Vraja, the pastimes of Śyāma, the cowherd's son with the flute at His lips; in Gauḍa, the pastimes of Gaura, the embodiment of kīrtana in the guise of a* _brāhmaṇa and a sannyāsī —_

তিঁহ শ্যাম, — বংশীমুখ, গোপবিলাসী । ইঁহ গৌর — কভু দ্বিজ, কভু ত’ সন্ন্যাসী ॥ ৩০২ ॥

tihaṅ śyāma, — vaṁśī-mukha, gopa-vilāsī
there dark flute at the lips sporting as a cowherd
ihaṅ gaura — kabhu dvija, kabhu ta’ sannyāsī
here golden sometimes a brāhmaṇa sometimes indeed a sannyāsī

302 There He was dark, the flute at His lips, sporting as a cowherd; here He is golden — sometimes a brāhmaṇa, sometimes a sannyāsī.

Kṛṣṇa, filled with the mood of the gopīs, tastes love for Kṛṣṇa in the form of Gaura —

অতএব আপনে প্রভু গোপীভাব ধরি’ । ব্রজেন্দ্রনন্দনে কহে ‘প্রাণনাথ’ করি’ ॥ ৩০৩ ॥

ataeva āpane prabhu gopī-bhāva dhari’ therefore Himself the Lord the gopīs’ mood taking vrajendra-nandane kahe ‘prāṇa-nātha’ kari’
the son of the king of Vraja calls ‘Lord of My life’ making

303 Therefore the Lord Himself, taking the gopīs’ mood, calls the son of the king of Vraja “Lord of My life.”

Without following those who follow Rūpa, Gaura's rasa of separation (vipralambha) cannot be fathomed —

সেই কৃষ্ণ, সেই গোপী, — পরম বিরোধ । অচিন্ত্য চরিত্র প্রভুর অতি সুদুর্ব্বোধ ॥ ৩০৪ ॥

sei kṛṣṇa, sei gopī, — parama virodha that Kṛṣṇa that gopī supreme contradiction
acintya caritra prabhura ati sudurbodha inconceivable the character of the Lord very hard to understand

304 He is Kṛṣṇa, and He is a gopī — a supreme contradiction. The Lord’s inconceivable character is very hard to understand.

Anubhāṣya.
See Ādi 17.276–278.

Gaura's inconceivable moods, full of supreme and wondrous variety, are beyond logic —

ইথে তর্ক করি’ কেহ না কর সংশয় । কৃষ্ণের অচিন্ত্য শক্তি এই মত হয় ॥ ৩০৫ ॥

ithe tarka kari’ keha nā kara saṁśaya
in this reasoning using anyone not make doubt kṛṣṇera acintya śakti ei mata haya Kṛṣṇa’s inconceivable power this way is 305 Let no one raise doubts about this by reasoning: such is Kṛṣṇa’s inconceivable power.

অচিন্ত্য, অদ্ভুত কৃষ্ণচৈতন্য-বিহার । চিত্র ভাব, চিত্র গুণ, চিত্র ব্যবহার ॥ ৩০৬ ॥

acintya, adbhuta kṛṣṇa-caitanya-vihāra inconceivable wondrous Kṛṣṇa Caitanya’s pastimes
citra bhāva, citra guṇa, citra vyavahāra wonderful moods wonderful qualities wonderful conduct

306 Inconceivable and wondrous are the pastimes of Kṛṣṇa Caitanya — wonderful His moods, wonderful His qualities, wonderful His conduct.

The wretched fate of the logician: “The doubter perishes”[5] —

তর্কে ইহা নাহি মানে যেই দুরাচার । কুম্ভীপাকে পচে সেই, নাহিক নিস্তার ॥ ৩০৭ ॥

tarke ihā nāhi māne yei durācāra
by logic this not accepts who wicked man kumbhīpāke pace sei, nāhika nistāra
in Kumbhīpāka rots he there is no deliverance

307 The wicked man who rejects this on the strength of logic rots in the hell Kumbhīpāka; there is no deliverance for him.

Anubhāṣya.
Kumbhīpāka — a particular hell, where sinners are cooked in a special vessel called a kumbhī. (Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 5.26.13): “One who in this world cruelly cooks animals or birds alive — merciless, despised even by man-eaters — is cooked in the next world by the servants of Yama in Kumbhīpāka, in boiling oil.” The jīva who kills living beings deserves Yama's punishment and is cooked in Kumbhīpāka.

*(Bhakti-rasāmṛta-sindhu, the wave on sthāyi-bhāva, 93)*

অচিন্ত্যাঃ খলু যে ভাবা ন তাংস্তর্কেণ যোজয়েৎ ।
প্রকৃতিভ্যঃ পরং যচ্চ তদচিন্ত্যস্য লক্ষণম্ ॥ ৩০৮ ॥

acintyāḥ khalu ye bhāvā
inconceivable indeed which matters
na tāṁs tarkeṇa yojayet
not them by logic one should approach prakṛtibhyaḥ paraṁ yac ca material nature beyond what and tad acintyasya lakṣaṇam
that of the inconceivable the mark

308 “Matters that are inconceivable should not be approached by logic. What lies beyond material nature — that is the mark of the inconceivable.” (Bhakti-rasāmṛta-sindhu 2.5.93)

Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.
The truth that lies beyond prakṛti — that is the mark of the inconceivable. Logic (tarka) is material, and so it cannot touch that truth. Therefore one should not apply logic to what is inconceivable.

Thus ends the seventeenth chapter of the “Amṛta-pravāha-bhāṣya.”

Anubhāṣya.

Dhṛtarāṣṭra wished to hear the names of the rivers, mountains, forests and other things on the earth, and in reply to his question Sañjaya said: ye bhāvāḥ acintyāḥ (beyond thought that is full of material enjoyment) khalu (certainly), tān acintya-bhāvān tarkeṇa na yojayet (meaning: one should not assail them with arguments); yat ca prakṛtibhyaḥ param (other, beyond — in short, transcendental), tat eva acintyasya lakṣaṇam.

Only one who has faith attains service —

অদ্ভুত চৈতন্যলীলায় যাহার বিশ্বাস । সেই জন যায় চৈতন্যের পদ-পাশ ॥ ৩০৯ ॥

adbhuta caitanya-līlāya yāhāra viśvāsa
in the wondrous pastimes of Caitanya whose faith
sei jana yāya caitanyera pada-pāśa that person goes Caitanya’s feet near 309 Whoever has faith in Caitanya’s wondrous pastimes comes to Caitanya’s feet.

প্রসঙ্গে কহিল এই সিদ্ধান্তের সার । ইহা যেই শুনে, শুদ্ধভক্তি হয় তার ॥ ৩১০ ॥

prasaṅge kahila ei siddhāntera sāra
in the course of narration I have told this conclusion’s essence ihā yei śune, śuddha-bhakti haya tāra
this whoever hears pure devotion is his 310 In the course of the narration I have told the essence of this conclusion. Whoever hears it attains pure devotion.

Repetition —

লিখিত গ্রন্থের যদি করি অনুবাদ । তবে সে গ্রন্থের অর্থ পাইবে আস্বাদ ॥ ৩১১ ॥

likhita granthera yadi kari anuvāda
written of the book if I make repetition
tabe se granthera artha pāibe āsvāda
then that book’s meaning will get taste

311 If I repeat what has been written in the book, then its meaning will be relished.

*The chapters described after the manner of Śrī Vyāsa in the Bhāgavatam —*

অতএব ভাগবতে ব্যাসের আচার । কথা কহি’ অনুবাদ করে বার বার ॥ ৩১২ ॥

ataeva bhāgavate vyāsera ācāra
therefore in the Bhāgavata Vyāsa’s practice
kathā kahi’ anuvāda kare vāra vāra
a story telling repetition makes again and again

312 That is why in the Bhāgavata Vyāsa, having told a story, repeats it again and again.

Anubhāṣya.
At the end of the Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam, in the twelfth chapter of the twelfth canto, Śrī Kṛṣṇa Dvaipāyana Vedavyāsa summarized the entire Bhāgavatam from beginning to end in 52 verses and so concluded the book. Following the path shown by that mahājana, the author too briefly recapitulates Śrī Caitanya's Ādi-līlā.

Repetition, briefly describing the chapters —

তাতে আদি-লীলার করি পরিচ্ছেদ গণন । প্রথম পরিচ্ছেদে কৈল ‘মঙ্গলাচরণ’ ॥ ৩১৩ ॥

tāte ādi-līlāra kari pariccheda gaṇana
so of the Ādi-līlā I make the chapters’ list
prathama paricchede kaila ‘maṅgalācaraṇa’
in the first chapter I made the auspicious invocation

313 So I list the chapters of the Ādi-līlā. In the first chapter I gave the auspicious invocation.

দ্বিতীয় পরিচ্ছেদে ‘চৈতন্যতত্ত্ব-নিরূপণ’ । স্বয়ং ভগবান্ যেই ব্রজেন্দ্রনন্দন ॥ ৩১৪ ॥

dvitīya paricchede ‘caitanya-tattva-nirūpaṇa’
in the second   chapter   the establishment of the truth about Caitanya
svayaṁ bhagavān yei vrajendra-nandana
Bhagavān Himself   who   the son of the king of Vraja

314 In the second chapter, the establishment of the truth about Caitanya: that the son of the king of Vraja, Bhagavān Himself,

তিঁহ ত’ চৈতন্য-কৃষ্ণ — শচীর নন্দন । তৃতীয় পরিচ্ছেদে জন্মের ‘সামান্য’ কারণ ॥ ৩১৫ ॥

tiṅha ta’ caitanya-kṛṣṇa — śacīra nandana
He   indeed   Caitanya-Kṛṣṇa   of Śacī   the son tṛtīya paricchede janmera ‘sāmānya’ kāraṇa
in the third   chapter   of the birth   the general   reason

315 is Caitanya-Kṛṣṇa, the son of Śacī. In the third chapter, the general reason for His birth;

তহিঁ মধ্যে প্রেমদান — ‘বিশেষ’ কারণ । যুগধর্ম্ম — কৃষ্ণনাম-প্রেম-প্রচারণ ॥ ৩১৬ ॥

tahiṅ madhye prema-dāna — ‘viśeṣa’ kāraṇa
within that   the gift of love   the special   reason yuga-dharma — kṛṣṇa-nāma-prema-pracāraṇa
the religion of the age   the spreading of Kṛṣṇa’s name and love

316 within it also the special reason, the giving of love, and the religion of the age — the spreading of Kṛṣṇa’s name and of love.

চতুর্থে কহিল জন্মের ‘মূল’ কারণ । স্বমাধুর্য্য-প্রেমানন্দরস-আস্বাদন ॥ ৩১৭ ॥

caturthe kahila janmera ‘mūla’ kāraṇa
in the fourth I told of the birth the root reason
sva-mādhurya-premānanda-rasa-āsvādana of His own sweetness and of the bliss of love the rasa the tasting

317 In the fourth I told the root reason for His birth: to taste the rasa of His own sweetness and of the bliss of love.

পঞ্চমে ‘শ্রীনিত্যানন্দ’-তত্ত্ব নিরূপণ । নিত্যানন্দ হৈলা রাম রোহিণীনন্দন ॥ ৩১৮ ॥

pañcame ‘śrī-nityānanda’-tattva nirūpaṇa
in the fifth of Śrī Nityānanda the truth the establishment
nityānanda hailā rāma rohiṇī-nandana
Nityānanda is Rāma Rohiṇī’s son

318 In the fifth, the establishment of the truth about Śrī Nityānanda: Nityānanda is Rāma, the son of Rohiṇī.

ষষ্ঠ পরিচ্ছেদে ‘অদ্বৈত-তত্ত্বে’র বিচার । অদ্বৈত-আচার্য্য — মহাবিষ্ণু-অবতার ॥ ৩১৯ ॥

ṣaṣṭha paricchede ‘advaita-tattve’ra vicāra
in the sixth chapter of the truth about Advaita the examination
advaita-ācārya — mahā-viṣṇu-avatāra
Advaita Ācārya Mahā-Viṣṇu’s incarnation

319 In the sixth chapter, the examination of the truth about Advaita: Advaita Ācārya is the incarnation of Mahā-Viṣṇu.

সপ্তম পরিচ্ছেদে ‘পঞ্চতত্ত্বে’র আখ্যান । পঞ্চতত্ত্ব মিলি’ যৈছে কৈল প্রেমদান ॥ ৩২০ ॥

saptama paricchede ‘pañca-tattve’ra ākhyāna
in the seventh   chapter   of the Pañca-tattva   the account
pañca-tattva mili’ yaiche kaila prema-dāna
the Pañca-tattva   together   how   made   the gift of love

320 In the seventh chapter, the account of the Pañca-tattva, and how the Pañca-tattva together gave away love of God.

অষ্টমে ‘চৈতন্যলীলা-বর্ণন’-কারণ। এক কৃষ্ণনামের মহা-মহিমা-কথন ॥ ৩২১ ॥

aṣṭame ‘caitanya-līlā-varṇana’-kāraṇa
in the eighth   the reason   for describing Caitanya’s pastimes
eka kṛṣṇa-nāmera mahā-mahimā-kathana
of the one   Kṛṣṇa’s name   the great glory   the telling

321 In the eighth, the reason for describing Caitanya’s pastimes, and the telling of the great glory of the one name of Kṛṣṇa.

নবমেতে ‘ভক্তিকল্পবৃক্ষের বর্ণন’। শ্রীচৈতন্য-মালী কৈল বৃক্ষ আরোপণ ॥ ৩২২ ॥

navamete ‘bhakti-kalpa-vṛkṣera varṇana’
in the ninth   the description of the wish-fulfilling tree of bhakti
śrī-caitanya-mālī kaila vṛkṣa āropaṇa
Śrī Caitanya the gardener   made   the tree’s   planting

322 In the ninth, the description of the wish-fulfilling tree of devotion, which Śrī Caitanya, the gardener, planted.

দশমেতে মূল-স্কন্ধের ‘শাখাদি-গণন’। সর্ব্বশাখাগণের যৈছে ফল-বিতরণ ॥ ৩২৩ ॥

daśamete mūla-skandhera ‘śākhādi-gaṇana’
in the tenth   of the main trunk   the enumeration of branches and so on sarva-śākhā-gaṇera yaiche phala-vitaraṇa
of all   the branches   how   the distribution of fruit

323 In the tenth, the enumeration of the branches of the main trunk, and how all the branches distribute the fruit.

একাদশে 'নিত্যানন্দশাখা-বিবরণ' । দ্বাদশে 'অদ্বৈতস্কন্ধ শাখার বর্ণন' ॥ ৩২৪ ॥

ekādaśe 'nityānanda-śākhā-vivaraṇa'
in the eleventh the account of Nityānanda's branches
dvādaśe 'advaita-skandha śākhāra varṇana'
in the twelfth of the trunk Advaita the branches' description

324 In the eleventh, the account of Nityānanda's branches; in the twelfth, the description of the branches of the trunk Advaita.

ত্রয়োদশে মহাপ্রভুর 'জন্ম-বিবরণ' । কৃষ্ণনাম সহ যৈছে প্রভুর জনম ॥ ৩২৫ ॥

trayodaśe mahāprabhura 'janma-vivaraṇa'
in the thirteenth of Mahāprabhu the account of the birth
kṛṣṇa-nāma saha yaiche prabhura janama
Kṛṣṇa's name with how of the Lord the birth

325 In the thirteenth, the account of Mahāprabhu's birth — how the Lord was born together with the name of Kṛṣṇa.

চতুর্দ্দশে 'বাল্যলীলা'র কিছু বিবরণ । পঞ্চদশে 'পৌগণ্ডলীলা'র সংক্ষেপে কথন ॥ ৩২৬ ॥

caturdaśe 'bālya-līlā'ra kichu vivaraṇa
in the fourteenth of the childhood pastimes some account pañcadaśe 'paugaṇḍa-līlā'ra saṅkṣepe kathana
in the fifteenth of the paugaṇḍa pastimes briefly a telling

326 In the fourteenth, some account of His childhood pastimes; in the fifteenth, a brief telling of His paugaṇḍa pastimes.

ষোড়শে কহিল ‘কৈশোরলীলা’র উদ্দেশ। সপ্তদশে ‘যৌবনলীলা’ কহিল বিশেষ ॥ ৩২৭ ॥

ṣoḍaśe kahila ‘kaiśora-līlā’ra uddeśa
in the sixteenth I told of the kaiśora pastimes an outline
saptadaśe ‘yauvana-līlā’ kahila viśeṣa
in the seventeenth the pastimes of youth I told especially 327 In the sixteenth I outlined the kaiśora pastimes; in the seventeenth I told especially of the pastimes of youth.

Anubhāṣya.
Verses 313 to 327 list the chapters. In the first chapter — the maṅgalācaraṇa, with obeisance to the gurus and others. In the second — the maṅgalācaraṇa that points to the truth of Gaura. In the third — the general cause of the avatāra: the gift of prema. In the fourth — the root cause of the avatāra. In the fifth — the truth of Nityānanda. In the sixth — the truth of Advaita set forth. In the seventh — the Pañca-tattva set forth, and its preaching. In the eighth — the introduction and the glory of the name. In the ninth — the description of the wish-fulfilling tree of devotion, and its preaching. In the tenth — the list of Gaura's associates. In the eleventh — the list of Nityānanda's associates. In the twelfth — the list of Advaita's and Gadādhara's associates. In the thirteenth — Gaura's birth pastime. In the fourteenth — the pastimes of childhood. In the fifteenth — the paugaṇḍa pastimes. In the sixteenth — the kaiśora pastimes. In the seventeenth — the pastimes of youth.

এই সপ্তদশ প্রকার ‘আদি-লীলা’র প্রবন্ধ। দ্বাদশ প্রবন্ধ তাতে গ্রন্থ মুখবন্ধ ॥ ৩২৮ ॥

ei saptadaśa prakāra ‘ādi-līlā’ra prabandha
these seventeen kinds of the Ādi-līlā sections
dvādaśa prabandha tāte grantha mukhabandha
twelve sections among them the book’s preface

328 These are the seventeen sections of the Ādi-līlā; twelve of them form the preface to the book.

পঞ্চপ্রবন্ধে পঞ্চবয়স চরিত । সংক্ষেপে কহিল অতি, — না কৈল বিস্তৃত ॥ ৩২৯ ॥

pañca-prabandhe pañca-vayasa carita
in five sections of the five ages the deeds
saṅkṣepe kahila ati, — nā kaila vistṛta briefly I told very not I made detailed 329 In five sections I have told the deeds of the five ages — very briefly, without going into detail.

Anubhāṣya.

The Ādi-līlā has seventeen chapters, or sections (prabandhas). Of these, the first twelve are only the preface, or introduction, to the book. The following five chapters, from the thirteenth to the seventeenth, are five sections on the five ages: “birth,” “childhood” (bālya), “boyhood” (paugaṇḍa), “youth” (kaiśora) and “young manhood” (yuvā).

বৃন্দাবনদাস ইহা ‘চৈতন্যমঙ্গলে’ ।
বিস্তারি’ বর্ণিলা নিত্যানন্দ-আজ্ঞা-বলে ॥ ৩৩০ ॥

vṛndāvanadāsa ihā ‘caitanya-maṅgale’
Vṛndāvanadāsa this in the Caitanya-maṅgala
vistāri’ varṇilā nityānanda-ājñā-bale
in detail has described by the power of Nityānanda’s order

330 Vṛndāvana dāsa has described this in detail in the Caitanya-maṅgala by the power of Nityānanda’s order.

Gaura's pastimes are boundless —

শ্রীকৃষ্ণচৈতন্যলীলা — অদ্ভুত, অনন্ত । ব্রহ্মা-শিব-শেষ যাঁর নাহি পায় অন্ত ॥ ৩৩১ ॥

śrī-kṛṣṇa-caitanya-līlā — adbhuta, ananta Śrī Kṛṣṇa Caitanya’s pastimes wondrous endless
brahmā-śiva-śeṣa yāṅra nāhi pāya anta
Brahmā Śiva Śeṣa whose not find the end

331 The pastimes of Śrī Kṛṣṇa Caitanya are wondrous and endless; even Brahmā, Śiva and Śeṣa cannot find their end.

Anubhāṣya.
See Madhya 21.10 and 12, and Śrīmad-Bhāgavatam 2.7.41, 10.14.7 and other verses.

The supreme good for those who hear and chant Gaura's pastimes —

যে যেই অংশ কহে, শুনে সেই ধন্য । অচিরে মিলিবে তারে শ্রীকৃষ্ণচৈতন্য ॥ ৩৩২ ॥

ye yei aṁśa kahe, śune sei dhanya whoever whatever part tells hears he blessed acire milibe tāre śrī-kṛṣṇa-caitanya
soon will meet him Śrī Kṛṣṇa Caitanya

332 Whoever tells any part of them and whoever hears it is blessed; Śrī Kṛṣṇa Caitanya will soon meet him.

শ্রীকৃষ্ণচৈতন্য, অদ্বৈত, নিত্যানন্দ । শ্রীবাস-গদাধরাদি যত ভক্তবৃন্দ ॥ ৩৩৩ ॥

śrī-kṛṣṇa-caitanya, advaita, nityānanda
Śrī Kṛṣṇa Caitanya Advaita Nityānanda
śrīvāsa-gadādharādi yata bhakta-vṛnda
Śrīvāsa Gadādhara and others all the devotees

333 Śrī Kṛṣṇa Caitanya, Advaita, Nityānanda, Śrīvāsa, Gadādhara and all the devotees, Homage to the devotees who live in Vṛndāvana —

যত যত ভক্তগণ বৈসে বৃন্দাবনে । নম্র হঞা শিরে ধরোঁ সবার চরণে ॥ ৩৩৪ ॥

yata yata bhakta-gaṇa vaise vṛndāvane
all all the devotees who live in Vṛndāvana
namra hañā śire dharoṅ sabāra caraṇe
humble being on my head I hold of all the feet

334 and all the devotees who live in Vṛndāvana — humbly I place the feet of them all upon my head.

Obeisance to the gurus —

শ্রীস্বরূপ-শ্রীরূপ-শ্রীসনাতন ।
শ্রীরঘুনাথদাস, আর শ্রীজীব-চরণ ॥ ৩৩৫ ॥

শিরে ধরি বন্দোঁ, নিত্য করোঁ তাঁর আশ । চৈতন্যচরিতামৃত কহে কৃষ্ণদাস ॥ ৩৩৬ ॥ śrī-svarūpa-śrī-rūpa-śrī-sanātana

of Śrī Svarūpa Śrī Rūpa Śrī Sanātana
śrī-raghunātha-dāsa, āra śrī-jīva-caraṇa Śrī Raghunātha dāsa and Śrī Jīva’s feet śire dhari vandoṅ, nitya karoṅ tāṅra āśa
on my head holding I bow always I make in them hope caitanya-caritāmṛta kahe kṛṣṇadāsa
the Caitanya-caritāmṛta tells Kṛṣṇadāsa

335–336 Placing on my head the feet of Śrī Svarūpa, Śrī Rūpa, Śrī Sanātana, Śrī Raghunātha dāsa and Śrī Jīva, I bow to them and always place my hope in them. Thus Kṛṣṇadāsa tells the Caitanya-caritāmṛta.

Anubhāṣya.
Śrī Svarūpa — Śrī Svarūpa Dāmodara; see Madhya 10.102–127 and the Anubhāṣya.

Thus ends the seventeenth chapter of the “Anubhāṣya.”

Notes

1. So in the edition: taror api; the verse reads taror iva. ↩
2. In the numbering now accepted, 10.81.16. ↩
3. Unclear passage: “সন্ধ্যা ধন্য দিগন্তর” (literally “evening, the horizons blessed”); the translation is tentative. ↩
4. In the smṛti, a golaka is a son born to a widow after her husband's death (Manu-saṁhitā 3.174). ↩
5. Bhagavad-gītā 4.40. ↩